A Note From The Publisher

The Noble Qur’ân is the last Divine Book which has been revealed by Allah for the guidance of mankind up to the Day of Resurrection. One of the bright sides of this Book is that it is read and recited much more than any other book of the world. In a real sense this very Book has encircled into it the ever-shining pearls of all the visible and invisible knowledge and the wisdom, the world needs for survival and eternal success. Hence the reading of the Qur’ân, understanding of its meanings and interpretations is important and obligatory on all the followers of Islam.

Muslim Community should be proud for having the last Divine Book in a well-preserved form. This blessed opportunity has not been provided to any other heavenly religion. Before the revelation of the Qur’ân, hundred of Scriptures including the three former heavenly Books as well have been annihilated. Whatever they have at hand as they disclose are nothing but only the Collections of narratives and sayings of spiritual guides. On the other hand, today the Noble Qur’ân has its originality as it was, in the hearts of lakhs of the memorizers (Huffaz) of the Qur’ân. As regards to its manuscripts written from time to time in various periods, their samples are available even today and found in museums, government under-taken libraries as well as many of the private libraries and various publication institutes at large scales.

After revelation of the Qur’ân, various artifice skills developed. Besides its modulation forms, some of them pertained to its literal terms - explanatory points, religious decrees, themes, topic and issue discussions etc. But along with these skills, other techniques and arts such as calligraphy, designing, printing, binding, etc., also developed.

Later on the reference of the Qur’anic geography, descriptions of the Prophets, the Qur’anic habitations, the Qur’anic landmarks etc., were described in scores of the books, by the end of 20th century. But in the third millenium of the world civilization, these descriptions appeared on surface in the form of a new way of ‘understanding the Qur’ân’. For the first time an effort has been made to bring out the places, personalities and nations etc., as indicated in the Qur’ān, in the form of a unique presentation comprising maps, photographs and tables. This great endeavor is Atlas of the Qur’ān by a prominent research scholar of geography and an Arabian renowned figure, Dr Shawqi Abu Khalil.

For the interpretation and explanation of the religious books, the ancient and modern orientalists have done a notable work, and whatever work they did, it is of course a landmark for other research scholars. The habitations and personalities mentioned in Torah, or the land marks, places and personalities mentioned in four books of New Testament are available (in a beautiful manner) in more than a dozen geographical books with maps, known as atlas. But in various chapters of the Qur’ān, the descriptions replete with the events of the Hijaz, Arab nations, places, personalities, oceans, rivers, gulfs, lakes, mountains, forests, caves, cities etc., are available and hundreds of the writers, scholars and authors have also gone through their details, and many of the research books have also been compiled on these topics, but on the other hand, all this fruitful information has yet not been presented in the form of a book (atlas) consisting of maps, photographs and tables. These concerned contents or literary compositions containing the Qur’ānic maps and tables were not before me so that a reciter of the Qur’ān may think of the details of the indications found in the Qur’ān while reciting it.

Since the dawn of the establishment of Darussalam, the multilingual institution for the publication of the Qur’ān and the Qur’ānic sciences and ideologies, we have been on the line of our objectives, i.e., the circulation & publication of the Qur’ān in various languages with its ideologies in scientific manner. In this regard, we keeping in view the modern opportunities, are applying all kinds of modern scientific means and techniques in the teaching & the publication of the Qur’ān. Being an ordinary student of the Qur’ān, it has been my sincere effort to bring out the books (published in Arabic language) on teaching of the Qur’ān, teaching of Hadith, biography of the Messenger ﷺ into the Urdu, English and other languages. Then after two and half years ago, when I went through the great work: (اطلس القرآن: أماكن، أفرام، أعلام) (Atlas of the Qur’ān: Places, Nations, Landmarks) by the distinguished author of Arabic language, Dr Shawqi Abu Khalil, I found it adorned with colored maps besides the Qur’ānic topics and Verses. I was happily surprised and impressed after looking through its pages, and then at the same time, I decided, considering it a valuable presentation, that our institution, Darussalam, would certainly bring out its Urdu and English editions.

So, a contact was made with Dar Al-Fikr, Damascus - the publisher of Atlas of the Qur'ân, but they refused. Then some common friends were asked to do something in this regard, and the publisher was addressed through a letter also, but nothing could be finalized. Last year, Mr. Hasan Salim, the son of Mr. Muhammad Adnan Salim, owner of Dar Al-Fikr, came to Riyadh. He visited the offices of Darussalam and was very much impressed after knowing about the aims and objects of Darussalam and its efforts for the spread of Islamic knowledge, he promised to have a talk with his father regarding the publication of the Atlas of the Qur'ân.

In the beginning of the year 2003, I specially went to Damascus, which is like a second home to me. In the past ten or twelve years, I must have gone there at least 30 or 35 times. In Damascus, the second name of Darussalam is Darul Fiha'. Its owner, Mr. Muhammad Yasir Tabba' is dear to me like a younger brother. After reaching Damascus, I informed my hosts that the only purpose of my visit is to have a conversation with Dar Al-Fikr regarding the books Atlas of the Qur'ân and the Atlas on the Prophet's Biography. The next day we were at the offices of Dar Al-Fikr. Mr. Hasan Salim greeted me heartily. I started talking him about the books again. He proposed to have a talk with his father who was a very busy person. I asked for a few minutes talk with him. His secretary agreed to allow us time for a short talk reminding about the appointments previously assigned.

The meeting that was scheduled to be of a short duration, exceeded one hour and a half until the secretary of Mr. Muhammad Adnan Salim interrupted to remind about the visitors that were waiting.

Dar Al-Fikr was established 50 years ago. Mr. Muhammad Adnan Salim has passed 70 years of life, having a very good health by the grace of Allâh and running the organization with full enthusiasm. He told me about the visit of Maulana Maudoodi to Damascus in 1960 and that the Maulana paid a visit to his house for a social call. Mr. Muhammad Adnan Salim had arranged a dinner for his reception and invited prominent scholars and writers in it. We were engrossed in the past memories. He has a wide experience of publishing books and is well known in the Islamic world. He provided me valuable guidance as regards the publishing field.

However, this meeting ended upon the permission to print both of the books. It was decided that Darussalam will pay regular royalty on them and some money will be paid as advance. Thanks are to Allāh that after some weeks when he visited Riyadh to participate in a conference of writers, an agreement was signed between us, and so I was able to fulfill the wish I was most eager of. I am thankful to Mr. Muhammad Adnan Salim for his cooperation and permission to publish the translations of the books.

It may be perceived that the compilation of the Qur’ānic Atlas consisting of personalities, nations, events and landmarks, places etc., as mentioned in the Qur’ān, was not an easier task. Certainly the author might have made a journey toward the passed period, and imaginarily perceived the pictures of the events mentioned in the Noble Qur’ān. It seems in the journey to the past, other heavenly books, history, narratives and the modern archaeological studies were also proved helpful to this great writer. Certainly this journey in the back direction consisting of several periods would have been a typical and unique experience of his life, but this experience itself is one of the best rewards of the struggles the author did. Having a dip in the ocean of this beautiful experience, the writer has compiled both of his atlases. I am sure that both of them would open for the readers the channel of intelligence and spiritual journey which the author found.

Now the work on the other valuable presentation: (أطلس السيرة النبوية) Atlas on the Prophet’s Biography is under process, and In sha Allāh with high standards of printing and designing, it will soon be in the hands of the readers.

The readers are humbly requested to accept from us this unique presentation, and pray to Allāh for us to be more active in the struggle towards the multilingual publications of much needed books, treatises etc., based on Islam.

May Allāh bless us with splendid success.

Preface

All praise is for Allâh, Lord of all that exists. O Allâh, send prayers and salutations upon our Prophet Muhammad, his family, his Companions, and all those who follow his way until the Last Day.

This atlas consists of pictures and maps of places, peoples, and important figures that are mentioned in Allâh’s Book. The idea to produce this atlas first took root in my mind in the year 1990, when I looked at a map of the Arabian Peninsula and saw a small dot on it, beside which was written, ‘The grave of Prophet Hûd.’ It was located in the eastern part of the city of Taryam, in Hadramawt. When I saw this, I asked myself: When a Muslim reads the Noble Qur’ân and when he comes across the story of Hûd ﷲ, does he know where Hûd ﷲ actually lived? And when he reads the Chapter Al-Ahqâf (Curved Sand Hills), does he know where the intended sand hills are actually situated?

Without taking any definite shape, the idea continued to grow in my mind until I visited the city of Baku, wherein I came across a temple that used to be frequented by fire worshipers. It was there that I asked myself: in Allâh’s Book, a Muslim reads about the Magians (Majus), but does he know where they lived and whether there are any remnants of them today?

The idea continued to grow and take form in my mind until it finally became ripe and complete. Since the way has already been paved for me through the many atlases that have been produced on various topics, I knew exactly what I had to do and what steps I needed to take in order to produce this atlas. I began the project, seeking help from Allâh and placing my complete trust upon Him. The project seemed formidable to say the least, for no book of this kind has ever been produced in the Islamic world. True, some historians have written about the places and peoples that are mentioned in the Noble Qur’ân, but their efforts have been restricted to a written description of those places and peoples, and even that written description is not comprehensive. They made no effort to present pictures and maps. Such history books include the likes of Mountains, Places, and Waters, by Az-Zamakhshari; and, Important Figures in the Noble Qur’ân, by Yahya ‘Abdullah Al-Mu’allimi.

I began my efforts with an in-depth reading of Allâh’s Book, looking for Verses that mentioned places, peoples, and important persons. Then came the research part of this endeavor, a stage that led to the drawing of the pictures and maps in this book, and the writing of the brief explanations that are written alongside them.

This does not mean that I did not face any obstacles during the course of this endeavor; to the contrary, I faced many obstacles, the least of which had to do with places and peoples of the Hereafter or of the unseen world – such as Sidratul-Muntaha, the people of A’râf, Al-Kauthar, the Devil, and so on. It goes without saying that we cannot now associate such places, peoples, and beings with a map or a picture. The unseen world is just that – unseen. But one of the bigger obstacles that I was continually faced with had to do with certain books that expand on and explain the stories of the Qur’ân as well as certain Tafsir books. The problem is that some of those books rely heavily on Israelite narrations, narrations that for the most part are taken from the Torah. Should we rely on such narrations?

To be sure, the answer to this question became clear to me immediately: No, we cannot rely on them. Instead we must rely on our trustworthy sources, for to rely on the Torah to explain the Qur’ân is at once dangerous and wrong. But if we find an Israelite narration that is not in conflict with our beliefs, we mention it alongside other opinions; it represents a possibility among possibilities but not the clear-cut truth, for there is no way to authenticate such narrations. When there are a number of views concerning any given issue, I mention them all and then, if there is proof to give greater credence to one of those views, I point that out.

Another obstacle I faced was in the ordering of this book: where should I begin and what sequence should I follow? I decided to proceed according to the chronology of the events that are mentioned in the Qur’ân. So of course I began with Adam ☪ and ended with our Prophet, Muhammad ☪. And even when it came to the events of our Prophet's biography, at least those of which that are mentioned in the Noble Qur'ân, I proceeded according to the chronology of those events. Since I followed this methodology, and since there is a helpful index at the back of this Atlas, the reader should have no difficulty in finding what he is looking for.

The reader must bear in mind that this Atlas of the Qur'ân is not meant as a book that explains the stories of the Prophets or the events that are mentioned in the Noble Qur'ân; neither is it a book of Tafsir. There are many good and valuable books on each of those topics. This book is an atlas: a collection of maps, charts, pictures, and illustrations – all of which have to do with the places, peoples, and important persons that are mentioned in the Noble Qur'ân. To each chart, map, illustration, or picture I added only that amount of explanation that is necessary to explain each of the above.

To add to the benefit of this atlas, I added tables that mention how many times each topic is mentioned in the Qur'ân; and in addition to that, I included those Verses of the Qur'ân that are related to each picture and map.

On most of the maps, when I mention oceans and cities, I use the names that they are known by today, so that the reader can have a clear idea of where a given place is actually located. I also mention historical places with the names they were known by centuries ago. In doing so, I mainly relied on The Arab and the Islamic History Atlas. I even included a map of the Arabian Peninsula as it was 5000 years ago, so that the reader can compare the cities of that time with present-day cities and borders. At times, I refer the reader to a map on a previous page, particularly when there is no additional benefit in drawing it again.

That is a basic summary of what I have done in this Atlas of the Qur'ân, and at least according to my knowledge, no one has preceded me in this endeavor. And so I ask Allâh to guide me to what is right. It is sufficient honor for one to be guided by Allâh to serve His Noble Book.

I cannot forget to extend my thanks to the people at Dar Al-Fikr, who have supported me and encouraged me from the time that I first had the idea to produce this work. Whenever I needed help along the way, they did their best to provide me with the support and help I needed to do make this atlas a work of superior quality the kind of superior quality that we have come to expect from Dar Al-Fikr’s books.
And first and last, all praise is for Allâh ﷻ.

And (remember) when your Lord said to the angels: “Verily, I am going to place (mankind) generations after generations on earth.” They said: “Will You place therein those who will make mischief therein and shed blood, — while we glorify You with praises and thanks and sanctify You.” He (Allâh) said: “I know that which you do not know.” And He taught Adam all the names (of everything), then He showed them to the angels and said, “Tell Me the names of these if you are truthful.” They (angels) said: “Glorified are You, we have no knowledge except what you have taught us. Verily, it is You, the All-Knower, the All-Wise.” He said: “O Adam! Inform them of their names,” and when he had informed them of their names, He said: “Did I not tell you that I know the Ghâib (Unseen) in the heavens and the earth, and I know what you reveal and what you have been concealing?” And (remember) when We said to the angels: “Prostrate yourselves before Adam.” And they prostrated except Iblîs (Satan), he refused and was proud and was one of the disbelievers (disobedient to Allâh). And We said: “O Adam! Dwell you and your wife in Paradise and eat both of you freely with pleasure and delight, of things therein as wherever you will, but come not near this tree or you both will be of the Zâlimûn (wrong doers).” Then the Shaitân (Satan) made them slip therefrom (Paradise), and got them out from that in which they were. We said: “Get you down, all, with enmity between yourselves. On earth will be a dwelling place for you and an enjoyment for a time.” Then Adam received from his Lord Words. And his Lord pardoned him (accepted his repentance). Verily, He is the One Who forgives (accepts repentance), the Most Merciful. We said: “Get down all of you from this place (the Paradise), then whenever there comes to you Guidance from Me, and whoever follows My Guidance, there shall be no fear on them, nor shall they grieve.

(Qur’ān 2: 30-38)

(And indeed We made a covenant with Adam before, but he forgot, and We found on his part no firm willpower. And (remember) when We said to the angels: “Prostrate yourselves to Adam.” They prostrated themselves (all) except Iblīs (Satan); he refused. Then We said: “O Adam! Verily, this is an enemy to you and to your wife. So, let him not get you both out of Paradise, so that you will be distressed. Verily, you have (a promise from Us) that you will never be hungry therein nor naked. And you (will) suffer not from thirst therein nor from the sun’s heat. Then Shaitān (Satan) whispered to him, saying: “O Adam! Shall I lead you to the Tree of Eternity and to a kingdom that will never waste away?” Then they both ate of the tree, and so their private parts became manifest to them, and they began to cover themselves with the leaves of Paradise for their covering. Thus did Adam disobey his Lord, so he went astray. Then his Lord chose him, and turned to him with forgiveness, and gave him guidance. He (Allāh) said: “Get you down (from Paradise to the earth), both of you together, some of you are an enemy to some others. Then if there comes to you guidance from Me, then whoever follows My Guidance he shall neither go astray nor shall be distressed.

(Qur'ân 20: 115-123)

Allâh  said:

“Get you down, all, with enmity between yourselves. On earth will be a dwelling place for you and an enjoyment for a time.”

The question then arises, where was it that Adam  and Hawwaah landed when they descended to the earth. In Ad-Dur Al-Manthur, it is related from Ibn  `Abbas  that Adam , Hawwa, Iblis, and the snake landed in a place called Dajnah, which is situated somewhere between Makkah and At-Tâ’if. It is also said that Adam landed at As-Safa (a well-known mountain in Makkah) and that Hawwaah landed at Al-Marwah (another well-known mountain in Makkah). In another narration from Ibn  `Abbâs , it is mentioned that Adam landed somewhere in India.

In that narration, which is related by Ibn Sa’ad and Ibn Asâkir from Ibn  `Abbâs , it is mentioned that Adam landed in India while Hawwaah landed in Jeddah; and that Adam then searched out for her until he reached Muzdalifah; to this very day, pilgrims gather during Hajj at Muzdalifah. The word Muzdalifah is derived from the verb Izdalafah, which means to approach. Some believe that Muzdalifah was given its name because it is there that Hawwaah approached Adam and met up with him.

At-Tabarâni, Abu Nu’aim, and Ibn Asâkir all related from Abu Hurairah  that the Messenger of Allâh  said, “Adam descended in India.” And At-Tabarâni related the following narration from  `Abdullah ibn `Umar : When Allâh made Adam descend, He made him descend in the land of India. He then went to Makkah and afterwards went to Ash-Sham (Syria and surrounding regions), which is where he died.”

From these and other narrations, we learn the following: Adam descended to earth in India, on a mountain that is called Baudh, on the island of Sri Lanka (Serendib/Ceylon), just below the Indian Subcontinent. Ibn Batutah recorded in his journals that he landed on that island, the inhabitants of which, he reported, still remembered Adam by the name “father” and Hawwa by the name “mother.”
As for his grave, it is said that Adam ﷺ was buried in the mountain of Abu Qubais; according to a different view, it is maintained that he was buried on Mount Baudh, which is where he landed in the first place when he descended to earth. It is mentioned in some narrations that, after the flood, Noah ﷺ had to bury him for a second time, and that he buried him in Jerusalem.

Of the various narrations on the topic, I deem certain narrations of At-Tabari, Ibn Al-Athir, and Al-Ya’qubi to be the strongest. They indicate that, after Allâh ﷺ forgave Adam ﷺ, Jibreel ﷺ carried Adam ﷺ to Mount Arafat, where Jibreel ﷺ taught him the rites of Hajj; those narrations also indicate that it was at the foot of Mount Abu Qubais that Adam ﷺ died and was subsequently buried.
The Two Sons Of Adam: Qâbîl and Hâbil

Their story is related in Sûratul-Mâ‘îdah:

وَأَتَلَّ عَلَيْهِمْ نَبِيٌّ أَبَنِيَ عَادٍ بِالْحَقِّ إِذْ قَرَأَ فَرِيَّنَا فَنَقَبَلَ مِنْ أَحَدِهِمَا وَلَمْ يَنْقَبَلَ مِنْ الأَخُرُ قَالَ لَأَفَلَمْ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ عِندَ الْحَقِّ إِذْ قَرَأَ فَرِيَّنَا فَنَقَبَلَ مِنْ أَحَدِهِمَا وَلَمْ يَنْقَبَلَ مِنْهُ»

مَا أَنَا بِمُسَلِّمٍ إِلَّا إِلَّكَ لَأَفَلَمْ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ عِندَ الْحَقِّ إِذْ قَرَأَ فَرِيَّنَا فَنَقَبَلَ مِنْ أَحَدِهِمَا وَلَمْ يَنْقَبَلَ مِنْهُ»

And (O Muhammad ﷺ) recite to them (the Jews) the story of the two sons of Adam (Hâbil and Qâbîl — Abel and Cain) in truth; when each offered a sacrifice (to Allâh), it was accepted from the one but not from the other. The latter said to the former: “I will surely, kill you.” The former said: “Verily, Allâh accepts only from those who are Al-Muttaqûn (the pious). If you do stretch your hand against me to kill me, I shall never stretch my hand against you to kill you: for I fear Allâh, the Lord of the ʿÂlamîn (mankind, jinn, and all that exists). Verily, I intend to let you draw my sin on yourself as well as yours, then you will be one of the dwellers of the Fire; and that is the recompense of the Zâlimûn (wrong doers).” So, the Nafs (self) of the other (latter one) encouraged him and made fair-looking to him the murder of his brother; he murdered him and became one of the losers. Then Allâh sent a crow who scratched the ground to show him how to hide the dead body of his brother. He (the murderer) said: "Woe to me! Am I not even able to be as this crow and to hide the dead body of my brother?" Then he became one of those who regretted.

(Qur'ân 5: 27-31)

It seems likeliest that the events of this story took place in Makkah, for that is where Adam ٍ and Hawwaah lived. One narration mentions that after he killed his brother, Hábil, Qâbil fled to Yemen. A narration from At-Tabari supports the view that the events of the story took place in Makkah, where Adam ٍ lived. The wording of that narration is as follows: "And he fled from his father, Adam ٍ, and headed towards Yemen."

For a long time now, the commoners of Syria have believed that Qâbil killed his brother at Mount Qâsyun, which overlooks the northern part of Damascus. At one of the entrances of that mountain there is a cave that the commoners call, The Cave of Blood, because, they say, that is where the murder took place. On the right side of the road that leads from Damascus to Az-Zabdân and Baludân, there is a mountain that overlooks the valley of the Burdi River; the mountain is situated in the area of At-Takiyyah. There is a grave whereabouts that measures 15 m long; some believe that it is the grave of Hábil.

Idris ﷲ is twice mentioned by name in the Noble Qur’ān:

وَأَدْرَكَ فِي الْكِتَابِ إِدْرِيسَ إِنَّهُ كَانَ صَادِقًا لَّيْنا ۚ وَرَفَعْنَاهُ مَكَانًا عَلِيّاً

And mention in the Book (the Qur’ān) Idrīs. Verily, he was a man of truth, (and) a Prophet. And We raised him to a high station.

(Qur’ān 19: 56, 57)

وَيَسْمَعْنَ وَإِدْرِيسَ وَذَا الْكَفِّ لَسْعُ مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ۗ وَأَدْخِلْنَاهُمْ فِي رَحْمَتِنَا

And (remember) Isma‘īl (Ishmael), Idrīs and Dhul-Kifl (Isaiah) all were from among As-Sābirūn (the patient). And We admitted them to Our Mercy. Verily, they were of the righteous.

(Qur’ān 21: 85, 86)

Born in Egypt, in the city of Memphis (Minf), Idrīs was first given the name Hirmis Al-Harāmisah. According to another report, however, he was born in Babylon (Bābil) and then later migrated to Egypt. When he first saw the Nile River, he said, “Babilyun,” which means: a river like your river, a large river, a blessed river. It is said that 188 cities were built during his era, the smallest of which was Ar-Ruha. Idrīs is the first to have studied wisdom and astronomy, and some wise sayings are still credited to him, among which the following are examples:

- There is no better way to thank Allāh for His favors than to be kind and generous to His creation.
- When you invoke Allāh, make your intention sincere and pure.
- Wisdom is the life of the soul.
• Do not be jealous of people for the things they have, for their enjoyment of those things is short-lived.

• Nothing can make one feel rich when one seeks to have more than the bare necessities.

وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نَوحًا إِلَى قَوْمِهِ إِنَّا لَنَذِيرٌ وَمُبِينٌ ۗ أَلَيْنَ اسْتَغْفَرُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ إِنَّهُ لَأَنتِي لَهُ نَذِيرٌ عَلَيْكُم مَّعَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ۗ فَقَالَ الْمَلَائِكَةُ الْدِّينُ كَفَّارٌ مِّنْ قَوْمِهِ مَا تَرَاهُ الْأَيُّوْلَدُ الْأَلِيمُ وَمَا نَزَّلَ لَهُ مِنْ فَضْلٍ بَلْ نُظَلكُمُ كَذُبَّبِكُمْ ۗ قَالَ يَكُونُ أَنْ تَبْعَثَنِي إِنَّ كَانَ عَلَى بَيْنِي مَنْ رَبِّي وَعَادِي رَحمَةً مِّنْ عِندِهِ فَعَرَبَتْ عَلَيْكُمُ الْبَيْعُ وَكَرَّتُهُ أَنْ كَرِهُنَّ ۗ وَيَقُولُونَ لا أَنْعَضَمُ عَلَى هَهُمْ مَلِيَّةً ۗ إِنَّهُ أَنْبِيَاءٌ إِلَّا عَلَى اللَّهِ وَمَا أَنْبِيَاءٌ كَأُنَبَيْتُ إِلَى عِبَادِي مِّنْ بَعْدِهِمْ وَأَنْبِيَاءُ كَأُنَبَيْتُ لَهُمْ مِّنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَأَنْبِيَاءُ جَهَّالٌ وَيَقُولُونَ لا أَنْعَضَمُ عَلَى هَهُمْ مَلِيَّةً ۗ إِنَّهُ أَنْبِيَاءٌ إِلَّا عَلَى اللَّهِ وَمَا أَنْبِيَاءٌ كَأُنَبَيْتُ إِلَى عِبَادِي مِّنْ بَعْدِهِمْ وَأَنْبِيَاءُ كَأُنَبَيْتُ لَهُمْ مِّنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَأَنْبِيَاءُ
And indeed We sent Nūh (Noah) to his people (and he said): “I have come to you as a plain Warner. That you worship none but Allāh; surely, I fear for you the torment of a painful Day.”

The chiefs who disbelieved among his people said: “We see you but a man like ourselves, nor do we see any follow you but the meanest among us and they (too) followed you without thinking. And we do not see in you any merit above us, in fact we think you are liars.” He said: “O my people! Tell me, if I have a clear proof from my Lord, and a mercy (Prophethood) has come to me from Him, but that (mercy) has been obscured from your sight. Shall we compel you to accept it (Islamic Monotheism) when you have a strong hatred for it? And O my people! I ask of you no wealth for it, my reward is from none but Allāh. I am not going to drive away those who have believed. Surely, they are going to meet their Lord, but I see that you are a people that are ignorant. And O my people! Who will help me against Allāh, if I drove them away? Will you not then give a thought? And I do not say to you that with me are the Treasures of Allāh, nor that I know the Ghair (Unseen); nor do I say I am an angel, and I do not say of those whom your eyes look down upon that Allāh will not bestow any good on them. Allāh knows what is in their inner selves (as regards belief). In that case, I should, indeed be one of the Zālimūn (wrong doers, oppressors).” They said: “O Nūh (Noah)! You have disputed with us and much have you prolonged the dispute with us, now bring upon us what you threaten us with, if you are of the truthful.” He said: “Only Allāh will bring it (the punishment) on you, if He wills, and then you will escape not. And my advice will not profit you, even if I wish to give you good counsel, if Allāh’s Will is to keep you astray. He is your Lord! and to Him you shall return.” Or they (the pagans of Makkah) say: “He (Muhammad ﷺ) has fabricated it (the Qur’ān).” Say: “If I have fabricated it, upon me be my crimes, but I am innocent of (all) those crimes which you commit.” And it was revealed to Nūh (Noah): “None of your people will believe except those who have believed already. So be not sad because of what they used to do. And construct the ship under Our Eyes and with Our Revelation, and call not upon Me on behalf of those who did wrong; they are surely to be drowned.” And as he was constructing the ship, whenever the chiefs of his people passed by him, they mocked at him. He said: “If you mock at us, so do we mock at you likewise for your mocking. And you will know who it is on whom will come a torment that will cover him with disgrace and on whom will fall a lasting torment.”

(So it was) till when Our Command came and the oven gushed forth (water like fountains from the earth). We said: “Embark therein, of each kind two (male and female), and your family — except him against whom the Word has already gone forth — and those who believe. And none believed with him, except a few.” And he [Nūḥ (Noah) ﷺ] said: “Embark therein: in the Name of Allāh will be its (moving) course and its (resting) anchorage. Surely, my Lord is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.”

(Tafsir At-Tabarî) So it (the ship) sailed with them amidst waves like mountains, and Nūḥ (Noah) called out to his son, who had separated himself (apart): “O my son! Embark with us and be not with the disbelievers.” The son replied: “I will betake myself to some mountain, it will save me from the water.” Nūḥ (Noah) said: “This day there is no saviour from the Decree of Allāh except him on whom He has mercy.” And waves came in between them, so he (the son) was among the drowned. And it was said: “O earth! Swallow up your water, and O sky! Withhold (your rain).” And the water was made to subside and the Decree (of Allāh) was fulfilled (i.e. the destruction of the people of Nūḥ (Noah). And it (the ship) rested on (Mount) Judi, and it was said: “Away with the people who are Zalimun (polytheists and wrong-doers)!” And Nūḥ (Noah) called upon his Lord and said, “O my Lord! Verily, my son is of my family! And certainly, Your Promise is true, and You are the Most Just of the judges.” He said: “O Nūḥ (Noah)! Surely, he is not of your family; verily, his work is unrighteous, so ask not of Me that of which you have no knowledge! I admonish you, lest you should be one of the ignorant.” Nūḥ (Noah) said: “O my Lord! I seek refuge with You from asking You that of which I have no knowledge. And unless You forgive me and have mercy on me, I would indeed be one of the losers.” It was said: “O Nūḥ (Noah)! Come down (from the ship) with peace from Us and blessings on you and on the people who are with you (and on some of their offspring), but (there will be other) people to whom We shall grant their pleasures (for a time), but in the end a painful torment will reach them from Us.”

(Qur’an 11: 25-48)

The people of Nūh (Noah) denied (their Messenger) before them. They rejected Our slave, and said: “A madman!” and he was insolently rebuked and threatened. Then he invoked his Lord (saying): “I have been overcome, so help (me)!" So, We opened the gates of the heaven with water pouring forth. And We caused springs to gush forth from the earth. So, the waters (of the heaven and the earth) met for a matter predestined. And We carried him on a (ship) made of planks and nails, Floating under Our Eyes, a reward for him who had been rejected! And indeed, We have left this as a sign. Then is there any that will remember (or receive admonition)? Then how (terrible) was My torment and My Warnings?

(Qur’an 54: 9-16)
Verily, We sent Nūh (Noah) to his people (saying): “Warn your people before there comes to them a painful torment.” He said: “O my people! Verily, I am a plain warner to you, that you should worship Allāh (Alone), fear (be dutiful to) Him, and obey me, He (Allāh) will forgive you of your sins and respite you to an appointed term. Verily, the term of Allāh when it comes, cannot be delayed, if you but know.” He said: “O my Lord! Verily, I have called to my people night and day (i.e. secretly and openly to accept the doctrine of Islamic Monotheism), but all my calling added nothing but to (their) flight (from the truth). And verily, every time I called to them that You might forgive them, they thrust their fingers into their ears, covered themselves up with their garments, and persisted (in their refusal), and magnified themselves in pride. Then verily, I called to them openly (aloud). Then verily, I proclaimed to them in public, and I have appealed to them in private. I said (to them): “Ask forgiveness from your Lord, verily, He is Oft-Forgiving; He will send rain to you in abundance, and give you increase in wealth and children, and bestow on you gardens and bestow on you rivers.” What is the matter with you, that [you fear not Allāh (His punishment), and] you hope not for reward (from Allāh or you believe not in His Oneness). While He has created you in (different) stages [i.e. first Nutfah, then 'Alaqah and then Mudghah]. See you not how Allāh has created the seven heavens one above another? And has made the moon a light therein, and made the sun a lamp? And Allāh has brought you forth from the (dust of) earth. (Tafsir At-Tabari) Afterwards He will return you into it (the earth), and bring you forth (again on the Day of Resurrection). And Allāh has made for you the earth a wide expanse. That you may go about therein in broad roads. Nūh (Noah) said: "My Lord! They have disobeyed me, and followed one whose wealth and children give him no increase but loss. And they have plotted a mighty plot. And they have said: 'You shall not leave your gods, nor shall you leave Wadd, nor Suwā', nor Yaghūth, nor Ya'ūq, nor Nasr' (these are the names of their idols).’ And indeed they have led many astray. And (O Allāh): 'Grant no increase to the Zālimūn (polytheists, wrong doers, and disbelievers) except error.' Because of their sins they were drowned, then were made to enter the Fire. And they found none to help them instead of Allāh. And Nūh (Noah) said: "My Lord! Leave not one of the disbelievers on the earth! If You leave them, they will mislead Your slaves, and they will beget none but wicked disbelievers. My Lord! Forgive me, and my parents, and him who enters my home as a believer, and all the believing men and women. And to the Zālimūn (polytheists, wrong doers, and disbelievers) grant You no increase but destruction!"

(Qur’ān 71: 1-28)

The people of Noah lived in southern Iraq, not too far from where the city of Kufah is situated today.

Al-Judi is a mountain facing Ibn ‘Umar Island at the junction of the Syrian and Turkish borders, on the eastern bank of Tigris River. This mountain could easily be seen from the Syrian town of Ain Dewar.

Historically it was mentioned that the land between the two rivers passed the following ages:

(1) The Old Stone Age: Mr. Sawyli (a scientist) discovered ancient remains of the stone age in 1954.
(2) New Stone age: (Grumu Civilization)

Mr. Bred Wood discovered in 1948 an important center of this age in Grumu village west of As-Sulaimaniyah city. Scientists believe that, the center was built around 6500 BC, which was little after the appearance of rural societies.

In the New stone age, there appeared also Tall Hassouna which is situated south of Mosul city. Its age goes back to round the year 5750 BC.

Mr. Malwan found in 1931 similar pattern to (Tall Hassouna civilization) in Ninawa near Mosul city, and discovered other models of this civilization at different places in Iraq.

In (Tall Halafa) near the Syrian town Rasul-Ain the source of Khabur River, a German scientist called Bayron (Vaughn Ubenhiem), discovered similar patterns of the New Stone age civilization.

(3) The Copper-stone Age in the fertile plain surrounding the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers.

The civilization of this age is manifest in three important sites:

a- (The Slaves Mount) near Ur old city, south the land of the two rivers. This was discovered by the British Museum Expedition that was headed by Dr. Hall. The work of Dr. Hall was succeeded by the Historian Leonard Wooly who found in the old city of Ur, dolls made out of clay and that they have a religious significance.

b- The civilization of Auruk Age (Warqa).

This was explored by a German mission.

c- The civilization of Jamdat Nassur age:

The monuments of this age were discovered in 1920 by the archeologist Lankdon in a small hill called (Jamdat Nassur) that lies near the old city of Kish.

Towards the end of this age, according to history books, the great flood took place and inundated the land between the two rivers. The excavations that had been carried out in Ur, Uruk Kish and Shurback revealed that a great flood had taken place between the Slave Age and Jamad Nassur Age.

Another archeologist, Mr. Wooly, found thick layers of mud two and a half meters deep in Ur city.

Mr. Wooly found ancient remains of human residing on top of these mud layers as well as below them. He concluded that this mud was brought about by the flood of Tigris and Euphrates.

[It may be that the story of the flood mentioned in the holy books is older than this one by several ages, for Mr. Kountru (Quoting from De Morgan) referred it to the rainy age, which followed the Ice Age at the end of the fourth stage when a large number of people perished. The Inscriptions that were discovered in the library of (Ashur Banib’al) commemorated this flood.]

Almost all the News Agencies through satellites reported on Wednesday Sept. 13, 2000 the following: Whole cities have been discovered at the bottom of the Black Sea. The team of scientists who discovered these cities said that this prove the flood that was mentioned in the holy books. The British Broadcasting Corporation (BBC) in London, broadcast this news on Thursday Sept. 14, 2000 in its program (The World This Morning) after TV channels broadcast the news the night before.

Prophet Hûd is mentioned seven times in the Noble Qur’an, namely, in the following Chapters and Verses:

And to the ‘Ad (people We sent) their brother Hûd. He said,
“O my people! Worship Allāh! You have no other ilāh (god) but Him. Certainly, you do nothing but invent lies! O my people! I ask of you no reward for it (the Message). My reward is only from Him Who created me. Will you not then understand? And O my people! Ask forgiveness of your Lord and then repent to Him, He will send you (from the sky) abundant rain, and add strength to your strength, so do not turn away as Mujrimūn (criminals, disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh).” They said: “O Hūd! No evidence have you brought us, and we shall not leave our gods for your (mere) saying! And we are not believers in you. All that we say is that some of our gods (false deities) have seized you with evil (madness).” He said: “I call Allāh to witness and bear you witness that I am free from that which you ascribe as partners in worship with Him (Allāh). So plot against me, all of you, and give me no respite. I put my trust in Allāh, my Lord and your Lord! There is not a moving (living) creature but He has the grasp of its forelock. Verily, my Lord is on a Straight Path (the truth). So if you turn away, still I have conveyed the Message with which I was sent to you. My Lord will make another people succeed you, and you will not harm Him in the least. Surely, my Lord is Guardian over all things.” And when Our Commandment came, We saved Hūd and those who believed with him by a mercy from Us, and We saved them from a severe torment. Such were ‘Ād (people). They rejected the Ayāt (proofs, evidences, Verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) of their Lord and disobeyed His Messengers, and followed the command of every proud, obstinate (oppressor of the truth from their leaders). And they were pursued by a curse in this world and (so they will be) on the Day of Resurrection. No doubt! Verily, ‘Ād disbelieved in their Lord. So, away with ‘Ād, the people of Hūd.

(Qur’ān 11: 50-60)
'Ād (people) denied the Messengers. When their brother Hūd said to them: “Will you not fear Allāh and obey Him? Verily, I am a trustworthy Messenger to you. So fear Allāh, keep your duty to Him, and obey me. No reward do I ask of you for it (my Message of Islamic Monotheism); my reward is only from the Lord of the ‘Ālamīn (mankind, jinn, and all that exists). Do you build high palaces on every high place, while you do not live in them? And do you get for yourselves palaces (fine buildings) as if you will live therein forever? And when you seize (somebody), seize you (him) as tyrants? So fear Allāh, keep your duty to Him, and obey me. And keep your duty to Him, fear Him Who has aided you with all (good things) that you know. He has aided you with cattle and children. And gardens and springs. Verily, I fear for you the torment of a Great Day.”’ They said: “It is the same to us whether you preach or be not of those who preach. This is no other than the false tales and religion of the ancients (Tafsīr At-Tabarī). And we are not going to be punished.” So they denied him, and We destroyed them. Verily, in this is indeed a sign, yet most of them are not believers. And verily your Lord, He is truly the All-Mighty, the Most Merciful.

(Qur’ān 26: 123-140)

Ibn ‘Abbās �筇 is reported to have said, “Verily, Hūd was the first to speak the Arabic language.” The people of Ād, to whom Hūd ⣿ had been sent, lived in an area of curved sand hills in the southern part of the Arabian Peninsula. They worshiped a number of idols:
Wudd, Suwa’, Yaghuth, Ya’uq, and Nasr [refer to the map that shows the places of idols and images in the Arabian Peninsula]. Ibn ‘Abbâs ﷺ said, “They [also] took to worshiping an idol that was called Al-Hattar.

The people of Ād that were destroyed are referred to as the ‘first people of Ād’; as for the ‘second people of Ād,’ they are the inhabitants of Yemen from Qahtan, Saba, and their descendents. But it is also said that the ‘second people of Ād’ are none other than the people of Thamûd.

The people of Hadramawt say that, after Ād was destroyed, Hûd ﷺ lived in the land of Hadramawt, until he died in the western part of their land, not too far from the city of Taryam, which is near the Valley of Barhut. It is worth mentioning here that there is a grave in Palestine that is erroneously said to be his.

And to Thamūd (people, We sent) their brother Sālih. He said: “O my people! Worship Allāh! You have no other Ilāh (God) but Him. (Lā ilāha illallāh: none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh.) Indeed there has come to you a clear sign (the miracle of the coming out of a huge she-camel from the midst of a rock) from your Lord. This she-camel of Allāh is a sign to you; so you leave her to graze in Allāh’s earth, and touch her not with harm, lest a painful torment should seize you. And remember when He made you successors after ‘Ād (people) and gave you habitations in the land, you build for yourselves palaces in plains, and carve out homes in the mountains. So remember the graces (bestowed upon you) from Allāh, and do not go about making mischief on the earth.” The leaders of those who were arrogant among his people said to those who were counted weak — to such of them as believed: “Know you that Sālih is one sent from his Lord.” They said: “We indeed believe in that with which he has been sent.” Those who were arrogant said: “Verily, we disbelieve in that which you believe in.” So they killed the she-camel and insolently defied the Commandment of their Lord, and said: “O Sālih! Bring about your threats if you are indeed one of the Messengers (of Allāh).” So the earthquake seized them, and they lay (dead), prostrate in their homes. Then he (Sālih) turned from them, and said: “O my people! I have indeed conveyed to you the Message of my Lord, and have given you good advice but you like not good advisers.”

(Qur’ān 7: 73-79)
And to Thamûd (people We sent) their brother Sâlih . He said: “O my people! Worship Allâh: you have no other ilâh (god) but Him. He brought you forth from the earth and settled you therein, then ask forgiveness of Him and turn to Him in repentance. Certainly, my Lord is Near (to all by His Knowledge), Responsive.” They said: “O Sâlih! You have been among us as a figure of good hope (and we wished for you to be our chief) till this [new thing which you have brought that we leave our gods and worship your God (Allâh) Alone]! Do you (now) forbid us the worship of what our fathers have worshipped? But we are really in grave doubt as to that to which you invite us (monotheism).” He said: “O my people! Tell me, if I have a clear proof from my Lord, and there has come to me a mercy (Prophethood) from Him, who then can help me against Allâh, if I were to disobey Him? Then you increase me not but in loss. “And O my people! This she-camel of Allâh is a sign to you, so leave her to feed (graze) in Allâh’s land, and touch her not with evil, lest a near torment should seize you.” But they killed her. So he said: “Enjoy yourselves in your homes for three days. This is a promise (i.e. a threat) that will not be belied.” So when Our Commandment came, We saved Sâlih and those who believed with him by a mercy from Us, and from the disgrace of that Day. Verily, your Lord — He is the All-Strong, the All-Mighty. And As-Saihah (torment — awful cry) overtook the wrong doers, so they lay (dead), prostrate in their homes, As if they had never lived there. No doubt! Verily, Thamûd disbelieved in their Lord. So away with Thamûd!

(Qur’ân 11: 61-68)
Mada'in Salih
Thamūd (people) denied the Messenger. When their brother Sālih said to them: “Will you not fear Allāh and obey Him? I am a trustworthy Messenger to you. So fear Allāh, keep your duty to Him, and obey me. No reward do I ask of you for it (my Message of Islamic Monotheism); my reward is only from the Lord of the ‘Ālamīn (mankind, jinn and all that exists). Will you be left secure in that which you have here? In gardens and springs. And green crops (field) and date palms with soft spadix. And you hew out in the mountains, houses with great skill. So fear Allāh, keep your duty to Him, and obey me. And follow not the command of Al-Musrifūn (i.e. their chiefs, leaders who were polytheists, criminals and sinners), who make mischief in the land, and reform not.” They said: You are only of those bewitched! You are but a human being like us. Then bring us a sign if you are of the truthful.” He said: “Here is a she-camel: it has a right to drink (water), and you have a right to drink (water) (each) on a day, known. And touch her not with harm, lest the torment of a Great Day should seize you.” But they killed her, and then they became regretful. So, the torment overtook them. Verily, in this is indeed a sign, yet most of them are not believers. And verily your Lord, He is truly the All-Mighty, the Most Merciful.

(Qur‘ān 26: 141-159)
The dwelling places of Sâlih's people, Thamûd, are situated somewhere between Al-Hijaz and Ash-Sham (Syria and surrounding regions), in the southeastern part of Midian (Madyan), which is situated east of the Gulf of Al-'Aqaba. Chiseled out of stone, their dwellings are still preserved.

The people of Thamûd worshiped idols. Then Allâh sent Sâlih to them, to both advise and remind them about their duties towards Allâh. The miracle Sâlih came with was the she-camel that came out of a stone. Though they were warned not to, they slaughtered that camel, and as a result of their disbelief and disobedience, they were destroyed. The only ones who were saved among them were Sâlih and those who believed in his Prophethood. After their people were destroyed, those survivors traveled to Ramlah in Palestine. That they traveled there is the strongest of the various views regarding where they went, for it was the closest fertile land to them. And it is known that Arabs would give great importance to land that was situated near water and plentiful pasture, for they relied in their livelihood on the grazing of their livestock.

Nonetheless, the people of Hadramawt say that Sâlih and his followers traveled to Hadramawt and settled there, because that is where they were originally from. There is a grave there that they say belongs to Sâlih. Others have said that Sâlih and his followers remained in their dwellings even after their people were destroyed. And yet others say that they traveled to Makkah and remained there until they died and that their graves are situated west of the Ka'bah.
Ibrāhīm
(Peace be upon him)
Father of the Prophets.
Khalilur-Rahman
Round 1800 B.C.
Ibrâhim

He is the father of the Prophets, and the Khalil (one who is singled out for extra love) of the Most Merciful. Ibrâhim is mentioned by name 69 times in the Noble Qur'an:

ولقد عانيتُبُ إِبْرَاهِيمُ رَسُولَ اللهِ ﷺ وَرَبِّي وَرَبِّكَ وَأَلِيمَينَۚ إِذْ قَالَ لَّا إِلهَ إِلَّا عَزِيزٌ قَدِيرٌۙ قَالَ وَعِدَّنَا نُبِيًا مِّنْ أَلِيمِينَۚ قَالَ لَّقَدْ كَانَ أَنَّ مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ قَالَ يَا وَلَدَى عَزِيزٌ وَقَدِيرٌۚ قَالَ رَبِّ قَلْنَآ أَنَا أَشْهَدُ رَبِّي أَنِّي أَنْعَمَتْ عَلَى مَأْمُودٍۚ وَذَٰلِكَ لَتُبْعَثُ رَبُّ الْأَرْضِينَ وَالْآَخِرَةِ وَلَّيَطْغِيَۚ وَأَنَا عَلَى ذَٰلِكَ دِينِيۚ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْقَدِيرُۚ وَاللَّهُ يَرِجَعُونَ إِلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْتَضِيرُهُ عَلَى مَّلَكِهِۚ فَهُوَ الْكَبِيرُ الْخَٰلِدُۚ إِنَّهُ تَحْث
And indeed We bestowed aforetime on Ibrāhīm (Abraham) his (portion of) guidance, and We were All-Knower of him (as to his belief in the Oneness of Allah). When he said to his father and his people: "What are these images to which you are devoted?" They said: "We found our fathers worshipping them." He said: "Indeed you and your fathers have been in manifest error." They said: "Have you brought us the Truth, or are you one of those who play about?" He said: "Nay, your Lord is the Lord of the heavens and the earth, Who created them and to that I am one of the witnesses. And by Allāh, I shall plot a plan (to destroy) your idols after you have gone away and turned your backs." So he broke them to pieces, (all) except the biggest of them, that they might turn to it. They said: "Who has done this to our ālihāh (gods)? He must indeed be one of the Zālimūn (wrong doers)." They said: "We heard a young man talking against them, who is called Ibrāhīm (Abraham)." They said: "Then bring him before the eyes of the people, that they may testify." They said: "Are you the one who has done this to our gods, O Ibrāhīm (Abraham)?" [Ibrāhīm (Abraham)] said: "Nay, this one, the biggest of them (idols) did it. Ask them, if they can speak!" So they turned to themselves and said: "Verily, you are the Zālimūn (polytheists and wrong doers)." Then they turned to themselves (their first thought and said): "Indeed you [Ibrāhīm (Abraham)] know well that these (idols) speak not!" [Ibrāhīm (Abraham)] said: "Do you then worship besides Allāh, things that can neither profit you nor harm you? Fie upon you, and upon that which you worship besides Allāh! Have you then no sense?" They said: "Burn him and help your ālihāh (gods), if you will be doing." We (Allāh) said: "O fire! Be you coolness and safety for Ibrāhīm (Abraham)!" And they wanted to harm him, but We made them the worst losers. And We rescued him and Lūt (Lot) to the land which We have blessed for the ‘Ālamīn (mankind and jinn). And We bestowed upon him Ishāq (Isaac), and (a grandson) Ya‘qūb (Jacob). Each one We made righteous. (Qur‘ān 21: 51-72)
And (remember) when Ibrāhīm (Abraham) said to his father Āzar: “Do you take idols as ālihā (gods)? Verily, I see you and your people in manifest error.” Thus did we show Ibrahīm (Abraham) the kingdom of the heavens and the earth that he be one of those who have Faith with certainty. When the night covered him over with darkness he saw a star. He said: “This is my lord.” But when it set, he said: “I like not that set.” When he saw the moon rising up, he said: “This is my lord.” But when it set, he said: “Unless my Lord guides me, I shall surely be among the people who went astray.” When he saw the sun rising up, he said: “This is my lord. This is greater.” But when it set, he said: “O my people! I am indeed free from all that you join as partners (in worship with Allāh). Verily, I have turned my face towards Him Who has created the heavens and the earth Hanīfa (Islamic Monotheism, i.e. worshipping none but Allāh Alone), and I am not of Al-Mushrikūn.” His people disputed with him. He said: “Do you dispute with me concerning Allāh while He has guided me, and I fear not those whom you associate with Him (Allāh) in worship. (Nothing can happen to me) except when my Lord (Allāh) wills something. My Lord comprehends in His Knowledge all things. Will you not then remember? And how should I fear those whom you associate in worship with Allāh (though they can neither benefit nor harm), while you fear not that you have joined in worship with Allāh things for which He has not sent down to you any authority. (So) which of the two parties has more right to be in security? If you but know.” It is those who believe (in the Oneness of Allāh and worship none but Him Alone) and confuse not their Belief with Zulm (wrong, i.e. by worshipping others besides Allāh), for them (only) there is security and they are the guided. And that was Our Proof which We gave Ibrāhīm (Abraham) against his people. We raise whom We will in degrees. Certainly your Lord is All-Wise, All-Knowing.

(Qur'ān 6: 74-83)

And recite to them the story of Ibrāhīm (Abraham). When he said to his father and his people: “What do you worship?” They said: “We worship idols, and to them we are ever devoted.” He said: “Do they hear you when you call on (them)? Or do they benefit you or do they harm (you)?”
said: “(Nay) but we found our fathers doing so.” He said: “Do you observe that which you have been worshipping – you and your ancient fathers? Verily, they are enemies to me, except the Lord of the ‘Ālamin (mankind, jinn and all that exists), Who has created me, and it is He Who guides me. And it is He Who feeds me and gives me to drink. And when I am ill, it is He Who cures me. And Who will cause me to die, and then will bring me to life (again). And Who, I hope, will forgive me my faults on the Day of Recompense (the Day of Resurrection).” My Lord! Bestow Hukm (religious knowledge, right judgement of the affairs and Prophethood) on me, and join me with the righteous. And grant me an honorable mention in later generations. And make me one of the inheritors of the Paradise of Delight. And forgive my father, verily, he is of the erring. And disgrace me not on the Day when (all the creatures) will be resurrected. The Day whereon neither wealth nor sons will avail, Except him who comes to Allāh with a clean heart [clean from Shirk (polytheism) and Nifāq (hypocrisy)].”

(Qur’ān 26: 69-89)

(And remember) when Ibrāhīm (Abraham) said: “O my Lord! Make this city (Makkah) one of peace and security, and keep me and my sons away from worshipping idols. O my Lord! They have indeed led astray many among mankind. But whoso follows me, he verily, is of me. And whoso disobeys me, still You are indeed Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful. O our Lord! I have made some of my offspring to dwell in an uncultivable valley by Your Sacred House (the Ka’bah at Makkah) in order, O our Lord, that they may perform As-Salāt (the prayers). So fill some hearts among men with love towards them, and (O Allāh) provide them with fruits so that they may give thanks. O our Lord! Certainly, You know what we conceal and what we reveal. Nothing on the earth or in the heaven is hidden from Allāh. All praise and thanks are Allāh’s, Who has given me in old age Ismā’il (Ishmael) and Ishāq (Isaac). Verily, my Lord is indeed the All-Hearer of invocations. O my Lord! Make me one who performs As-Salāt (the prayers), and (also) from my offspring, our Lord! And accept my invocation. Our Lord! Forgive me and my parents, and (all) the believers on the Day when the reckoning will be established.”

(Qur’ān 14: 35-41)

And verily, there came Our messengers to Ibrāhīm (Abraham) with glad tidings. They said: “Salām (greetings or peace!).” He answered, “Salām (greetings or peace!),” and he hastened to entertain them with a roasted calf. But when he saw their hands went not towards it (the meal), he mistrusted them, and conceived a fear of them. They said: “Fear not, we have been sent against the people of Lūt (Lot).” And his wife was standing (there), and she laughed [either, because the messengers did not eat their food or for being glad for the destruction of the people of Lūt (Lot)]. But We gave her glad tidings of Ishāq (Isaac), and after Ishāq, of Ya’qūb (Jacob). She said (in astonishment): “Woe to me! Shall I bear a child while I am an old woman, and here is my husband an old man? Verily, this is a strange thing!” They said: “Do you wonder at the Decree of Allāh? The Mercy of Allāh and His Blessings be on you, O the family [of Ibrāhīm (Abraham)]. Surely, He (Allāh) is All-Praiseworthy, All-Glorious.” Then when the fear had gone away from (the mind of) Ibrāhīm (Abraham), and the glad tidings had reached him, he began to plead with Us (Our messengers) for the people of Lūt (Lot). Verily, Ibrāhīm (Abraham) was without doubt forbearing, used to invoke Allāh with humility, and was repentant (to Allāh all the time, again and again). “O Ibrāhīm (Abraham)! Forsake this. Indeed, the Commandment of your Lord has gone forth. Verily, there will come a torment for them which cannot be turned back.”

(Qur’ān 11: 69-76)

Born in southern Iraq, Ibrāhīm 赀 settled in the city of Ur Al-Kaldāniyyah. His father was Azar bin Nāhur, though it is said that Azar was his uncle. The confusion perhaps stems from the custom of addressing one’s uncle (uncle here referring only to the brother of one’s father) with the word ‘father.’ Azar was from the people of Kutha, which is a village on the outskirts of Kufah. And it was in Kutha that the infamous attempt was made to burn Ibrāhīm 赀. After the attempt to burn him failed, Ibrāhīm 赀 traveled to Harran, which is situated in the northern part of the Arabian Peninsula. He then traveled to Palestine, taking with him his wife, Sarah, and his nephew Lot 赀; and Lot’s wife was also traveling with them. Due to a drought that afflicted the lands, Ibrāhīm 赀 had to travel to Egypt during the era of the shepherd kings.

Later on, Ibrāhīm 赀 returned with Lot 赀 to southern Palestine, but they had to part from one another in order to preserve the mutual love and compassion that they shared. The reason they had to part was that there just wasn’t enough fertile land for both of their herds of livestock. So Ibrâhim ﷺ settled in B’ir Sheva (As-Saba’), while Lot ﷺ settled down south of the Dead Sea.

Ibrâhim ﷺ then traveled with his second wife, Hájar, to Makkah, and she took her son, Ismâ’il ﷺ, along with her. After Ibrâhim ﷺ left them in Makkah, which at the time was a forsaken and barren place, the well of Zamzam gushed forth. Now that water was found in Makkah, it became a desirable place to live; and so when the tribe of Jurhum was passing through the area and found out about the well, they settled down alongside Hájar. As for Ibrâhim’s death, he died in Palestine and was buried there in the city of Hebron.

Some historians mention that there are two kinds of Arabs:

1) Arab tribes and peoples that are extinct, such as the early Jurhums, and the peoples of Ād, Thamûd, and Jādis.

2) Arab peoples and tribes that are still around today. Historians erroneously trace their roots back to two kinds of Arabs:

a) The pure Arabs, or the Al-Qahtâniyyun, who originally dwelled in Yemen. Their most famous tribes are the Jurhum and the Ya’rub. Many tribes branched off from the Ya’rub tribe, the biggest and most significant of them being the Kahlân and the Himyar tribes. The most famous sub-tribe of the Kahlân is the Al-Azd, from whom many important tribes descended: such as Al-Aus and Al-Khazraj, both of which settled in Yathrib (later known as Al-Madinah); and Al-Ghasâsinah, Tai, Madhhij, An-Nakh, ‘Ans, Hamdân, Kindah, and Lakhm. These are all tribes that branched out from Kahlân; as for Himyar, it branched out into Qudâ’ah, which branched out into many other tribes, such as Bâliy, Juhainah, Kalb, and Bharâ’.

b) Non-Arabs who assimilated themselves into Arab culture. They are known as the Al-‘Adnâniyyun. Some historians say that they are given that name because Ismâ’il ﷺ used to speak Assyrian or Hebrew. Then when Jurhum (from the Al-Qahtâniyyun) settled down in Makkah, Ismâ’il ﷺ and his mother lived alongside them. When he grew up, Ismâ’il ﷺ married from their tribe, and he as well as his children learned Arabic, which is why they are called ‘the assimilated Arabs.’ From them are descended the majority of Bedouin and city-dwelling Arabs that live in the Arabian Peninsula and in the lands of Al-Hijaz, until the deserts of Ash-Sham. After the collapse of the Ma’rib Dam, the pure Arabs of Yemen migrated and lived alongside the ‘assimilated Arabs.’

One of ‘Adnân’s sons was Mu’îd, from whom descended all of the descendents of ‘Adnân. Mu’îd had four children: Iyâd, Nizâr, Qanas, and Anmâr, and it is from Nizâr that two very important tribes branched off – Rabî’ah and Mudar.

Rabî’ah settled down in the lands of Najd, from Al-Ghaur until Tihâmah. The children of Mudar settled down in Al-Hijaz, and they increased in numbers so rapidly that they ended up representing the majority in many of the lands of Najd as well. They eventually became the leaders of the inviolable city of Makkah.

It began with Mudar, who had two sons: Qais ‘Aîlân and Ilyâs. From Qais ‘Aîlân the tribes of Hawâzin, Sulaim, and Thaqîf branched off. Ilyâs, on the other hand, had three children, from whom many tribes branched off – such as Aslâm, Khuza’âh, Muzainah, Tamim, Khuza’mah, Al-Haun, Asad, and Kinânah. From Kinânah came An-Nâdr; from An-Nâdr came Mâlik; and from Mâlik came Fihr, which is the Quraish tribe of Makkah.

The notion of ‘assimilated Arabs’ is a mere fable and not factual history; some historians mentioned it, and then after a while, people simply took it as being true. The fact is that the era of Ibrâhim and his son, Ismâ’il, is an era in which the Arabic language thrived, and it is an era that has nothing to do with Assyrian or Hebrew. Through clear proofs, the distinction is now clear between the people of Ibrâhim, the people of Ya’qoob (Israel), the people of Musa, the Jews, and the Hebrews. This point requires further explanation.

The term ‘Hebrew’ (Abri) was used approximately 2000 years before the start of the Christian calendar. But it was also used before that for Arab tribes that lived in the northern part of the Arabian Peninsula, in the deserts of Ash-Sham; it was also used for other Arab tribes that were settled in the surrounding area. The term ‘Hebrew’ was a synonym for a Bedouin or anyone who lived in the desert. That is why one finds the terms ‘Ibri,’ or, ‘Hubairi,’ or, ‘Al-Abiru,’ or, ‘Al-Khabiru,’ in the ancient writings of the pharaohs, in a time when the Israelites, the followers of Musa, and the Jews had not yet come into the world.

The term Hebrew is not mentioned in the Noble Qur’ân at all; instead the terms, the ‘Children of Israel,’ ‘the people of Musa,’ and the ‘Jews’ are used. Only the rabbis in Palestine recently began to use the word Hebrew to refer to Jews.

It is noteworthy to mention here that Palestine was the land of exile for Ibrâhim, his son Ishâq, and his grandson Ya’qub, a fact that is established in the Torah itself. They were strangers in Palestine, living among its native dwellers, the Al-Kan’âniyyin. This is particularly the case for the Children of Israel (Israel is one of the names of Ya’qub), who were all born and raised in Harrân. This stage for them ended when the family of Ya’qub migrated to Egypt, where they joined up with Yusuf. Then they became assimilated into the culture and environment of Egypt.

Thus the term ‘Israel’ is supposed to refer to Ya’qoob – the grandson of Ibrâhim – and to his children. Their lives were spent mainly in the area of Harrân; as for Palestine, it was a place of exile for them.

As for the people of Musa, they followed the religion of Pure Monotheism. Their religion is different from the religion of the Jews, which calls for the worship of ‘Yahwa,’ who was their particular god, based on their description of themselves as being ‘The Chosen People.’ The actual teachings and Shari’ah (set of laws) of Musa were written in hieroglyphics, and no trace of those writings can now be found. Then the descendents of Musa’s people embraced the language, culture, and customs of Kan’ân; those descendents deviated from the teachings and Shari’ah of Musa, and it is they who, from that time onward, became known as Jews.

The word ‘Jew’ was used for those who remained from the people of Yahudha, those who were taken as captives and led to Babel, 586 years before the beginning of the Christian calendar. As captives who were mixing in a new culture, they developed a new dialect that was based on Aramaic, and it is with that dialect that they wrote the Torah that is with us now; they had composed it while they were prisoners in Babel, approximately 800 years after the time of Musa ☪. That is why their dialect became known as the Aramaic of the Torah. Without a doubt, the Torah they composed does not contain the same Shari‘ah (set of laws) that was revealed to Musa ☪. Therefore, we can call their book, ‘The Torah of the Jews,’ in order to distinguish it from, ‘The Torah of Musa ☪’.

When the Jews composed their Torah, they had two main goals in mind: First, to glorify their history and to make themselves come off as the best of peoples – ‘The Chosen People’ – who were chosen and preferred by the Lord over all other peoples. And to give credence to their claim, they traced their roots back to a very significant historical figure, namely, Ibrāhim ☪, who was renowned during that time in all corners of the world. And so they set about recording their history, writing it based not on factual events, but on what their desires dictated.

Hence they traced their history back to Ibrāhim ☪ and to his grandson, Yaʿqub (Israel). They called the people of Musa ☪ the Children of Israel, despite the fact that they lived 600 years after the life of Israel (i.e., Yaʿqub ☪).

Their second goal was to make it seem as if Palestine was their home country, despite the fact that the Torah even mentions that Palestine was a land of exile for Ibrāhim ☪, Ishâq ☪, Yaʿqub ☪, and Yaʿqub’s sons, who were born and raised in Harraan.

In point of fact, Ibrāhim ☪ and his son Ismāʾīl ☪ belonged to Aramaic, Arabic tribes, which existed a number of centuries before the arrival of the Israelites, the followers of Mūsā ☪, and the Jews. And that is why I stated earlier that the era of Ibrāhim ☪ is one in which Arabic thrived and is one that has nothing to do with the era of the Jews. The Qur’ān points to these issues in the following Verses:
O people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians)! Why do you dispute about Ibrāhīm (Abraham), while the Taurāt (Torah) and the Injil (Gospel) were not revealed till after him? Have you then no sense? Verily, you are those who have disputed about that of which you have knowledge. Why do you then dispute concerning that of which you have no knowledge? It is Allāh Who knows, and you know not. Ibrāhīm (Abraham) was neither a Jew nor a Christian, but he was a true Muslim Ḥanīfa (Islamic Monotheism — to worship none but Allāh Alone) and he was not of Al-Mushrikūn (polytheists).

(Qur’ān 14:39)

Ishāqﷺ lived with his father, Ibrāhīmﷺ. Some sources mention that Ishāqﷺ once sent a slave of his from Palestine to Faddān Aaram, in the northern part of Iraq. That slave returned with a female fellow traveler, whom Ishāqﷺ then married. When Ishāqﷺ died, he was buried in Hebron (Al-Khalil), in the Al-Makfilah cave.

So, they plotted a plot against him, but We made them the lowest. And he said (after his rescue from the fire): “Verily, I am going to my Lord. He will guide me!” “My Lord! Grant me (offspring) from the righteous.” So, We gave him the glad tidings of a forbearing boy. And, when he (his son) was old enough to walk with him, he said: “O my son! I have seen in a dream that I am slaughtering you (offering you in sacrifice to Allâh). So look what you think!” He said: “O my father! Do that which you are commanded, In shâ’ Allâh (if Allâh wills), you shall find me of As-Sâbirûn (the patient).” Then, when they had both submitted themselves (to the Will of Allâh), and he had laid him prostrate on his forehead (or on the side of his forehead for slaughtering); We called out to him: “O Ibrâhîm (Abraham)! You have fulfilled the dream!” Verily, thus do We reward the Muhsînûn (good-doers). Verily, that indeed was the manifest trial. And We ransomed him with a great sacrifice (i.e. kîsh - a ram); And We left for him (a goodly remembrance) among the later generations. “Salâm (peace) be upon Ibrâhîm (Abraham)!“ Thus indeed do We reward the Muhsînûn (good-doers).

(Qur’ân 37: 98-110)

And (remember) when We made the House (the Ka’bah at Makkah) a place of resort for mankind and a place of safety. And take you (people) the Maqâm (place) of Ibrâhîm (Abraham) [or the stone on which Ibrâhîm (Abraham) stood while he was building the Ka’bah] as a place of prayer (for some of your prayers, e.g. two Rak’at after the Tawâf of the Ka’bah at Makkah), and We commanded Ibrâhîm (Abraham) and Iṣmâ’îl (Ishmael) that they should purify My House (the Ka’bah at Makkah) for those who are circumambulating it, or staying (l’îtikâf), or bowing or prostrating themselves (there, in prayer). And (remember) when Ibrâhîm (Abraham) said, “My Lord, make this city (Makkah) a place of security and provide its people with fruits, such of them as believe in Allâh and the Last Day.” He (Allâh) answered: “As for him who disbelieves, I shall leave him in contentment for a while, then I shall compel him to the torment of the Fire, and worst indeed is that destination!" And (remember) when Ibrāhīm (Abraham) and (his son) Ismā‘īl (Ishmael) were raising the foundations of the House (the Ka‘bah at Makkah), (saying), "Our Lord! Accept (this service) from us. Verily, You are the All-Hearer, the All-Knower. Our Lord! And make us submissive to You and of our offspring a nation submissive to You, and show us our Manāsik (all the ceremonies of pilgrimage — Hajj and ‘Umrah), and accept our repentance. Truly, You are the One Who accepts repentance, the Most Merciful.

(Qur’ān 2: 125-128)

The lives of Ismā‘īl and Ibrāhīm are closely linked to one another through important events:

- The famous slaughtering and sacrifice, which is why Ismā‘īl is called, Adh-Dhabih (the sacrificed one)."

- In an important journey that is mentioned in the Qur’ān, Ismā‘īl migrated to Makkah with his mother and father.

- Ibrāhīm often visited Makkah, and on one of those visits, Allāh ordered him and Ismā‘īl to build the Ka‘bah, which of course they then built.

Ismā‘īl died in Makkah and was buried there, and it is believed that both he and his mother were buried near the Ka‘bah.

And (remember) Lūt (Lot), when he said to his people: “Do you commit the worst sin such as none preceding you has committed in the ‘Ālamīn (mankind and jinn)? “Verily, you practise your lusts on men instead of women. Nay, but you are a people transgressing beyond bounds (by committing great sins).” And the answer of his people was only that they said: “Drive them out of your town, these are indeed men who want to be pure-(from sins)!“ Then We saved him and his family, except his wife; she was of those who remained behind (in the torment). And We rained down on them a rain (of stones). Then see what was the end of the Mujrimūn (criminals, polytheists and sinners).

They (messengers) said: “O Lūt (Lot)! Verily, we are the messengers from your Lord! They shall not reach you! So travel with your family in a part of the night, and let not any of you look back; but your wife (will remain behind), verily, the punishment which will afflict them, will afflict her. Indeed, morning is their appointed time. Is not the morning near?“ So when Our Commandment came, We turned (the towns of Sodom in Palestine) upside down, and rained on them stones of baked clay, in a well-arranged manner one after another; Marked from your Lord; and they are not ever far from the Zālimūn (polytheists, evil-doers).

(Qur’an 11: 81-83)
Then when the messengers (the angels) came to the family of Lūt (Lot). He said: “Verily, you are people unknown to me.” They said: “Nay, we have come to you with that (torment) which they have been doubting. And we have brought you the truth (the news of the destruction of your nation) and certainly we tell the truth. Then travel in a part of the night with your family, and you go behind them in the rear, and let no one amongst you look back, but go on to where you are ordered.” And We made known this decree to him that the root of those (sinners) was to be cut off in the early morning. And the inhabitants of the city came rejoicing (at the news of the young men’s arrival). [Lūt (Lot)] said: “Verily, these are my guests, so shame me not. And fear Allāh and disgrace me not.” They (people of the city) said: “Did we not forbid you from entertaining (or protecting) any of the ‘Ālamīn (people, foreigners and strangers from us)?” [Lūt (Lot)] said: “These (the girls of the nation) are my daughters (to marry lawfully), if you must act (so).” Verily, by your life (O Muhammad ☑️), in their wild intoxication, they were wandering blindly. So As-Sālihah (torment — awful cry) overtook them at the time of sunrise. And We turned (the towns of Sodom in Palestine) upside down and rained down on them stones of baked clay. Surely, in this are signs for those who see (or understand or learn the lessons from the Signs of Allāh). And verily, they (the cities) were right on the highroad (from Makkah to Syria, i.e. the place where the Dead Sea is now). Surely, therein is indeed a sign for the believers.

(Qur’an 15: 61-77)

The people of Lūṭ (Lot) (— who dwelt in the towns of Sodom in Palestine) denied the Messengers. When their brother Lūṭ (Lot) said to them: “Will you not fear Allāh and obey Him? Verily, I am a trustworthy Messenger to you. So fear Allāh, keep your duty to Him, and obey me. No reward do I ask of you for it (my Message of Islamic Monotheism); my reward is only from the Lord of the ‘Ālamīn (mankind, jinn and all that exists). Go you into the males of the ‘Ālamīn (mankind), and leave those whom Allāh has created for you to be your wives? Nay, you are a trespassing people!” They said: “If you cease not, O Lūṭ (Lot)! Verily, you will be one of those who are driven out!” He said: “I am indeed of those who disapprove with severe anger and fury your (this evil) action (of sodomy). My Lord! Save me and my family from what they do.” So, We saved him and his family, all, except an old woman (his wife) among those who remained behind. Then afterward We destroyed the others. And We rained on them a rain (of torment). And how evil was the rain of those who had been warned! Verily, in this is indeed a sign, yet most of them are not believers. And verily your Lord, He is truly the All-Mighty, the Most Merciful.

(Qur’an 26: 160-175)
And (remember) Lüt (Lot), when he said to his people: “You commit Al-Fāhishah (sodomy — the worst sin) which none has preceded you in (committing) it in the ‘Ālamīn (mankind and jinn). Verily, you practise sodomy with men, and rob the wayfarer (travellers)! And practise Al-Munkar (disbelief and polytheism and every kind of evil wicked deed) in your meetings.” But his people gave no answer except that they said: “Bring Allāh’s torment upon us if you are one of the truthful.” He said: “My Lord! Give me victory over the people who are Mufsīdūn (those who commit great crimes and sins, oppressors, tyrants, mischief-makers, corrupters). And when Our messengers came to Ibrāhīm (Abraham) with the glad tidings they said: “Verily, we are going to destroy the people of this [Lūt (Lot’s)] town (i.e. the town of Sodom in Palestine); truly, its people have been Zālīmūn [wrong doers, polytheists disobedient to Allāh, and who denied their Messenger Lūt (Lot)].” Ibrāhīm (Abraham) said: “But there is Lūt (Lot) in it.” They said: “We know better who is there. We will verily save him [Lūt (Lot)] and his family — except his wife, she will be of those who remain behind (i.e. she will be destroyed along with those who will be destroyed from her folk).” And when Our messengers came to Lūt (Lot), he was grieved because of them, and felt straitened on their account. They said: “Have no fear, and do not grieve! Truly, we shall save you and your family, except your wife, she will be of those who remain behind (i.e. she will be destroyed along with those who will be destroyed from her folk). Verily, we are about to bring down on the people of this town a great torment from the sky, because they have been rebellious (against Allāh’s Command).” And indeed We have left thereof an evident Ayāh (a lesson and a warning and a sign — the place where the Dead Sea is now in Palestine) for a folk who understand.

Lotﷺ went to Ibrāhīm ☪ and believed in him. They returned together from Egypt, but the land they returned to was not spacious enough for both of their herds, for each of them was blessed with a great quantity of livestock. They then parted on the best of terms, Ibrāhīm ☪ staying where he was, and Lotﷺ settling down south of the Dead Sea, where Sodom and Gomorrah were situated. Because of the wickedness and disbelief of the inhabitants of those two towns, Allāh ☪ destroyed them with a violent earthquake. The nearby town of Sughar went unscathed, and that is where Lotﷺ then took refuge.

And this (submission to Allah, Islam) was enjoined by Ibrâhîm (Abraham) upon his sons and by Ya’qûb (Jacob) (saying), “O my sons! Allah has chosen for you the (true) religion, then die not except in the Faith of Islam (as Muslims – Islamic Monotheism).” Or were you witnesses when death approached Ya’qûb (Jacob)? Having traveled to Faddaan Aaram in northern Iraq, Ya’qoob later returned to Palestine. And, as is mentioned in Sūrat Yusuf, he afterwards traveled to Egypt, where he joined up with his son, Yusuf. He lived there until his death when, as per his instructions, his body was preserved and transported to Palestine, where he was buried. He was buried in the cave of Al-Makfilah, in the city of Hebron (Al-Khalil).

(Remember) when Yûsuf (Joseph) said to his father: “O my father! Verily, I saw (in a dream) eleven stars and the sun and the moon — I saw them prostrating themselves to me.” He (the father) said: “O my son! Relate not your vision to your brothers, lest they should arrange a plot against you. Verily, Shaitân (Satan) is to man an open enemy! Thus will your Lord choose you and teach you the interpretation of dreams (and other things) and perfect His Favour on you and on the offspring of Ya’qûb (Jacob), as He perfected it on your fathers, Ibrâhîm (Abraham) and Ishāq (Isaac) aforetime! Verily, your Lord is All-Knowing, All-Wise.”

(Qur’ân 12: 4-6)
And there came a caravan of travellers and they sent their water-drawer, and he let down his bucket (into the well). He said: “What a good news! Here is a boy.” So they hid him as merchandise (a slave). And Allah was All-Knower of what they did. And they sold him for a low price,— for a few dirhams (i.e. for a few silver coins). And they were of those who regarded him insignificant. (Qur’an 12: 19, 20)

So his Lord answered his invocation and turned away from him their plot. Verily, He is the All-Hearer, the All-Knower. Then it occurred to them, after they had seen the proofs (of his innocence), to imprison him for a time. (Qur’an 12: 34, 35)

(He said): “O Yūsuf (Joseph), the man of truth! Explain to us (the dream) of seven fat cows whom seven lean ones were devouring, and of seven green ears of corn, and (seven) others dry, that I may return to the people, and that they may know.” [Yūsuf (Joseph)] said: “For seven consecutive years, you shall sow as usual and that (the harvest) which you reap you shall leave it in the ears, (all) except a little of it which you may eat. Then will come after that, seven hard (years), which will devour what you have laid by in advance for them, (all) except a little of that which you have guarded (stored). Then thereafter will come a year in which people will have abundant rain and in which they will press (wine and oil).”

(Qur'ân 12: 46-49)

وَقَالَ الْمَلِكُ يَوُؤُسُفٌ يَا بِنَتِيعَةَ وَأَخِي هَلْ أَنْتُمَا أَنْتَُمَا تَحْلَلُونَ ﴿88﴾ قَالَوْاَ أُنْتَ أَنْتُ ﴿89﴾ يَوُؤُسُفٌ قَالَ أَنْتُمَا تَحْلَلُونَ هَذَا أَحِيَّ قَدْ مَرَّ الَّذِي عَلَيْكُمْ إِنَّهُ مِنْ سَبْطِيَّ مُصْرِيِّيَّ قَالَ أَنْتُمَا أَنْتَُمَا تَحْلَلُونَ إِنَّكُمْ لَلاَّ يُصِيبُ أَحَدٌ مِنْ الْمُجَهَّرِينَ ﴿90﴾ قَالُواَ أَنَأَهْرُكَ أَنَاَ سَيَكِنُّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَإِنْ صَنَعْتُمْ لَخُطْطًا ﴿91﴾ قَالُواَ أَنَأَهْرُكَ أَنَاَ سَيَكِنُّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَإِنْ صَنَعْتُمْ لَخُطْطًا ﴿92﴾ أَذَهَبْتُمْ لَتَمْسِكُنِّي هُذَا قَالُوْهُ اًحَيَّ فَمَعَهُ أَبِي بَيْنِ نَصِيرٍ وَأَنْتُوْهُ بَيْنِ حَيْثُنَّ ﴿93﴾ أُجُمِّعُ مِنْهُ ﴿94﴾

And the king said: “Bring him to me that I may attach him to my person.” Then, when he spoke to him, he said: “Verily, this day, you are with us high in rank and fully trusted.” [Yûsûf (Joseph)] said: “Set me over the store-houses of the land; I will indeed guard them with full knowledge (as a minister of finance in Egypt).” (Qur’ân 12: 54, 55)

قَالَ هُلْ عَلَيْنَا مَا فَعَلْتُمْ بِيُوُؤُسُفَ وَأَخِي هَلْ أَنْتُمَا أَنْتَُمَا تَحْلَلُونَ ﴿88﴾ قَالَوْاَ أُنْتَ أَنْتُ ﴿89﴾ يَوُؤُسُفٌ قَالَ أَنْتُمَا تَحْلَلُونَ هَذَا أَحِيَّ قَدْ مَرَّ الَّذِي عَلَيْكُمْ إِنَّهُ مِنْ سَبْطِيَّ مُصْرِيِّيَّ قَالَ أَنْتُمَا أَنْتَُمَا تَحْلَلُونَ إِنَّكُمْ لَلاَّ يُصِيبُ أَحَدٌ مِنْ الْمُجَهَّرِينَ ﴿90﴾ قَالُواَ أَنَأَهْرُكَ أَنَاَ سَيَكِنُّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَإِنْ صَنَعْتُمْ لَخُطْطًا ﴿91﴾ قَالُواَ أَنَأَهْرُكَ أَنَاَ سَيَكِنُّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَإِنْ صَنَعْتُمْ لَخُطْطًا ﴿92﴾ أَذَهَبْتُمْ لَتَمْسِكُنِّي هُذَا قَالُوْهُ اًحَيَّ فَمَعَهُ أَبِي بَيْنِ نَصِيرٍ وَأَنْتُوْهُ بَيْنِ حَيْثُنَّ ﴿93﴾ أُجُمِّعُ مِنْهُ ﴿94﴾

He said: “Do you know what you did with Yûsûf (Joseph) and his brother, when you were ignorant?” They said: “Are you indeed Yûsûf (Joseph)?” He said: “I am Yûsûf (Joseph), and this is my brother (Benjamin). Allâh has indeed been gracious to us. Verily, he who fears Allâh with obedience to Him (by abstaining from sins and evil deeds, and by performing righteous good deeds), and is patient, then surely, Allâh makes not the reward of the Muhsînûn (good-doers) to be lost.” They said: “By Allâh! Indeed Allâh has preferred you to us, and we certainly have been sinners.” He said: “No reproach on you this day; may Allâh forgive you, and He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy! Go with this shirt of mine, and cast it over the face of my father, he will become clear-sighted, and bring to me all your family.’”

(Qur’ân 12: 89-93)

Then, when they came in before Yûsuf (Joseph), he took his parents to himself and said: “Enter Egypt, if Allah wills, in security.” And he raised his parents to the throne and they fell down before him prostrate. And he said: “O my father! This is the interpretation of my dream aforetime! My Lord has made it come true! He was indeed good to me, when He took me out of the prison, and brought you (all here) out of the bedouin life, after Shaitân (Satan) had sown enmity between me and my brothers. Certainly, my Lord is the Most Courteous and Kind to whom He wills. Truly, He! Only He is the All-Knowing, the All-Wise. (Qur’ân 12: 99, 100)

The story of Yusuf is well-known, and a detailed account of it is given in Sûrat Yusuf. He fell into a well in Jerusalem, and was afterwards saved but then taken to Egypt, where he was sold as a slave. After a life replete with tests and trials, Allâh honored him with authority and stability in Egypt. He then provided a place of dwelling for his father, Ya’qûb, as well as for his brothers in the land of Jâsân or Jâshân, which is in northern Bilbis (the site of present-day Saft Al-Hannah). After his death, Yusuf was transported to Hebron, where he was buried in the cave of Al-Makfilah. A monument was built for him in Nabalus (Shakim), and another was built near An-Nabk, in Al-Qilmun, Syria.

And to (the people of) Madyan (Midian). We sent their brother Shu‘aib. He said: “O my people! Worship Allah! You have no other Ilâh (God) but Him. [Lâ ilâha illallâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh).] Verily, a clear proof (sign) from your Lord has come to you; so give full measure and full weight and wrong not men in their things, and do not do mischief on the earth after it has been set in order, that will be better for you, if you are believers. And sit not on every road, threatening, and hindering from the path of Allâh those who believe in Him, and seeking to make it crooked. And remember when you were but few, and He multiplied you. And see what was the end of the Mufsidîn (mischief-makers, corrupters, liars). And if there is a party of you who believe in that with which I have been sent and a party who do not believe, so be patient until Allâh judges between us, and He is the Best of judges.” The chiefs of those who were arrogant among his people said: “We shall certainly drive you out, O Shu‘aib, and those who have believed with you from our town, or else you (all) shall return to our religion.” He said: “Even though we hate it? We should have invented a lie against Allâh if we returned to your religion, after Allâh has rescued us from it. And it is not for us to return to it unless Allâh, our Lord, should will. Our Lord comprehends all things in His Knowledge. In Allâh (Alone) we put our trust. Our Lord! Judge between us and our people in truth, for You are the Best of those who give judgment.” The chiefs of those who disbelieved among his people said (to their people): “If you follow Shu‘aib, be sure then you will be the losers!” So the earthquake seized them and they lay (dead), prostrate in their homes. Those who denied Shu‘aib, became as if they had never dwelt there (in their homes). Those who denied Shu‘aib, they were the losers. Then he (Shu‘aib) turned from them and said: “O my people! I have indeed conveyed my Lord’s Messages to you and I have given you good advice. Then how can I grieve for a disbelieving people’s (destruction).”

(Qur’an 7: 85-93)

And to the Madyan (Midian) people (We sent) their brother Shu‘aib. He said: “O my people! Worship Allāh, you have no other ilah (god) but Him, and give not short measure or weight. I see you in prosperity and verily, I fear for you the torment of a Day encompassing. And O my people! Give full measure and weight in justice and reduce not the things that are due to the people, and do not commit mischief in the land, causing corruption. That which is left by Allâh for you (after giving the rights of the people) is better for you, if you are believers. And I am not a guardian over you.” They said: “O Shu’âib! Does your Salât (prayer) command that we give up what our fathers used to worship, or that we give up doing what we like with our property? Verily, you are the forbearer, right-minded!” (They said this sarcastically). He said: “O my people! Tell me if I have a clear evidence from my Lord and He has given me a good sustenance from Himself (shall I corrupt it by mixing it with the unlawfully earned money). I wish not, in contradiction to you, to do that which I forbid you. I only desire reform to the best of my power. And my guidance cannot come except from Allâh, in Him I trust and to Him I repent. And O my people! Let not my Shiqâq cause you to suffer the fate similar to that of the people of Nûh (Noah) or of Hud or of Salih (Saleh), and the people of Lût (Lot) are not far off from you! And ask forgiveness of your Lord and turn to Him in repentance. Verily, my Lord is Most Merciful, Most Loving.” They said: “O Shu’âib! We do not understand much of what you say, and we see you weak (it is said that he was a blind man) among us. Were it not for your family, we should certainly have stoned you and you are not powerful against us.” He said: “O my people! Is then my family of more weight with you than Allâh? And you have cast Him away behind your backs. Verily, my Lord is surrounding all that you do. And O my people! Act according to your ability and way, and I am acting (on my way). You will come to know who it is on whom descends the torment that will cover him with ignominy, and who is a liar! And watch you! Verily, I too am watching with you.” And when Our Commandment came, We saved Shu’âib and those who believed with him by a mercy from Us. And As-Sâlihah (torment — awful cry) seized the wrong doers, and they lay (dead) prostrate in their homes. As if they had never lived there! So away with Madyan (Midian) as away with Thamûd! (All these nations were destroyed).

(Qur’ân 11: 84-95)
And to (the people of) Madyan (Midian), We sent their brother Shu‘aib. He said: “O my people! Worship Allāh (Alone) and hope for (the reward of good deeds by worshipping Allāh Alone, on) the last Day (i.e. the Day of Resurrection), and commit no mischief on the earth as Mufsidūn (those who commit great crimes, oppressors, tyrants, mischief-makers, corrupters). (Tafsir At-Tabari) And they denied him (Shu‘aib); so the earthquake seized them, and they lay (dead), prostrate in their dwellings.

(Qur’ān 29: 36, 37)

Allāh ﷻ sent Shu‘aib to the people of Madyan ibn Ibrāhīm ﷺ; they lived in the lands of Al-Hijaz, adjacent to Ash-Shām (Syria and surrounding regions), and east of the Gulf of Al-‘Aqabah. Near to Madyan is a land full of softwood trees, and at least according to one opinion in the matter, that land is actually the site of the city of Tabūk.

And has there come to you the story of Mûsâ (Moses)? When he saw a fire, he said to his family: "Wait! Verily, I have seen a fire; perhaps I can bring you some burning brand therefrom, or find some guidance at the fire." And when he came to it (the fire), he was called by name: "O Mûsâ (Moses)! Verily, I am your Lord! So take off your shoes; you are in the sacred valley, Tuwa.

(Qur’ân 20: 9-12)
said: "This is my stick, whereon I lean, and wherewith I beat down branches for my sheep, and wherein I find other uses." (Allah) said: "Cast it down, O Musa (Moses)!" He cast it down, and behold! It was a snake, moving quickly. Allah said: "Grasp it and fear not; We shall return it to its former state, and press your (right) hand to your (left) side: it will come forth white (and shining), without any disease as another sign, that We may show you (some) of Our Greater Signs. Go to Fir'aun (Pharaoh)! Verily, he has transgressed (all bounds in disbelief and disobedience, and has behaved as an arrogant and as a tyrant)." [Musa (Moses)] said: "O my Lord! Open for me my chest (grant me self-confidence, contentment, and boldness). And ease my task for me; and loose the knot (the defect) from my tongue, (i.e. remove the incorrectness from my speech) [That occurred as a result of a brand of fire which Musa (Moses) put in his mouth when he was an infant.] (Tafsir At-Tabari). That they understand my speech. And appoint for me a helper from my family, Harun (Aaron), my brother. Increase my strength with him, and let him share my task (of conveying Allah's Message and Prophethood), that we may glorify You much, and remember You much. Verily, You are Ever a Well-Seer of us." (Allah) said: "You are granted your request, O Musa (Moses)! And indeed We conferred a favor on you another time (before). When We inspired your mother with that which We inspired. (Saying:) 'Put him (the child) into the Tabiit (a box or a case or a chest) and put it into the river (Nile); then the river shall cast it up on the bank, and there, an enemy of Mine and an enemy of his shall take him.' And I endowed you with love from Me, in order that you may be brought up under My Eye. When your sister went and said: 'Shall I show you one who will nurse him?' So, We restored you to your mother, that she might cool her eyes and she should not grieve. Then you did kill a man, but We saved you from great distress and tried you with a heavy trial. Then you stayed a number of years with the people of Madyan (Midian). Then you came here according to the fixed term which I ordained (for you), O Musa (Moses)! And I have chosen you for Myself. Go you and your brother with My Ayāt (proofs, evidences, lessons, signs, etc.), and do not, you both, slacken and become weak in My remembrance. Go both of you to Fir‘aun (Pharaoh), verily, he has transgressed (all bounds in disbelief and disobedience and behaved as an arrogant and as a tyrant). And speak to him mildly, perhaps he may accept admonition or fear (Allāh).”
They said: “Our Lord! Verily, we fear lest he should hasten to punish us or lest he should transgress (all bounds against us).”
He (Allah) said: “Fear not, verily, I am with you both, hearing and seeing. So go you both to him, and say: ‘Verily, we are Messengers of your Lord, so let the Children of Israel go with us, and torment them not; indeed, we have come with a sign from your Lord! And peace will be upon him who follows the guidance!’”

(Qur’ān 20: 17-47)
Then when he decided to seize the man who was an enemy to both of them, the man said: “O Mūsā (Moses)! Is it your intention to kill me as you killed a man yesterday? Your aim is nothing but to become a tyrant in the land, and not to be one of those who do right.” And there came a man running, from the farthest end of the city. He said: “O Mūsā (Moses)! Verily, the chiefs are taking counsel together about you, to kill you, so escape. Truly, I am one of the good advisers to you.” So he escaped from there, looking about in a state of fear. He said: “My Lord! Save me from the people who are Zālimūn (polytheists and wrong doers)!” And when he went towards (the land of) Madyan (Midian), he said: “It may be that my Lord guides me to the Right Way.” And when he arrived at the water (a well) of Madyan (Midian), he found there a group of men watering (their flocks), and besides them he found two women who were keeping back (their flocks). He said: “What is the matter with you?” They said: “We cannot water (our flocks) until the shepherds take (their flocks). And our father is a very old man.” So he watered (their flocks) for them, then he turned back to shade, and said: “My Lord! Truly, I am in need of whatever good that You bestow on me!” Then there came to him one of the two women, walking shyly. She said: “Verily, my father calls you that he may reward you for having watered (our flocks) for us.” So when he came to him and narrated the story, he said: “Fear you not. You have escaped from the people who are Zālimūn (polytheists, disbelievers, and wrong doers).” And said one of them (the two women): “O my father! Hire him! Verily, the best of men for you to hire is the strong, the trustworthy.” He said: “I intend to wed one of these two daughters of mine to you, on condition that you serve me for eight years; but if you complete ten years, it will be (a favor) from you. But I intend not to place you under a difficulty. If Allah wills, you will find me one of the righteous.” He [Mūsā (Moses)] said: “That (is settled) between me and you: whichever of the two terms I fulfil, there will be no injustice to me, and Allāh is Surety over what we say.” Then, when Mūsā (Moses) had fulfilled the term, and was traveling with his family, he saw a fire in the direction of Tūr (Mount). He said to his family: “Wait, I have seen a fire; perhaps I may bring to you from there some information, or a burning firebrand that you may warm yourselves.” So when he reached it (the fire), he was called from the right side of the valley, in the blessed place, from the tree: “O Mūsā (Moses)! Verily, I am Allāh, the Lord of the ‘Ālamīn (mankind, jinn and all that exists)! (Qur’ān 28: 19-30)

And (remember) when We separated the sea for you and saved you and drowned Fir’ān’s (Pharaoh) people while you were looking (at them, when the sea water covered them). And (remember) when We appointed for Mūsā (Moses) forty nights, and (in his absence) you took the calf (for worship), and you were Zālimūn (polytheists and wrong doers).

(Qur’ān 2: 50, 51)
And (remember) when Mūsā (Moses) said to his people: “O my people! Verily, you have wronged yourselves by worshipping the calf. So turn in repentance to your Creator and kill yourselves (the innocent kill the wrong doers among you), that will be better for you with your Creator.” Then He accepted your repentance. Truly, He is the One Who accepts repentance, the Most Merciful. And (remember) when you said: “O Mūsā (Moses)! We shall never believe in you until we see Allah plainly.” But you were seized with a thunderbolt (lightning) while you were looking. Then We raised you up after your death, so that you might be grateful. And We shaded you with clouds and sent down on you Al-Manna and the quail, (saying): “Eat of the good lawful things We have provided for you,” (but they rebelled). And they did not wrong Us but they wronged themselves. And (remember) when We said: “Enter this town (Jerusalem) and eat bountifully therein with pleasure and delight wherever you wish, and enter the gate in prostration (or bowing with humility) and say: ‘Forgive us, and We shall forgive you your sins and shall increase (reward) for the good-doers.’” But those who did wrong changed the word from that which had been told to them for another, so We sent upon the wrong doers Rījz (a punishment) from the heaven because of their rebelling against Allah’s obedience. (Tafsir At-Tabari) And (remember) when Mūsā (Moses) asked

Each (group of) people knew its own place for water. “Eat and drink of that which Allāh has provided and do not act corruptly, making mischief on the earth.” And (remember) when you said, “O Mūsā (Moses)! We cannot endure one kind of food. So invoke your Lord for us to bring forth for us of what the earth grows, its herbs, its cucumbers, its Fūm (wheat or garlic), its lentils and its onions.” He said, “Would you exchange that which is better for that which is worse? Go you down to any town and you shall find what you want!” And they were covered with humiliation and misery, and they drew on themselves the Wrath of Allāh. That was because they used to disbelieve the Ayāt (proofs, evidences, Verses, lessons, signs, revelations etc.) of Allāh and killed the Prophets wrongfully. That was because they disobeyed and used to transgress the bounds (in their disobedience to Allāh, i.e. commit crimes and sins). (Qur’ān 2: 54-61)

Musa Hz. left the capital city of the pharaohs in Egypt and, traveling through Sinai, headed towards the lands of Madyan (Midian). On his return journey, he had with him his wife, the daughter of Shu’āib Hz. Another significant event occurred during his return journey: Allāh spoke to him at At-Tūr. After that, he returned to Egypt. Musa’s life coincided with the rule of the Pharaoh Merneptah (Minfitah), who ruled from the year 1230 before the start of the Christian calendar until the year 1215.

The famous crossing took place north of the Gulf of As-Suweis or in the Great Bitter Lakes which is where Minfitah drowned:

فَأَلْقَيْنِيَّ مِنْهَا لِتَكُونَ لَنَا حَقَُّكَ عَلَيْنَاهُ وَإِنَّ كَبِيرًا مِنَ الْأُمَنَّ عَنْ مَّا تَعْمَى

So this day We shall deliver your (dead) body (out from the sea) that you may be a sign to those who come after you! And verily, many among mankind are heedless of Our Ayāt (proofs, evidences, Verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.). (Qur’ān 10:92)

Hârûn ﷺ

And of course, the life of Hârûn ﷺ is closely linked with that of his brother, Musa ﷺ. Hârûn ﷺ is mentioned by name 20 times in the Noble Qur’ān:

And We appointed for Mūsā (Moses) thirty nights and added (to the period) ten (more), and he completed the term, appointed by his Lord, of forty nights. And Mūsā (Moses) said to his brother Ḥārūn (Aaron): “Replace me among my people, act in the right way (by ordering the people to obey Allāh and to worship Him Alone) and follow not the way of the Muṣṣidūn (mischief-makers).”  (Qur’ān 7: 142)

(Allāh) said: “Verily, We have tried your people in your absence, and As-Sāmīrī has led them astray.” Then Mūsā
(Moses) returned to his people in a state of anger and sorrow. He said: ‘O my people! Did not your Lord promise you a fair promise? Did then the promise seem to you long in coming? Or did you desire that wrath should descend from your Lord on you, that you broke your promise to me (i.e. by disbelieving in Allāh and worshipping the calf)?’” They said: “We broke not the promise to you, of our own will, but we were made to carry the weight of the ornaments of the [Fir‘aun’s (Pharaoh)] people, then we cast them (into the fire), and that was what As-Sāmīrī did.” Then he took out (of the fire) for them (a statue of) a calf which seemed to low. They said: “This is your ilāh (god), and the ilāh (god) of Mūsā (Moses), but he [Mūsā (Moses)] has forgotten (his god).” Did they not see that it could not return them a word (for answer), and that it had no power either to harm them or to do them good? And Hārūn (Aaron) indeed had said to them beforehand: “O my people! You are being tried in this, and verily, your Lord is (Allāh) the Most Gracious, so follow me and obey my order.” They said: “We will not stop worshipping it (i.e. the calf), until Mūsā (Moses) returns to us.” [Mūsā (Moses)] said: “O Hārūn (Aaron)! What prevented you when you saw them going astray; that you followed me not (according to my advice to you)? Have you then disobeyed my order?” He [Hārūn (Aaron)] said: “O son of my mother! Seize (me) not by my beard, nor by my head! Verily, I feared lest you should say: ‘You have caused a division among the Children of Israel, and you have not respected my word!’ ” (Qur’ān 20: 85-94)

Of the two Prophet brothers, Hārūn  was the first to die. He was buried in Mount Haur, one of the mountains of Sinai.

And (remember) Dawûd (David) and Sulaimân (Solomon), when they gave judgement in the case of the field in which the sheep of certain people had pastured at night; and We were witness to their judgement. And We made Sulaimân (Solomon) to understand (the case); and to each of them We gave Hukm (right judgement of the affairs and Prophethood) and knowledge. And We subjected the mountains and the birds to glorify Our Praises along with Dāwūd (David). And it was We Who were the doer (of all these things). And We taught him the making of metal coats of mail (for battles), to protect you in your fighting. Are you then grateful?

وَلَقَدْ نَيْسَبُ دَاوُودَ مَنَا فَضْلًا يَجْعَالُ أُوْلِيَ الْمَلَكَةِ وَالْقُوَّةِ وَلَيْسَ نَهْيُ عَنْ الْجَهَّالِ ۚ ۖ فَأَعْمَلْ

And indeed We bestowed grace on Dāwūd (David) from Us (saying): “O you mountains! Glorify (Allāh) with him! And you birds (also)! And We made the iron soft for him.” Saying: “Make you perfect coats of mail, and balance well the rings of chain armour, and work you (men) righteousness. Truly, I am All-Seer of what you do.”

(Qur’ān 34: 10, 11)

Daawood ἧθω fought the dwellers of Palestine at Ashdod, near Gaza. He was victorious, and the realm of his kingdom then expanded until it extended from Ailatul-'Aqabah until the Euphrates River. His grave is located on top of a mountain that lies somewhere between Jerusalem and Ar-Ramlah, after Abu Ghush. He died 963 years before the start of the Christian calendar.

And indeed We gave knowledge to Dāwūd (David) and Sulaimān (Solomon), and they both said: “All praise and thanks are Allāh’s, Who has preferred us above many of His believing slaves!” And Sulaimān (Solomon) inherited (the knowledge of) Dāwūd (David). He said: “O mankind! We have been taught the language of birds, and on us have been bestowed all things. This, verily, is an evident grace (from Allāh).” And there were gathered before Sulaimān (Solomon) his hosts of jinn and men, and birds, and they all were set in battle order (marching forward). Till, when they came to the valley of the ants, one of the ants said: “O ants! Enter your dwellings, lest Sulaimān (Solomon) and his hosts should crush you, while they perceive not.” So he [Sulaimān (Solomon)] smiled, amused at her speech and said: “My Lord! Grant me the power and ability that I may be grateful for Your Favours which You have bestowed on me and on my parents, and that I may do righteous good deeds that will please You, and admit me by Your Mercy among Your righteous slaves.” He inspected the birds, and said: “What is the matter that I see not the hoopoe? Or is he among the absentees? I will surely punish him with a severe torment or slaughter him, unless he brings me a clear reason.” But the hoopoe stayed not long, he (came up and) said: “I have grasped (the knowledge of a thing) which you have not grasped and I have come to you from Saba’ (Sheba) with true news. I found a woman ruling over them, she has been given all things that could be possessed by any ruler of the earth, and she has a great throne. I found her and her people worshipping the sun instead of Allāh, and Shaitān (Satan) has made their deeds fair-seeming to them, and has barred them from (Allāh’s) way, so they have no guidance.”

(Qur’ān 27: 15-24)
Sulaimān (Solomon) said: “We shall see whether you speak the truth or you are (one) of the liars. Go you with this letter of mine and deliver it to them, then draw back from them and see what (answer) they return.” She said: “O chiefs! Verily, here is delivered to me a noble letter, Verily, it is from Sulaimān (Solomon), and verily, it (reads): ‘In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. Be you not exalted against me, but come to me as Muslims (true believers who submit to Allāh with full submission).’ ” She said: “O chiefs! Advise me in (this) case of mine. I decide no case till you are present with me (and give me your opinions).” They said: “We have great strength, and great ability for war, but it is for you to command; so think over what you will command.” She said: “Verily, kings, when they enter a town (country), they despoil it and make the most honorable amongst its people the lowest. And thus they do. But verily, I am going to send him a present, and see with what (answer) the messengers return.” So, when (the messengers with the present) came to Sulaimān (Solomon), he said: “Will you help me in wealth? What Allāh has given me is better than that which He has given you! Nay, you rejoice in your gift!” [Then Sulaimān (Solomon) said to the chief of her messengers who brought the present]: “Go back to them. We verily, shall come to them with hosts that they cannot resist, and we shall drive them out from there in disgrace, and they will be abased.” He said: “O chiefs! Which of you can bring me her throne before they come to me surrendering themselves in obedience?” An ‘Ifrit (strong one) from the jinn said: “I will bring it to you before you rise from your place (council). And verily, I am indeed strong and trustworthy for such work.” One with whom was knowledge of the Scripture said: “I will bring it to you within the twinkling of an eye!” Then when he [Sulaimān (Solomon)] saw it placed before him, he said: “This is by the Grace of my Lord – to test me whether I am grateful or ungrateful! And whoever is grateful, truly, his gratitude is for (the good of) his own self; and whoever is ungrateful, (he is ungrateful only for the loss of his own self). Certainly my Lord is Rich (Free of all needs), Bountiful.” He said: “Disguise her throne for her that we may see whether she will be guided (to recognise her throne), or she will be one of those not guided.” So when she came, it was said (to her): “Is your throne like this?” She said: “(It is) as though it were the very same.” And [Sulaimān (Solomon) said]: “Knowledge was bestowed on us before her, and we were submitted to Allāh (in Islam as Muslims before her).” And that which she used to worship besides Allāh has prevented her (from Islam), for she was of a disbelieving people. It was said to her: “Enter As-Sarḥ’” (a glass surface with water underneath it or a palace): but when she saw it, she thought it was a pool, and she (tucked up her clothes) uncovering her legs. Sulaimān (Solomon) said: "Verily, it is a Sarh (a glass surface with water underneath it or a palace)."
She said: "My Lord! Verily, I have wronged myself, and I submit [in Islam, together with Sulaimān (Solomon)] to Allāh, the Lord of the 'Ālamīn (mankind, jinn and all that exists)."

(Qur'ān 27: 27-44)

By the permission of Allāh ﷺ, Sulaimān ﷺ was able to control the winds, thus enabling his trading vessels to travel at super fast speeds in the sea. It is said that he would leave from Jerusalem, take a day nap at Istakhr, and then spend the night at Khurasan; however, this claim is not founded on any reliable narration.

- The valley of the ants is situated in front of 'Asqalān, between Ashdod and Gaza.

- Sulaimān ﷺ is also remembered for the famous story involving him and the queen of Yemen, Sheba (Bilqis).

Sulaimān ﷺ died in Jerusalem, 923 years before the commencement of the Christian calendar, and he was buried there as well.

It is interesting to note here that the Al-Kan‘āniyyīn Arabs lived in the land of Kan‘ān, otherwise known as Palestine, at least 2500 years before the commencement of the Christian calendar. It was approximately 1200 years after they settled there that Musa ﷺ and his people migrated to the same land. Then because of the weakness and division of the Al-Kan‘āniyyīn, Yashu‘ ibn Nun established a presence there.

Then Talūt (Saul) gathered an army in order to fight the inhabitants of Palestine, who were led by Jalūt (Goliath). During the army’s march towards Palestine, Talūt forbade his soldiers from drinking any water from the Jordan River. They disobeyed his order: Other than of a few among them who abstained and remained patient, they drank from the river. And when they reached their destination, they said, "We have no power today to fight Jalût and his forces." Jalût then demanded that someone from the opposing army should come out to duel with him. Dâwûd .Imp, who was an ordinary soldier in the army of Talût, came forward and accepted the challenge. He pelted Jalût with a stone, which struck Jalût in the forehead. Dâwûd then tûk Jalût's sword from him and severed his head with it. The forces of Jalût were then defeated.

Talût then promised Dâwûd .Imp to marry him to his daughter, Mikâl; and to make him the chief of his army. But then Talût tried to break his promise, and he began to plot against Dawûd .Imp. Dawûd was saved from his plotting, and that paved the way for Dawûd becoming king of the Children of Israel.

- Jalût is mentioned by name three times in Sûrat Baqarah (2: 249, 250, 251)
- And Talût is twice mentioned by name in Sûrat Baqarah (2: 247, 249)

Dâwûd .Imp occupied Jerusalem, along with a part of Canaan (Kan'ân) territory, 1000 years before the commencement of the Christian calendar. But another part of the Kan'ân territory remained in the hands of the Kan'âniyyûn. In the year 931 (before the commencement of the Christian calendar), the Hebrews separated into two entities:

First, Sâmirah, who lived in the north, and whose capital was Sabsatiyyah. The Ashûriyyûn, under the leadership of Surjûn the Second, destroyed them in the year 722 (before the commencement of the Christian calendar).

Second, Yâhudha, who lived in the south, and whose capital was Jerusalem. The Kaldâniyyûn, under the leadership of Nebuchadnezzar (Bukhtanassar), destroyed them in the year 586 (before the commencement of the Christian calendar). And some they took as slaves. What is important, though, is that both groups were wiped out from the area.
Throughout all of these happenings, the native dwellers of those lands never left, a fact that is even supported by texts in the Torah. These native dwellers had a strong influence on the culture, language, and customs of the Jews. Therefore, the presence of the Jews in Palestine was brief and incidental in the long history of that Arab land.

And (remember) Ayyûb (Job), when he cried to his Lord: “Verily, distress has seized me, and You are the Most Merciful of all those who show mercy.” So We answered his call, and We removed the distress that was on him, and We restored his family to him (that he had lost) and the like thereof along with them as a mercy from Ourselves and a Reminder for all those who worship Us.

(Qur'ân 21: 83, 84)
Lord (saying): “Verily, Shaitān (Satan) has touched me with distress (by ruining my health) and torment (by ruining my wealth)!” (Allāh said to him): “Strike the ground with your foot. This is (a spring of) water to wash in, cool and a (refreshing) drink.” And We gave him (back) his family, and along with them the like thereof, as a Mercy from Us, and a Reminder for those who understand. “And take in your hand a bundle of thin grass and strike therewith (your wife), and break not your oath.” Truly, We found him patient. How excellent a slave! Verily, he was ever oft-returning in repentance (to Us)!

(Qur’ān 38: 41-44)

Ayyūb ﷺ either lived in the land of ‘Aus, beside Mount Sa’īr, or in the lands of Adoum, which are situated southwest of the Dead Sea and north of the Gulf of Al-‘Aqabah. However, At-Tabari and Yāqūt Al-Hamawi maintained that he either lived in Al-Bathaniyyah, between Damascus and Adhra‘at, or on the outskirts of Damascus itself.
Dhul-Kifl is twice mentioned by name in the Noble Qur’án:

And (remember) Isma’îl (Ishmael), Idris and Dhul-Kifl (Isaiah): all were from among As-Sâbirûn (the patient). And We admitted them to Our Mercy. Verily, they were of the righteous.

(Qur’án 21: 85, 86)

And remember Isma’îl (Ishmael), Alyasâ’ (Elisha), and Dhul-Kifl (Isaiah), all are among the best.

(Qur’án 38: 48)

The name Dhul-Kifl is oftên juxtaposed with the names of the Prophets. For this and other reasons, most scholars maintain that Dhul-Kifl was in fact a Prophet. There are others, however, who maintain that he was not a Prophet, but was simply a righteous man, who was a just and wise judge. At-Tabari remained undecided, saying that he was not sure whether he was or wasn’t a Prophet. Some people even claim that Dhul-Kifl was the son of Ayyûb. It is interesting to note that on Mount Qâsiyun, which overlooks Damascus from the north, is a place that has been named Dhul-Kifl.

And (remember) Dhun-Nûn [Yûnus (Jonah)], when he went off in anger, and imagined that We shall not punish him (i.e. the calamities which had befallen him)! But he cried through the darkness (saying): “Lâ ilâh illâ Anta [none has the right to be worshipped but You (O Allâh)], Glorified (and Exalted) are You [above all that (evil) they associate with You]! Truly, I have been of the wrong doers.” So, We answered his call, and delivered him from the distress. And thus We do deliver the believers (who believe in the Oneness of Allâh, abstain from evil and work righteousness).

(Qur’ân 21: 87, 88)
And verily, Yūnus (Jonah) was one of the Messengers. When he ran to the laden ship: Then he (agreed to) cast lots, and he was among the losers. Then a (big) fish swallowed him as he had done an act worthy of blame. Had he not been of them who glorify Allāh, He would have indeed remained inside its belly (the fish) till the Day of Resurrection. But We cast him forth on the naked shore while he was sick, And We caused a plant of gourd to grow over him. And We sent him to a hundred thousand (people) or even more. And they believed; so We gave them enjoyment for a while.

(Qur'ān 37: 139-148)

Wanting to flee to Tirshish (where Tunisia is located today), Younus stayed at Yâfa (Jaffa). After his episode in the sea – when the whale swallowed him, when he asked forgiveness from Allāh, and when he was then expelled from the whale – he went to Ninawa, near Mosul.

And We sent him to a hundred thousand (people) or even more. And they believed; so We gave them enjoyment for a while.

So, her Lord (Allāh) accepted her with goodly acceptance. He made her grow in a good manner and put her under the care of Zakariyya (Zechariah). Every time he entered Al-Mihrāb to (visit) her, he found her supplied with sustenance. He said: “O Maryam (Mary)! From where have you got this?” She said, “This is from Allāh.” Verily, Allāh provides sustenance to whom He wills, without limit. At that time Zakariyya (Zechariah) invoked his Lord, saying: “O my Lord! Grant me from You, a good offspring. You are indeed the All-Hearer of invocation.” Then the angels called him, while he was standing in prayer in Al-Miḥrāb (a praying place or a private room), (saying): “Allāh gives you glad tidings of Yahyā (John), confirming (believing in) the Word from Allāh [i.e. the creation of ‘Īsā (Jesus) ﷺ, the Word from Allāh (“Be!” — and he was!)], noble, keeping away from sexual relations with women, a Prophet, from among the righteous.” He said: “O my Lord! How can I have a son when I am very old, and my wife is barren?” (Allāh) said: “Thus Allāh does what He wills.” He said: “O my Lord! Make a sign for me.” (Allāh) said: “Your sign is that you shall not speak to mankind for three days except with signals. And remember your Lord much (by praising Him again and again), and glorify (Him) in the afternoon and in the morning.”

(Qur’ān 3: 37-41)

Zakariyyā ﷺ was a carpenter. It is said that he died a natural death, but it is also said that he died in the incident in which his son, Yahya ﷺ, was killed in Jerusalem. There is a large monument for him in Haleb’s (Aleppo) central gathering place.

(Allāh said:) “O Zakariyyā (Zechariah)! Verily, We give you the glad tidings of a son, whose name will be Yahyā (John). We have given that name to none before (him).” He said: “My Lord! How can I have a son, when my wife is barren, and I have reached the extreme old age.” He said: “So (it will be). Your Lord says: It is easy for Me. Certainly I have created you before, when you had been nothing!” [Zakariyyā (Zechariah)] said: “My Lord! Appoint for me a sign.” He said: “Your sign is that you shall not speak to mankind for three nights, though having no bodily defect.” Then he came out to his people from Al-Mihrāb (a praying place or a private room) and he told them by signs to glorify Allāh’s Praises in the morning and in the afternoon. (It was said to his son): “O Yahyā (John)! Hold fast the Scripture [the Taurāt (Torah)].” And We gave him wisdom while yet a child. And (made him) sympathetic to men as a mercy (or a grant) from Us, and pure from sins [i.e. Yahyā (John)] and he was righteous, And dutilful towards his parents, and he was neither arrogant nor disobedient (to Allāh or to his parents). And Salām (peace) be on him the day he was born, and the day he dies, and the day he will be raised up to life (again)!

(Qur’ān 19: 7-15)

Yahyâ was baptized Messiah at River Jordan, and so he is also called John the Beptist and Ma’madân.

Yahyâ was killed upon a rock (Sakhrah) in Jerusalem, and his head was then taken to Damascus. The reason for his killing has to do with a king who wanted to marry one of his relatives. Yahyâ refused his proposal, and bitter feelings then continued to fester in the man’s heart. Later on, when the man ended up marrying the same woman, he sent someone to kill Yahyâ. It is maintained by some that Yahyâ was killed not in Jerusalem, but instead in Damascus. And until this day, there remains a monument for him in the Umawi Masjid.

Verily, the likeness of ‘Īsā (Jesus) before Allāh is the likeness of Adam. He created him from dust, then (He) said to him: "Be!"
and he was.

(Qur’ân 3: 59)

O people of the Scripture (Christians)! Do not exceed the limits in your religion, nor say of Allah aught but the truth. The Messiah ‘Īsā (Jesus), son of Maryam (Mary), was (no more than) a Messenger of Allah and His Word, ("Be!" — and he was) which He bestowed on Maryam (Mary) and a spirit (Rūḥ) created by Him; so believe in Allah and His Messengers. Say not: “Three (trinity)!” Cease! (it is) better for you. For Allah is (the only) One Ilâh (God), Glorified is He (Far Exalted is He) above having a son. To Him belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is in the earth. And Allah is All-Sufficient as a Disposer of affairs.

(Qur’ân 4: 171)

And will make him [‘Īsā (Jesus)] a Messenger to the Children of Israel (saying): “I have come to you with a sign from your Lord, that I design for you out of clay, a figure like that of a bird, and breathe into it, and it becomes a bird by Allah’s Leave; and I heal him who was born blind, and the leper, and I bring the dead to life by Allah’s Leave. And I inform you of what you eat, and what you store in your houses. Surely, in that is a sign for you, if you are believers. (Qur’ân 3: 49)
Then she pointed to him. They said: "How can we talk to one who is a child in the cradle?" He [‘Isā (Jesus)] said: "Verily, I am a slave of Allāh, He has given me the Scripture and made me a Prophet; and He has made me blessed wheresoever I be, and has enjoined on me Salāt (prayer) and Zakāt (obligatory charity), as long as I live. And dutiful to my mother, and made me not arrogant, unblest. And Salām (peace) be upon me the day I was born, and the day I die, and the day I shall be raised alive!"

(Qur‘ān 19: 29-33)

And because of their saying (in boast), "We killed Messiah ‘Isā (Jesus), son of Maryam (Mary), the Messenger of Allāh," — but they killed him not, nor crucified him, but it appeared so to them [the resemblance of ‘Isā (Jesus) was put over another man (and they killed that man)], and those who differ therein are full of doubts. They have no (certain) knowledge, they follow nothing but conjecture. For surely, they killed him not [i.e. ‘Isā (Jesus), son of Maryam (Mary)]: But Allāh raised him [‘Isā (Jesus)] up (with his body and soul) to Himself (and he is in the heavens). And Allāh is Ever All-Powerful, All-Wise. And there is none of the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) but must believe in him [‘Isā (Jesus), son of Maryam (Mary), as only a Messenger of Allāh and a human being] before his [‘Īsā (Jesus) ﷺ or a Jew’s or a Christian’s] death (at the time of the appearance of the angel of death). And on the Day of Resurrection, he [‘Īsā (Jesus)] will be a witness against them.

(Qur’ān 4: 157-159)

وَقَالَ اللَّهُ ﷺ يَعُبُّدُونِي وَأَيْنَّا يَعُبُّدُونَ إِلَّا لنَّا فَأَنْتُ عَلَمَتُنَّ خَيْرَهُمْ وَعَلَمَتُنَّ شَرَّهُمْ فَلَا رَيْبَةَ رَبِّكَ ﷺ أَلِفَ الْحَمْدُ لَهُ يُّؤُفِّكُونَ

And (remember) when Allāh will say (on the Day of Resurrection): “O ‘Īsā (Jesus), son of Maryam (Mary)! Did you say to men: ‘Worship me and my mother as two gods besides Allāh?’ ” He will say: “Glorified are You! It was not for me to say what I had no right (to say). Had I said such a thing, You would surely have known it. You know what is in my inner self though I do not know what is in Yours; truly, You, only You, are the All-Knower of all that is hidden (and unseen). Never did I say to them aught except what You (Allāh) did command me to say: ‘Worship Allāh, my Lord and your Lord.’ And I was a witness over them while I dwelt amongst them, but when You took me up, You were the Watcher over them; and You are a Witness to all things. (This is a great admonition and warning to the Christians of the whole world). If You punish them, they are Your slaves, and if You forgive them, verily, You, only You are the All-Mighty, the All-Wise.”

(Qur’ān 5: 116-118)
The Messiah [‘Isā (Jesus)], son of Maryam (Mary), was no more than a Messenger; many were the Messengers that passed away before him. His mother [Maryam (Mary)] was a Siddîqah [i.e. she believed in the Words of Allâh and His Books (see Verse 66:12)]. They both used to eat food (as any other human being, while Allâh does not eat). Look how We make the Ayât (proofs, evidences, Verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) clear to them; yet look how they are deluded away (from the truth).

(Qur’ân 5: 75)

‘Isâ was born in Bethlehem in Palestine. There was the famous date tree in the area as well as the small river mentioned regarding his birth. His roots trace back to An-Nâsirah, in northern Palestine. In fact, it is in An-Nâsirah (Nazareth) that ‘Isâ lived with his chaste and pious mother. Some sources mention that he went on a journey with his mother and Yusuf, the carpenter, to Ain Shams (Helispolis) Egypt. They stayed beside Al-Matriyyah, the Virgin Tree. The family then returned to An-Nâsirah. The Bible then mentions nothing whatsoever about his life from the time he was 12 years old until he reached the age of 30, when it is mentioned that he met Yahya and was baptized in the Jordan River. Some Western thinkers claim that, during the period in which nothing is mentioned about him, he traveled to India, where he came across the teachings of the Buddha.

In 1975, UNESCO distributed texts from the Bible that were uncovered in Naj’ Humaadee, in the highlands of Egypt; they were actually discovered in the year 1945. Among those texts is the following passage, which is mentioned here word for word:

"It was another person who drank the bitterness and vinegar, and not I. And it was another (Simon Peter) who carried the cross on his shoulders; and it was yet another who placed a crown of thorns upon his head. Meanwhile, I was above, laughing at their ignorance."

Now the Qur’ân reveals:
And because of their saying (in boast), “We killed Messiah 'Īsā (Jesus), son of Maryam (Mary), the Messenger of Allāh,” — but they killed him not, nor crucified him, but it appeared so to them [the resemblance of 'Īsā (Jesus) was put over another man (and they killed that man)], and those who differ therein are full of doubts. They have no (certain) knowledge, they follow nothing but conjecture. For surely, they killed him not [i.e. 'Īsā (Jesus), son of Maryam (Mary) ﷺ]: But Allāh raised him ['Īsā (Jesus)] up (with his body and soul) to Himself (and he ﷺ is in the heavens). And Allāh is Ever All-Powerful, All-Wise.

وَلَقَدْ أُنْزِلَ لَفْسَنُ الْحِكْمَةُ أَيْ أَشْكُرُ اللَّهَ وَمَنْ يَشْكُرُ فَإِنَّمَا يُشْكُرُ لِنَفْسِهِ وَمَنْ كَفَّرْ فِيَّ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَىٰ حِمَامٍ ۚ وَلَدَ إِنَّمَا لَفْسَنُ لَا يُشْكُرُ اللَّهَ إِنَّ كَفْرَ الْكَفَّارِ لَظَلَّلُ عَظِيمٌ

And indeed We bestowed upon Luqmân Al-Hikmah (wisdom and religious understanding saying): “Give thanks to Allâh.” And whoever gives thanks, he gives thanks for (the good of) his own self. And whoever is unthankful, then verily, Allâh is All-Rich (Free of all needs), Worthy of all praise. And (remember) when Luqmân said to his son when he was advising him: “O my son! Join not in worship others with Allâh. Verily, joining others in worship with Allâh is a great Zûlm (wrong) indeed.

(Qur’án 31: 12, 13)
And We have enjoined on man (to be dutiful and good) to his parents. His mother bore him in weakness and hardship upon weakness and hardship, and his weaning is in two years — give thanks to Me and to your parents. To Me is the final destination. But if they (both) strive with you to make you join in worship with Me others that of which you have no knowledge, then obey them not; but behave with them in the world kindly, and follow the path of him who turns to Me in repentance and in obedience. Then to Me will be your return, and I shall tell you what you used to do. “O my son! If it be (anything) equal to the weight of a grain of mustard seed, and though it be in a rock, or in the heavens or in the earth, Allah will bring it forth. Verily, Allah is Subtle (in bringing out that grain), Well-Acquainted (with its place). O my son! Aqimis-Salāt (perform prayers), enjoin (on people) Al-Ma’rūf (Islamic Monotheism and all that is good), and forbid (people) from Al-Munkar (i.e. disbelief in the Oneness of Allah, polytheism of all kinds and all that is evil and bad), and bear with patience whatever befalls you. Verily, these are some of the important commandments (ordered by Allah with no exemption). And turn not your face away from men with pride, nor walk in insolence through the earth. Verily, Allah likes not any arrogant boaster. And be moderate (or show no insolence) in your walking, and lower your voice. Verily, the harshest of all voices is the braying of the asses. ” deem sufficient what has been made sufficient for me (i.e., it now became Prophet Dâwûd’s duty to issue legal verdicts)?” Luqûmân is originally from the lands of Nuba, which extend from northern Sudan to southern Egypt.

(Qur’an 31: 14-19)

The following is related from Ibn ʿAbbâs: He (i.e., Luqûmân) was neither a Prophet nor a king. Rather, he was a shepherd who was freed by his owner. That owner once ordered him to slaughter a sheep and to remove from it its two best parts. Luqûmân then removed the tongue and the heart. His owner gave him a similar order a few days later, but this time to remove the two foulest parts. Luqûmân again removed the tongue and the heart. When his owner asked him about that, he said, “If they remain pure and good, they are the best two body parts; and if they become spoiled and evil, they are the two most foul body parts.” Among the many wise sayings that are ascribed to Luqûmân is the following: “Silence is wisdom, and few are its practitioners.”
Iram (who were very tall) like lofty pillars. Damascus, Alexandria, a city that lies east of Yemen (which is more authentic).
Iram Dhâtul-‘Imâd

The structures of this place are described in the Qur’ân as being very tall like lofty pillars, the like of which were not created in the land. Some say that this place is Alexandria; others maintain that it is Damascus; and yet others, whose opinion is strongest by dint of stronger proofs, say that it is a city near ‘Adan, between San’â and Hadramawt.

The following is an entry from Mo’jam Al-Buldân (1/155): Some say that it is a land that has been blotted out, and so its exact whereabouts remain unknown. Others say that it is Alexandria, yet most say that it is Damascus... Others have related that Iram Dhâtul-‘Imâd is in Yemen, between Hadramawt and San’a built by Shaddâd bin ‘Âd.

Saw you (O Muhammad ﷺ) not how your Lord dealt with ‘Âd (people) of Iram (who were very tall) like (lofty) pillars, the like of which were not created in the land? And (with) Thamûd (people), who hewed out rocks in the valley (to make dwellings)? And (with) Fir’âun (Pharaoh) who had the stakes (to torture men by binding them to the stakes)? Who did transgress beyond bounds in the lands (in the disobedience of Allâh). And made therein much mischief. So, your Lord poured on them different kinds of severe torment. Verily, your Lord is Ever Watchful (over them).

The Dwellers of Rass

Salaj at (Yamamah), in the Ouses of Thamud, a Valley the Azerbaijan or Ar-Ran, a Village in Hadramat,
The Dwellers Of Ar-Rass

The dwellers of Al-Rass are mentioned twice in the Noble Qur’ân:

وَعَادًا وَنَمُودًا وَأَصْحَبَ ٱلَّذِينَ بُنَىَ ٱلسَّيْرَ بِذَٰلِكَ كُبْرَىٰ

And (also) ‘Ād and Thamūd, and the dwellers of Ar-Rass, and many generations in between.

(Qur’ân 25: 38)

كِتَابٍ قَالُوا قَوْمِ ٱلْوَلَّدَى وَأَصْحَابَ ٱلَّذِينَ نُمَوَّدُ

Denied before them (i.e., these pagans of Makkah) the people of Nūh (Noah), and the dwellers of Ar-Rass, and Thamūd.

(Qur’ân 50: 12)

In the Arabic language, Ar-Rass means a well that is lined by stones. It is said that in the above-mentioned Verses a specific well is being referred to, a well that belonged to a subdivision of the Thamūd tribe. The members of that subdivision or sub-tribe were known as ‘The Dwellers of Ar-Rass.’ Some say that they were given that name because they threw the Prophet that Allāh ﷺ sent to them into a well. Some scholars of Tafsir believe that “The Dwellers of Ar-Rass and “The People of the Ditch” (who are referred to in the Qur’ân 85:4) are one and the same people. It is also believed by some that they lived in Al-Yamāmah, in a town called Falaj.
People of Tubba'
Yemen, Makkah, Samarqand
The People Of Tubba‘

Are they better or the people of Tubba‘ and those before them? We destroyed them because they were indeed Mujrimūn (disbelievers, polytheists, sinners, criminals).

(Qur'ān 44: 37)

And the dwellers of the Wood, and the people of Tubba‘. Everyone of them denied (their) Messengers, so My Threat took effect.

(Qur’ān 50: 14)

Tubba‘ was the title given to the ruling king of the Himyariyyah nation in Yemen; all of the succeeding kings of that nation later became known as the At-Tababī‘ah (plural of Tubba‘). The most important of those kings was Hassān ibn As‘ad ibn Abi Karb, who is said to have lived 12 centuries before the beginning of the Christian calendar. He conquered many lands – northward until Ash-Sham (Syria and surrounding regions), eastward until the lands of Turkistan, and he even conquered Samarqand. The Tubba‘ Hassān chose two cities to be the capitals of his empire: Ma‘rib, in which the famous dam of Sabā‘ was built, and Zufār. It is said that he was the first to put a covering over the Ka‘bah.
“Until when Yajuj and Majuj (Gog and Magog) are let loose (from their barrier) and they swoop down from every mound.”

Ya’jûj And Ma’jûj

Until, when he reached between the two mountains, he found before (near) them (those two mountains) a people who scarcely understood a word. They said: “O Dhul-Qarnain! Verily, Yajûj and Majûj (Gog and Magog people) are doing great mischief in the land. Shall we then pay you a tribute in order that you might erect a barrier between us and them?”

(Qur’ân 18: 93, 94)

Until, when Ya’jûj and Ma’jûj (Gog and Magog people) are let loose (from their barrier), and they swoop down from every mound.

(Qur’ân 21: 96)

Ya’jûj and Ma’jûj are two tribes from the Turk. (The people of Turk tribes, as used in this context, are the Mongols.) An exact description of the people of these two tribes – in terms of their physical traits – is not mentioned in Allâh’s Book. All that is mentioned in the Qur’ân about them is that they are a people who did much mischief in the earth. If there were anything else spectacular about them, we would have been informed thereof.
They were a strong and violent people, who would attack and pillage the lands of neighboring peoples. Thus does the meaning of the following verse become clear: “Verily, Ya’jūj and Ma’jūj are doing great mischief in the land.” (Qur’ān 18: 94)

In terms of doing mischief, they would plunder towns, kill some of the inhabitants, and take others as slaves. Therefore, we can discount all of the far-fetched things that are said about Ya’jūj and Ma’jūj and that are not mentioned in the Book of Allâh or the authentic Sunnah of His Messenger ﷺ.
Hârût and Mârût In Babylon

...but the Shayātīn (devils) disbelieved, teaching men magic and such things that came down at Babylon to the two angels, Hârût and Mârût...

(Qur’ān 2: 102)

When magic became a widespread practice among the Jews, Allâh ∥ sent two angels Hârût and Mârût – to the kingdom of Babylon, which was situated between two rivers: The Tigris and the Euphrates. Allâh ∥ sent these angels as a trial and test for the people:

But neither of these two (angels) taught anyone (such things) till they had said, “We are only for trial, so disbelieve not (by learning this magic from us).” (Qur’ān 2: 102)

And so the two angels would not teach anyone magic until they first advised them, telling them, in so many words: ‘What we are describing to you is a test and trial from Allâh, so do not use it for evil, and do not disbelieve because of it. Whoever learns it to prevent himself from harming others, is saved. And whoever learns it to harm others, goes astray and becomes destroyed.’

At the time, magic was practiced on a widespread scale. Perhaps one of the reasons why the angels came to teach magic was so that people could gain an appreciation of the difference between magic and bona fide miracles; and so that they could identify lying magicians who falsely claimed to be Prophets.

The Dwellers Of The Town

And put forward to them a similitude; the (story of the) Dwellers of the Town, [it is said that the town was Antioch (Antakiyah)], when there came Messengers to them. When We sent to them two Messengers, they denied them both; so We reinforced them with a third, and they said: "Verily, we have been sent to you as Messengers." (Qur'an 36: 13, 14)

"The Dwellers of the Town" are the people of Antioch, a point that is agreed upon by all of the Mufassirin (Scholars of Tafsir). Antioch was situated just before the mouth of the 'Aasi river in As-Suwaidiyyah, which is beside the Mediterranean Sea. The town was built by Selauqas the First in the year 307 (before the commencement of the Christian calendar). He made it the capital of his kingdom after Alexander III of Macedon. In the Abbasid period, it was the main city of the province Awásim. The area is known for its pristine beauty, its wholesome air, its sweet water, and its many blessings.

Al-Qurtubi said: The town is Antioch, to which Al-Masih sent three messengers: Sâdiq, Masduq, and Sham'un.
They (people of the town) said: “You are only human beings like ourselves, and the Most Gracious (Allâh) has revealed nothing. You are only telling lies.” The Messengers said: “Our Lord knows that we have been sent as Messengers to you, and our duty is only to convey plainly (the Message).” They (people) said: “For us, we see an evil omen from you; if you cease not, we will surely stone you, and a painful torment will touch you from us.” They (Messengers) said: “Your evil omens be with you! (Do you call it ‘evil omen’) because you are admonished? Nay, but you are a people Musrifûn (transgressing all bounds by committing all kinds of great sins, and by disobeying Allâh).” And there came a man running from the farthest part of the town. He said: “O my people! Obey the Messengers. “Obey those who ask no wages of you (for themselves), and who are rightly guided. And why should I not worship Him (Allâh Alone) Who has created me and to Whom you shall be returned. Shall I take besides Him âlihah (gods)? If the Most Gracious (Allâh) intends me any harm, their intercession will be of no use for me whatsoever, nor can they save me. Then verily, I should be in plain error. Verily, I have believed in your Lord, so listen to me!” It was said (to him when the disbelievers killed him): “Enter Paradise.” He said: “Would that my people knew “That my Lord (Allâh) has forgiven me, and made me of the honored ones!”

(Qur’ân 36: 15-27)

This man was Habib An-Najjâr who came to help them, and he announced his faith before them. The people attacked him, stamping him with their feet until he died. And then Allâh destroyed the town.

People of the Cave
Apshos: North West of Tarsus
(to my belief it lies near Petra city in Jordan)
The People Of The Cave

"And when they said, ‘O Allah, if Thou hast created us in pairs, command us to do that which is right and be witnesses for us among the nations and make our works acceptable to Thee.’ And Allah is the All-Hearer, the All-Knower. So the People of the Cave were Allah’s friends. Allah will raise up the People of the Cave as a repetition of the former. And the third part will be to them the Garden of God. And Allah is the Most Exalted in Might, the Most Wise."

"It is not for Allah to create a thing in the heavens or on the earth and then declare it false. And He makes firm the words of the Rightly Guided. And it is for Allah that all things are completed."

"And We will make a garden in every city, and We will make a garden in Jannatul Firdaws."

"And it is We who sent down to you the Scripture and made firm Our Signs in it, that they may be a guidance to mankind and a witness to the people of the Jannah.

"And they say, ‘Our Lord, make us guardians over mankind and witnesses over what We have provided for them, and let them testify that we are Muslims.’"

Do you think that the people of the Cave and the Inscription (the news or the names of the people of the Cave) were a wonder among Our Signs? (Remember) when the young men fled for refuge (from their disbelieving folk) to the Cave. They said: "Our Lord! Bestow on us mercy from Yourself, and facilitate for us our affair in the right way!" Therefore, We covered up their (sense of) hearing (causing them to go in deep sleep) in the Cave for a number of years. Then We raised them up (from their sleep), that We might test which of the two parties was best at calculating the time period that they had tarried. We narrate to you (O Muhammad ﷺ) their story with truth: Truly, they were young men who believed in their Lord (Allâh), and We increased them in guidance. And We made their hearts firm and strong (with the light of faith in Allâh and bestowed upon them patience to bear the separation of their kith and kin and dwellings) when they stood up and said: "Our Lord is the Lord of the heavens and the earth, never shall we call upon any ilâh (god) other than Him; if we did, we should indeed have uttered an enormity in disbelief. These our people have taken for worship âlihâh (gods) other than Him (Allâh). Why do they not bring for them a clear authority? And who does more wrong than he who invents a lie against Allâh." (The young men said to one another:) "And when you withdraw from them, and that which they worship, except Allâh, then seek refuge in the Cave; your Lord will open a way for you from His Mercy and will make easy for you your affair (i.e. will give you what you will need of provision, dwelling)." And you might have seen the sun, when it rose, declining to the right from their Cave, and when it set, turning away from them to the left, while they lay in the midst of the Cave. That is (one) of the Ayât (proofs, evidences, signs) of Allâh. He whom Allâh guides, he is the rightly-guided; but he whom He sends astray, for him you will find no Wâli (guiding friend) to lead him (to the Right Path). And you would have thought them awake, whereas they were asleep. And We turned them on their right and on their left sides, and their dog stretching forth his two forelegs at the entrance [of the Cave or in the space near to the entrance of the Cave (as a guard at the gate)]. Had you looked at them, you would certainly have turned back from them in flight, and would certainly have been filled with awe of them. Likewise, We awakened them (from their long deep sleep) that they might question one another. A speaker from among them said: “How long have you stayed (here)?” They said: “We have stayed (perhaps) a day or part of a day.” They said: “Your Lord (Alone) knows best how long you have stayed (here). So send one of you with this silver coin of yours to the town, and let him find out which is the good lawful food, and bring some of that to you. And let him be careful and let no man know of you. For, if they come to know of you, they will stone you (to death or abuse and harm you) or turn you back to their religion; and in that case you will never be successful.” And thus We made their case known (to the people), that they might know that the Promise of Allâh is true, and that there can be no doubt about the Hour. (Remember) when they (the people of the city) disputed among themselves about their case, they said: “Construct a building over them; their Lord knows best about them;” (then) those who won their point said (most probably the disbelievers): “We verily, shall build a place of worship over them.” (Some) say they were three, the dog being the fourth among them; and (others) say they were five, the dog being the sixth, guessing at the unseen; (yet others) say they were seven, and the dog being the eighth. Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): “My Lord knows best their number; none knows them but a few.” So, debate not (about their number) except with the clear proof (which We have revealed to you). And consult not any of them (people of the Scripture — Jews and Christians) about (the affair of) the people of the Cave.

(Qur’ân 18: 9-22)

“The People of the Cave” are given that name because of the story of how they fled from evil and took refuge in a spacious mountain cave. Ar-Raqim (the Inscription) in the above-mentioned Verses refers, according to the most broadly accepted view, to a tablet on which was written the names of the People of the Cave.
During that time, a polytheist king by the name of Diqyanus was ruler of Rome; and Tarasus was the name of a city that was a part of his realm. It was a rule with him to kill every single believer. When a group of youths saw the evil that was happening around them, they became very sad and fled from the king and his tyranny. Along with a shepherd and his dog, they took refuge in a cave, near Tarasus.
Allâh then caused them to fall into a state of deep slumber. Without them realizing it, they continued to sleep for 300 sun years, which is equivalent to 309 moon years.
When Allâh ﷺ then caused them to wake up, they thought that they had been there for only a day or part of a day. They sent one among them to go out and buy food for them. When he went out and saw that everything had changed, he thought that he had lost his way.
When he came across people, they were amazed at the kind of money he had with him. Everyone then discovered what had really happened. Allâh ﷺ then caused the People of the Cave to die in their cave. The people (most probably the disbelievers) then said:

“We verily shall build a place of worship over them.” (Qur’ân 18: 21)

Verily, those who believe and those who are Jews and Christians, and Sabians, whoever believes in Allāh and the Last Day and does righteous good deeds shall have their reward with their Lord, on them shall be no fear, nor shall they grieve.

(Qur’ān 2: 62)

Surely, those who believe (in the Oneness of Allāh, in His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ and all that was revealed to him from Allāh), and those who are the Jews and the Sabians and the Christians, – whosoever believed in Allāh and the Last Day, and worked righteousness, on them shall be no fear, nor shall they grieve.

(Qur’ān 5: 69)
Verily, those who believe (in Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad [saw]), and those who are Jews, and the Sabians, and the Christians, and the Majusi (Magians) and those who worship others besides Allah; truly, Allah will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection. Verily, Allah is over all things a Witness.

(Qur'an 22: 17)

The Sabians that Allah mentioned in the Noble Qur'an were pure monotheists who lived before the first Jews and Christians. They worshiped Allah alone, and they believed that Allah created the universe. They also believed in the resurrection of our bodies. Later on, their beliefs became strongly linked to the planets and stars, until they became accused of polytheism. Sabians are a religious group that did exist and continue to exist in northern Iraq; their central place was Harran, and it then moved to Baghdad and elsewhere since the time of the first Abbasid rule. Some of them even accepted Islam. Much of their time has been dedicated to the study of natural phenomenon. And they are known for having translated many Greek and Asyrrian works into Arabic. Today, they are few in number and live in northern Iraq. As a protective measure, their beliefs are clouded in secrecy, for they fear that, as time goes on, their religion will end up changing.

Verily, Allâh is over all things a Witness.

(Qur'ân 22: 17)

Born in the city of Maydiyyah in Ar-Ra'yi, 600 years before the advent of the Christian calendar, Zoroaster (Zarathushtra) established the final doctrines of the Magians. Some sources claim that he was the Prophet. Originally from Azerbaijan, he authored a book that he called Avesta (Az-Zindafastâ); in it he prophesied the coming of Muhammad ﷺ, as is mentioned by Fideyârtî in his book, Muhammad in the Holy Books of the World.

At the dawn of Islam, the Persian religion Zoroastrianism was the dominant religion among the people of Fâris. And approximately 900 years before the advent of Islam, it was the official religion of the Sassanian nation. The principal beliefs of the Magians revolve around a constant struggle between the god of goodness or light, Ahura Mazda and the god of evil or darkness, Ahriman. Deeming fire to be holy, they would ignite it in honor of Ahura Mazda. Some of their ancient fire temples are still intact today. The most important and famous of them is the one that is in Baku, the capital of Azerbaijan. There is also a similar temple on the peak of a hill beside Isfahan. And the people of Faris left behind a temple of fire in Yemen; its structure is still preserved today. There are still remnants of the religion Zoroastrianism in Bombay, India, as well as in Yazd and Kirman, which are both situated in the central part of Iran.

Sailul-‘Arím

Indeed there was for Saba (Sheba) a sign in their dwelling place – two gardens on the right hand and on the left; (and it was said to them:) “Eat of the provision of your Lord, and be grateful to Him.” A fair land and an Oft-Forgiving Lord! But they turned away (from the obedience of Allâh), so We sent against them Sailul-‘Arím (flood released from the dam), and We converted their two gardens into gardens producing bitter bad fruit, and tamarisks, and some few lote trees. Like this We requited them because they were ungrateful disbelievers. And never do We requite in such a way except those who are ungrateful (disbelievers).

(Qur’ân 34: 15-17)

Having a deep and ancient history, Saba is a nation that was established in Yemen (from the years 950-115 before the beginning of the Christian calendar). The capital city was Ma’rib. Later on, it was The Al-Himyariyyun – who themselves were from the Sabaiyyin – who ruled that nation. And it was the nation of Al-Himyariyyah that involved itself in a struggle first with Al-Habashah and then with the people of Faris, until it was finally wiped out.

The city of Saba is also known by the name Ma’rib, which linguistically means ‘plentiful water.’ The waters of floods would gather in an adjacent valley, which is where the famous dam was built. It is from there that the inhabitants of Saba would draw water to drink and to irrigate their gardens.
The famous flood that is referred to in the above-mentioned Verse (Sailul-‘Arim) is what occurred after the collapse of the dam of Ma‘rib. This all took place approximately 400 years before the advent of Islam. And it is said that Al-‘Arim is the name of the valley over which the dam was built.

The People Of The Ditch

By the heaven holding the big stars. And by the Promised Day (i.e. the Day of Resurrection). And by the Witnessing (i.e. Friday), and by the Witnessed [i.e. the day of ‘Arafah (Hajj), the ninth of Dhul-Hijjah]; Cursed were the People of the Ditch (in the story of the Boy and the King). Of fire fed with fuel, When they sat by it (fire), And they witnessed what they were doing against the believers (i.e., burning them). And they had no fault except that they believed in Allâh, the All-Mighty, the Worthy of all praise! To Whom belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth! And Allâh is Witness over everything.

(Qur’ân 85: 1-9)

The story of The People of the Ditch”’ is mentioned in Sûrat Al-Burâj, Chapter 85 of the Qur’ân. Scholars of Tafsîr agree that a group of believers refused to apostatize and preferred death to forsaking their beliefs. A wicked king had prepared a ditch for them; he ignited fire in it and threw them inside. Some historians and scholars of Tafsîr mentioned that that king was Yusuf Dhu-Nuwâs, one of the kings of Himyar, who died in the year 524 (by the Christian calendar). A staunch follower of Judaism, he oppressed the Christians of Najrân, giving them a choice between forsaking their religion and being burned in the ditch that he had prepared for them. They refused to abandon their religion, which led to him burning them in the year 523. That wicked slaughter prompted An-Najâshi, the Christian ruler of Al-Habashah, to exact revenge from Yusuf Dhu-Nuwâs and his followers.
After the king ignited fire in the ditch, he ordered his soldiers to bring every male and female believer and to show them the fire. Anyone that did not abandon his religion was to be thrown into the fire, which is what ended up happening. When the turn came for a woman who had her young son with her to fall into the ditch, she hesitated. Her son then said, “O Mother, be patient, for indeed you are upon the truth.” (The story of the woman and her child is related in Sahih Muslim)

Verily, We have tried them as We tried the People of the Garden, when they swore to pluck the fruits of the (garden) in the morning, Without saying: In shā’ Allāh (If Allāh wills). Then there passed by on it (the garden) a visitation (fire) from your Lord (at night and burnt it) while they were asleep. So the (garden) became black by the morning, like a pitch dark night (in complete ruins). Then they called out one to another as soon as the morning broke. Saying: “Go to your tilth in the morning, if you would pluck the fruits.” So they departed, conversing in secret low tones (saying): “No Miskīn (needy man) shall enter upon you into it today.” And they went in the morning with strong intention, thinking that they have power (to prevent the poor taking anything of the fruits therefrom). But when they saw the (garden), they said: “Verily, we have gone astray.” (Then they said): “Nay! Indeed we are deprived of (the fruits)! The best among them said: “Did I not tell you, why say you not: In shā’ Allāh (If Allāh wills).” They said: “Glory to Our Lord! Verily, we have been Zālimūn (wrong doers).” Then they turned one against another, blaming. They said: “Woe to us! Verily, we were Tāghūn (transgressors and disobedient). We hope that our Lord will give us in exchange a better (garden) than this. Truly, we turn to our Lord (wishing for good that He may forgive our sins and reward us in the Hereafter).” Such is the punishment (in this life), but truly, the punishment of the Hereafter is greater if they but knew.

( Qur'ân 68: 17-33)

The people of the Garden were in Dawran. Dawran, which belonged to Bani Harsh, was one of the fortified cities of Yemen. And Dawraan is also the name of a mountain that actually overlooks the city.

The Owners of the Elephant

The Year of the Elephant: April 20, 571 A.D.
The Owners Of The Elephant

Have you (O Muhammad ﷺ) not seen how your Lord dealt with the Owners of the Elephant? [The Elephant Army which came from Yemen under the command of Abrahah Al-Ashram intending to destroy the Ka’bah at Makkah]. Did He not make their plot go astray? And He sent against them birds, in flocks, Striking them with stones of Sijjil (baked clay). And He made them like (an empty field of) stalks (of which the corn) has been eaten up (by cattle).

(Qur’án 105: 1-5)

“The Owners Of The Elephant” refers to the army of Abrahah ibn Al-Ashram Al-Habashi, who became ruler of Yemen after the demise of Yusuf Dhu-Nuwas. In the year 571 (of the Christian calendar), the same year in which the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was born, Abrahah led his army towards the inviolable city of Makkah with the intention of destroying the Ka’bah. He wanted the Arabs to stop performing pilgrimage to Makkah, and to instead perform pilgrimage to the Al-Qullais church, which he had built in San’a.

As the army marched forward, a huge elephant remained at the front of it. One narration mentions that when Abrahah was preparing to enter Makkah, the elephant knelt down, refusing to go forward. As much as they tried to get the elephant to move, it wouldn’t budge. When they turned it away from Makkah and made it face Ash-Sham, it began to race forward. Then they turned it towards Yemen, and it did the same. But whenever they tried to turn it towards Makkah, it wouldn’t move.

On his way to Makkah, Abrahah usurped the wealth of many Arabs. Among the wealth he stole, were camels that belonged to ‘Abdul-Muttalib ibn Hashim, the grandfather of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. ‘Abdul-Muttalib presented himself before Abrahah and demanded that he return his wealth back to him. Abrahah was somewhat taken aback by his words, and so he said, “You speak to me about 200 camels that I took from you, yet you care nothing for the House (the Ka’bah), which represents your religion and the religion of your fathers! I have come to destroy it, yet you say nothing to me about that!” ‘Abdul-Muttalib said, “Indeed, I am the lord of these camels, and indeed, the House has a Lord Who will prevent you from (harming) it.”

Then Allah ﷺ sent many flocks of birds, birds with stones of Sijjil (stony, hard clay). They pelted the soldiers of Abrahah with them, and the army then became like an empty field of stalks of which the corn has been eaten up by cattle.

There was a traitor Abu Righal who guided the enemy to Makkah. His grave is at Mughammus on the way to Tâ’if. It is said that even today the Arabs pelt stones at his grave.

The Winter And Summer Journeys

(It is a great grace from Allâh) for the protection of the Quraish, (and with all those Allâh's grace and protections, We cause) the (Quraish) caravans to set forth safe in winter (to the south) and in summer (to the north without any fear). So let them worship (Allâh) the Lord of this House (the Ka’bah in Makkah), (He) Who has fed them against hunger, and has made them safe from fear.

(Qur’ân Quraish 106: 1 - 4)

Every year, the leaders of the Quraish would make preparations for two journeys, one in the winter and one in the summer. In the winter, they would travel to Yemen and Al-Habashah. And in the summer, they would travel to Ash-Sham and Iraq. It was the four sons of ‘Abd Manâf who would lead the caravans. Hashim headed the caravan that would go to Ash-Sham and particularly to the area of Gaza; his journeys to Gaza became so famous that the town soon became known as Gaza of Hashim. Al-Muttalib headed the caravan that would go to Yemen. ‘Abd Shams headed the caravan that would go to Al-Habashah. And Naufal headed the caravan that would go to Iraq. These trading caravans of the Quraish would travel in complete safety; no one dared to harm them on their way, for they were the neighbors of the House of Allâh, the dwellers of His inviolable city.

Wadd, Suwâ’, Yaghûth, Ya’ûq, Nasr, Al-Lât, Al-‘Uzza, and Manât

And they have said: “You shall not leave your gods, nor shall you leave Wadd, nor Suwâ’, nor Yaghûth, nor Ya’ûq, nor Nasr (these are the names of their idols).” And indeed they have led many astray. And (O Allah): “Grant no increase to the Zâlimûn (polytheists, wrong doers, and disbelievers) except error.”

(Qur’ân 71: 23 - 24)

Have you then considered Al-Lât, and Al-‘Uzzâ (two idols of the pagan Arabs) And Manât (another idol of the pagan Arabs), the other third? Is it for you the males and for Him the females? That indeed is a division most unfair! They are but names which you have named — you and your fathers — for which Allah has sent down no authority. They follow but a guess and that which they themselves desire, whereas there has surely come to them the guidance from their Lord!

(Qur’ân 53: 19-23)

An-Nusub and Al-Ansâb were stones that surrounded the Ka’bah. Upon them animals would be slaughtered by other than Allah’s name. The first person to erect idols in Makkah was ’Amr bin Luhai Al-Azdi, who brought them from the lands of Ash-Sham (Syria and surrounding regions). These are the most important idols that people worshipped before the advent of Islam:

- Isâf and Nâ’ilah, which were located beside the door of the Ka’bah.
- Al-Uqaisar: the idol of Quda’ah, Lakhm, and ‘Āmilah; it was located in the highlands of Ash-Sham.
- Al-Jalsad: an idol in Hadramawt; the tribe of Kindah worshipped it.
- Dhul-Khalasah: it was located in Tubâlah, between Makkah and Yemen. The tribes of Kath’am, Bujaîlah, Azd As-Surât, and those Arabs who were near them from the sub-tribes of Hawâzîn, would glorify [and worship] Dhul-Khalasah.
- Dhush-Shara: an idol that belonged to Bani Al-Ḥârîth ibn Mubasshir Al-Azdi.
- Dhul-Kaffain: the idol of the Daus tribe.
- Suwa’: the idol of Hudhail in Madrakah, in the land of Yanbu’, near Al-Madinah Al-Munawwarah.
- Ad-Daizanân (two idols): these two idols belonged to Judhaimah Al-Abrash in Hirah. It is said that Al-Mundhir Al-Akbar placed them at the gate of Al-Hirah. As a test of their loyalty and obedience, people who entered the gate of the city were required to perform prostration before the idols.
- ‘Ā’im: the idol of Azd As-Surât.
- Al-‘Uzza: this idol was placed in Makkah, on the right side of a way that led to Iraq. Al-‘Uzza was the most venerated and important of Quraish’s idols.
- Al-Lât: the idol of At-Tâ’îf. In its place now stands the minaret of a Masjid in At-Tâ’îf.
- Manât: Of all the idols that belonged to Arabs, Manât is the oldest. It was placed on the shores of the sea, in the direction of Al-Mushallal at Qudaid, which is somewhere between Makkah and Al-Madinah.

- Nasr: it was located in Yemen. The Himyar tribe worshiped it in the land of Balkha’.
- Hubal: this idol was placed inside of the Ka’bah.
- Wadd: the tribe of Kalb worshiped it in Daumati-Jandal.
- Ya’uq: the tribe of Hamdaan worshiped it in the town of Khaiwân, near San’a.
- Yaghûth: Madhij, Jurash, and others worshiped this idol.

The Arabian Peninsula

The Persians, and the Romans

In the First Quarter of the Seventh Century.

The Nearest Land

Dead Sea - 392 A.D.
Adnal-Ard
(The Nearest Or Lowest Land)

Alif-Lām-Mīm. [These letters are one of the miracles of the Qur’ān, and none but Allāh (Alone) knows their meanings.]
The Romans have been defeated. In the nearest land (Syria, Iraq, Jordan, and Palestine), and they, after their defeat, will be victorious. Within three to nine years. The decision of the matter, before and after (these events) is only with Allāh, (before the defeat of the Romans by the Persians, and after the defeat of the Persians by the Romans). And on that day, the believers (i.e. Muslims) will rejoice (at the victory given by Allāh to the Romans against the Persians) — With the Help of Allāh. He helps whom He wills, and He is the All-Mighty, the Most Merciful.

(Qur’ān 30: 1-5)

Adnal-Ard refers to the low-lying lands of Palestine near the Dead Sea, lands that sink as low as 392 m below sea level. In the Arabic language, Adna means nearest and can also mean lowest. What the Qur’ān informs us of in the above Verses was realized by the victory of the Romans over the people of Faris in Palestine. That victory approximately coincided with the victory of the Muslims in the battle of Badr (the year 2 H. or 624 in the Christian calendar). The area referred to is in fact the most low-lying part of the earth, and it was the nearest of the Roman lands to Faris and the Arabian Peninsula.

The beginning of the Chapter is one of the miracles of the Noble Qur'ān. It mentions events that were to take place after the Chapter was revealed, events that did actually come to pass shortly afterwards. Hence those Verses are from the clear signs that attest to the truthfulness of the Prophet ﷺ and to the Qur'ān being from Allāh ﷻ.

The Fig And The Olive, Mount Sinai, And The City Of Security (Makkah)

(Qur'ân 95: 1-8)

Here, Allâh ﷺ swears by holy and honored places, places that He ﷺ chose for revelation to come down to His Prophets and Messengers. The first of those places is Ash-Sham (Syria and surrounding regions) in general, and Jerusalem in particular, for figs and olives grow in those lands. It is as if Allâh ﷺ is swearing by the message that was revealed to ‘Isâ ﷺ.

Mount Sinai is in the area of Sinai. It is as if Allâh ﷺ is swearing by the message that was revealed to Musa ﷺ on Mount Sinai; ‘Sinin’ in the above-mentioned verse literally means, ‘blessed.’ And ‘this city of security’ refers to Makkah Al-Mukarramah, which is where Prophet Muhammad ﷺ received Revelation.

Therefore, it is as if the Verses are oaths taken by the divine messages that were revealed to ‘Isâ ﷺ, Musa ﷺ, and Muhammad
This points to a spirit of brotherhood between the Prophets  for though the laws they came with differed, their religion was one and the same – the religion of Islam.

"Truly, the religion with Allâh is Islam." (Qur'ân 3: 19)
Mother of the Towns

Makkah, Bakkah, The Sacred House, the Ancient House, City of Security.
The Mother of Towns
(Makkah Al-Mukarramah)

In the Noble Qur’ān, different names are used to refer to Makkah, one of them being “The Mother of Towns”.

وَهَذَا كِتَابٌ مُّبَآرٍكٌ مَّسَّدِقُ الَّذِي بَيْنَ يَدِيهِ وَلَتَنَٰذِرُ أمَّ الْقُرْءَانِ وَمِنْ حَوْلَتِهِ وَاللَّهُ يَجَفَّفُونَ ۖ إِنَّهُ بِالْكَرَّةِ يَوْمَئِذَ يُبْكُونَ ۖ وَهُمُ عَلَىٰ سَلَّاتِهِمْ مُّحَافِظُونَ (٥٢)

And this (the Qur’ān) is a blessed Book which We have sent down, confirming (the Revelations) which came before it, so that you may warn the Mother of Towns (i.e., Makkah) and all those around it. Those who believe in the Hereafter believe in it (the Qur’ān), and they are constant in guarding their Salāt (prayers).

(Qur’ān 6: 92)

It is referred to by its name, Makkah, in the following verse:

وَهُوَ الَّذِي كَفَفَ لَيْدِيْهِمْ عَنْكَمْ وَلَدِيْكُمْ عَنْهُمْ بِبَيْنِ مِنْ بَعْدِ أَطْفَرَكُمْ عَلَيْهِمْ ۖ وَكَانَ اَلْلَّهُ يَعْمَلُ بِصَبْرٍ (٤٩)

And He it is Who has withheld their hands from you and your hands from them in the midst of Makkah, after He had made you victors over them. And Allāh is Ever All-Seer of what you do.

(Qur’ān 48: 24)

It is referred to by another name, Bakkah, in the following verse:

إِنَّ أَوَلَ بَيْتٍ وَضِعَ لِلنَّاسِ لِلَّذِي بَيْتُهُ مَبْارِكًا وَهُدَايَ لِلنَّاسِينَ (٥٨)

Verily, the first House (of worship) appointed for mankind was that at Bakkah (Makkah), full of blessing, and a guidance for Al-ʿĀlamīn (mankind and jinn).

(Qur’ān 3: 96)
In the following verse, it is called "The Sacred House," because of the presence of the Ka’bah in its precincts:

«بَلْ أَلْبَيْتُ اللَّهُ الَّذِيُّ مُحَارِمَةً لَا تُجَلَّوْا مُتَحَالِطِينَ وَلَا الشَّيْرَ الحَرَّمَ وَلَا الْمَسْجِدَ وَلَا الْكَلِمَ وَلَا الْقَلَيْدَ وَلَا مُؤَمِّنُونَ الْبَيْتَ الحَرَّمَ مُعَجَّزَنَّ فِيْضَ آ لِّبَيْنِهِمْ وَاحِدُهَا وَإِذَا سَلَّمُوا كَأَسْفَرَوْا وَلَا يَجُرُّونَ مُنْتَكِمًا ۚ ذَٰلِكَ لِثُمَّانَ قُوُّهَا أَنْ صَدَّصَحَ آ لِلْمَسْجِدِ الحَرَّمِ أَنْ تَعْمَدُوا وَتَعْمَدُوا عَلَى الْبَيْتِ وَالْقَلَيْدَ ۚ وَلَا تَعْمَدُوا عَلَى الْأَلْبَيْ وَالْمُعَجَّزَ ۖ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَيْدِ الْعَقَابِ ۙ (١)»

O you who believe! Violate not the sanctity of the Symbols of Allāh, nor of the Sacred Month, nor of the animals brought for sacrifice, nor the garlanded people or animals, nor the people coming to the Sacred House (Makkah), seeking the bounty and good pleasure of their Lord. But when you finish the Ḳaḥrām (of Ḥajj or ‘Umrāḥ), you may hunt, and let not the hatred of some people in (once) stopping you from Al-Masjid Al-Harām (at Makkah) lead you to transgression (and hostility on your part). Help you one another in Al-Birr and At-Taqwā (virtue, righteousness and piety); but do not help one another in sin and transgression. And fear Allāh. Verily, Allāh is Severe in punishment.

بَلْ أَلْبَيْتُ اللَّهُ الَّذِيُّ مُحَارِمَةً لَا تُجَلَّوْا مُتَحَالِطِينَ وَلَا الشَّيْرَ الحَرَّمَ وَلَا الْمَسْجِدَ وَلَا الْكَلِمَ وَلَا الْقَلَيْدَ وَلَا مُؤَمِّنُونَ الْبَيْتَ الحَرَّمَ مُعَجَّزَنَّ فِيْضَ آ لِّبَيْنِهِمْ وَاحِدُهَا وَإِذَا سَلَّمُوا كَأَسْفَرَوْا وَلَا يَجُرُّونَ مُنْتَكِمًا ۚ ذَٰلِكَ لِثُمَّانَ قُوُّهَا أَنْ صَدَّصَحَ آ لِلْمَسْجِدِ الحَرَّمِ أَنْ تَعْمَدُوا وَتَعْمَدُوا عَلَى الْبَيْتِ وَالْقَلَيْدَ ۚ وَلَا تَعْمَدُوا عَلَى الْأَلْبَيْ وَالْمُعَجَّزَ ۖ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَيْدِ الْعَقَابِ ۙ (١)

Allāh has made the Ka’bah, the Sacred House, an asylum of security and benefits (e.g., Ḥajj and ‘Umrāḥ) for mankind, and also (made sacred) the Sacred Month and the animals of offerings and the garlanded (people or animals, marked with the garlands on their necks made from the outer part of the stem of the Makkah trees for their security), that you may know that Allāh has knowledge of all that is in the heavens and all that is in the earth, and that Allāh is All-Knower of each and everything.

(Qur’ān 5: 97)
The Ka’bah is given the name, the Ancient House, in the following two Verses:

\text{"أَنْ أَهْيَ النَّامِلَةَ وَلَا يُقْضِيَ لَهُ شَأْنُهُ وَلَسَيْفُهُ وَلَسَيْفُهُ بِالنَّافِعِ الْعَظِيمِ" (22:16)}

Then let them complete their prescribed duties (Manāsik of Hajj) and perform their vows, and circumambulate the Ancient House (the Ka’bah at Makkah).

(Qur’ān 22: 29)

\text{"وَلْيَلْفَّظُواْ لَفْتَهُمْ وَلْيَحْفُظُواْ نُدُورُهُمْ وَلْيُظْفَرْنَ بِالنَّافِعِ الْعَظِيمِ" (33:83)}
\]

In them (cattle offered for sacrifice) are benefits for you for an appointed term, and afterwards they are brought for sacrifice to the Ancient House (the Haram – sacred territory of Makkah).

(Qur’ān 22: 33)

And finally, Makkah is called “The City of Security” in the following verse:

\text{"وَهَذَا الْمَدīنَةُ الْأَمِينَةُ (95:3)}

By this city of security (Makkah).

(Qur’ān 95: 3)

Makkah, of course, is the Qiblah (place Muslims turn towards when they pray) of the Muslims, and it is the city in which the Prophet ﷺ was born.
Makkah

Makkah, Bakkah, Mother of the Towns, The Sacred House, the Ancient House, City of Security. It is also called An-Nasasah, Umm Ruhm, Ma‘d, Al-Hatimah, Ar-Ras Salah, Al-Arsh, Al-Qadis, the Sacred, An-Nasah, Al Bassah, Kutha

Makkah Al-Mukarramah
(An Uncultivatable Valley)

And (remember) when Ibrāhīm (Abraham) said: "O my Lord! Make this city (Makkah) one of peace and security, and keep me and my sons away from worshipping idols. O my Lord! They have indeed led astray many among mankind. But whoso follows me, he verily, is of me. And whoso disobeys me, still You are indeed Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful. O our Lord! I have made some of my offspring to dwell in an uncultivable valley by Your Sacred House (the Ka`bah at Makkah) in order, O our Lord, that they may perform As-Salāt (the prayers). So fill some hearts among men with love towards them, and (O Allāh) provide them with fruits so that they may give thanks.

(Qur'ān 14: 35-37)

And it was on the outskirts of Makkah, in the cave of Hira, that these Verses were revealed:

أَقْرِئَ بِسْمِ رَبِّ الْأَلْهَاتِ ۚ هُدِّيَ اللَّهُ ۗ وَهُدِّيَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ عِلْمِهِۚ وَأَقِمْ الْحَجَّ وَالْبَقْرَةَ ۗ حَلِقْ أَحَدَّهُمْ مِنْ عِلْمِهِۚ وَأَقِمْ ۗ وَهُدِّيَ اللَّهُ ۗ وَهُدِّيَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ عِلْمِهِۚ رَبِّ عَلَّمَنِى مَا لَهُ ۗ وَلَمْ تُعْلِمَنِى أَلَى عِلْمٍ coagulated blood). Read! And your Lord is the Most Generous. Who has taught (the writing) by the pen. He has taught man that which he knew not.

(Qur'ān 96: 1-5)

These were the first Verses of the Qur'ān that were revealed, and it was only a matter of some years before Islam spread far in the east and west, as well as in the north and south.
The Location of the Two Towns Makkah and At-Taif

The Historical way between Makkah & Ta'if which was followed by the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ).
The Two Towns

And they say: "Why is not this Qur'ân sent down to some great man of the two towns (Makkah and Tâ'if)?"

(Qur'ân 43: 31)

The two towns being referred to in the above Verse are Makkah and Tâ'if. The polytheists said, "The Qur'ân should have been revealed to a great and important man in Makkah or in Tâ'if." The scholars of Tafsir clarified that they were referring to Al-Walîd ibn Al-Mughirah in Makkah, and to 'Urwah ibn Mas'ud Ath-Thaqafi in Tâ'if.

The Quraish regarded it as being unlikely that the Qur'ân was revealed to Muhammad  who had once been poor. They suggested that the Qur'ân should instead be revealed to one of their distinguished leaders, wrongly thinking that one becomes honorable through the possession of wealth and status. They failed to realize that the truly honorable one is he who is honorable in the Judgment of Allah  :

"بَلْ وَمَنْ أَعْلَمُ حِينَ تُقَدِّمُونَ رِسَالتَّكُرَا نَ سُبُحَنَّهُ مَنْ أُحُدِّثُوا صَفَافًا عَنْدَ الَّذِينَ أَحْزَمُوا وَعِدَّادًا مَثْبُوًّتًا مِّمَّا كَانُوا يَفْتَرُونَ (١٢٤)"

Allah knows best with whom to place His Message. Humiliation and disgrace from Allah and a severe torment will overtake the criminals (polytheists and sinners) for that which they used to plot.

(Qur'ân 6: 124)

They considered Al-Walîd ibn Al-Mughirah ibn 'Abdullah bin 'Amr bin Makhzum (who was born 95 years before Hijrah in 530 of the Christian calendar and he died in 622 during the first year of Hijrah) to be more worthy than the Prophet . They used to call him Al-'Idl, or 'the equivalent.' They called him that because, with his wealth and status, they considered him to be equivalent to all of the people of Quraish put together. If all of them spent money to prepare the cover of the Ka’bah, he, with no money other than his own, would cover it. The other man, ‘Urwah ibn Mas’ud ibn Mu’attib Ath-Thaqafi, was the leader of his people in Ta’if. He actually accepted Islam, and when he invited his people to do the same, they disobeyed him, and one of them ended up killing him with an arrow in the year 9 H (630 of the Christian calender).
Khalid ibn Hizam ibn Khuwailid Al-Asadi

"And whosoever leaves his home as an emigrant unto Allâh and His Messenger (ﷺ), and death overtakes him, his reward is then surely incumbent upon Allâh." (Qur'an 4:100)
And Whosoever Leaves his Home as an Emigrant unto Allâh
And His Messenger and then Death Overtakes him

(وَمَن مِّهاَجَّرٌ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ يَجِدُ فِي الأَرْضِ مَرْعَاةً كَبِيرَةً وَسَمَّىٰ وَمَن يَخْرُجُ مِنْ بَيْتِهِ مُهَاجِرًا إِلَىٰ اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ تَمَّ الْيَدَةُ الَّتِي فَقَدْ وَقَعَ أَجْرُهُ عَلَى اللَّهِ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَفَّوًا رَجِيمًا)

He who emigrates (from his home) in the Cause of Allâh, will find on earth many dwelling places and plenty to live by. And whosoever leaves his home as an emigrant to Allâh and His Messenger (ﷺ), and death overtakes him, his reward is then surely incumbent upon Allâh. And Allâh is Ever Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

(Qur’ân 4: 100)

Khâlid ibn Hizâm ibn Khuwailid ibn Asad ibn ‘Abdul-‘Uzza ibn Qusai ibn Kilâb Al-Qurashi Al-Asdi was the brother of Hakim ibn Hizâm and the cousin of Khadijah bint Khuwailid . Khâlid  was one of the earlier followers of the Prophet . He left Makkah in order to be among those who performed the second migration to Al-Habashah, but as a result of a poisonous snakebite, he died before he could enter the land of Al-Habashah. His death is what prompted the revelation of this verse:

“And whosoever leaves his home as an emigrant unto Allâh and His Messenger, and death overtakes him, his reward is then surely incumbent upon Allâh.” (Qur’ân 4: 100)

It has been said, however, that the Verse was revealed for Damrah ibn Jundub. Damrah left his home and instructed his family to take him away from the lands of the polytheists and to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. But he died on the way before he could reach the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ.

And according to a third opinion, the Verse was revealed for Junda’ ibn Damrah Al-Laithi, one of the weak and oppressed Muslims of Makkah. He was sick, and so when he heard that Allâh ﷺ gave the Muslims permission to migrate, he said to his family (or close friends), “Take me away from here.” Since he was sick, they had to prepare a bed of sorts that they could carry him in. They carried him out of Makkah but he died on the way, at Tan’im.

"Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): It has been revealed to me that a group (from three to ten in number) of jinn listened (to this Qur’ân). They said: ‘Verily, we have heard a wonderful Recitation (this Qur’ân). It guides to the Right Path, and we have believed therein, and we shall never join (in worship) anything with our Lord (Allâh).” (Qur’an 72:1,2)
The Jinn Of Nasibain
(From the Jinn of the Island)

Qur’an 72: 1

And (remember) when We sent towards you (Muhammad ﷺ) a group (three to ten persons) of the jinn, (quietly) listening to the Qur’an. When they stood in the presence thereof, they said: “Listen in silence!” And when it was finished, they returned to their people, as warners. They said: “O our people! Verily, we have heard a Book (this Qur’an) sent down after Mūsā (Moses), confirming what came before it, it guides to the truth and to a Straight Path (i.e. Islam). O our people! Respond (with obedience) to Allāh’s Caller (i.e. Allāh’s Messenger Muham- mad ﷺ), and believe in him (i.e. believe in that which Muhammad ﷺ has brought from Allāh and follow him). He (Allâh) will forgive you of your sins, and will save you from a painful torment (i.e. Hell-fire). And whosoever does not respond to Allâh’s Caller, he cannot escape on earth, and there will be no Auliya’ (lords, helpers, supporters, protectors) for him besides Allâh (from Allâh’s punishment). Those are in manifest error.”

(Qur’ân 46: 29-32)

The mention of these jinns involves a severe reprimand to the Quraish in particular, and to the Arabs in general. While the Arabs were slow to accept Islam and have faith, the jinns mentioned above raced to accept Iman, which made them better than the disbelieving Arabs. From the moment they heard the Qur’ân, those jinns revered it and believed in it. And they returned to their fellow jinns as warners and callers to Islam. In stark contrast to the jinns were the disbelieving Arabs, who disbelieved even though the Qur’ân was revealed in their language, even though they knew that the speech of the Qur’ân was a miracle, and even though they knew that Muhammad ﷺ was illiterate: he could neither read nor write which was another proof that the Qur’ân had to have come from Allâh . Ibn Mas’ud ۺ was there on the night in which the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ met with the jinns. The jinns that met with the Prophet ﷺ were actually from the Arabian Peninsula, and in Ad-Durr Al-Manthur it is mentioned that some say they were seven in number and were from the dwellers of Nasibain.

The Neighborhood Whereof We Have Blessed
The Farthest Mosque (In Jerusalem)

And We made the people who were considered weak to inherit the eastern parts of the land and the western parts thereof which We have blessed. And the fair Word of your Lord was fulfilled for the Children of Israel, because of their endurance. And We destroyed completely all the great works and buildings which Fir‘aun (Pharaoh) and his people erected.

(Qur’ān 7: 137)

Glorified (and Exalted) is He (Allāh) [above all that (evil) they associate with Him] (Tafsir Qurtubi) Who took His slave (Muhammad ﷺ) for a journey by night from Al-Masjid Al-Harām (at Makkah) to Al-Masjid Al-Aqṣā (in Jerusalem), the neighbourhood whereof We have blessed, in order that We might show him (Muhammad ﷺ) of Our Ayāt (proofs, evidences, lessons, signs, etc.). Verily, He is the All-Hearer, the All-Seer.

(Qur’ān 17: 1)
Al-Masjid Al-Aqsa
We (Allâh) said: “O fire! Be you coolness and safety for Ibrâhîm (Abraham)!” And they wanted to harm him, but We made them the worst losers. And We rescued him and Lût (Lot) to the land which We have blessed for the ‘Âlamîn (mankind and jinn)."

(Qur’ân 21: 69-71)

And to Sulâma’n (Solomon) (We subjected) the wind strongly raging, running by his command towards the land which We had blessed. And of everything We are All-Knower.

(Qur’ân 21: 81)

Allâh favored Jerusalem and neighboring lands with many blessings, both of the physical and spiritual kind. In regards to “The neighborhood whereof We have blessed,” ‘neighborhood’ refers to the lands of Ash-Sham (Syria and surrounding regions). These lands were the dwelling places of the Prophets and the landing places of the pure angels.

To be sure, the Prophet could have ascended to the heavens directly from Makkah on the night of Al-Isrâ’ and Mi’râj, but the Prophet’s ascension to the heavens was a heavenly event that could not be confirmed for the Quraish by any kind of material proof. What I mean is, who from the Quraish, for example, had already seen Sidratul-Muntaha and could test the Prophet by asking him to describe it for him? Of course, the answer is no one. But the earthbound journey of the Prophet from Makkah to Jerusalem could be confirmed and seen as the miracle that it was. For when the Prophet returned to Makkah, he gave a precise and detailed description of Jerusalem to those disbelieving members of the Quraish who had already visited it; and of course, the Prophet had never visited it prior to the previous evening. Then the Quraish inquired about a caravan that was returning to them. Since the Prophet ﷺ had seen it on the way back to Makkah, he told them precisely the situation of the caravan and the number of camels that were in it. He even told them when it was going to arrive. And he accurately described one of the camels in the caravan. When the caravan eventually arrived, people realized that everything that the Prophet ﷺ had said turned out to be true.

Hijrah (Migration)

"And (remember) when the disbelievers plotted against you (O Muhammad ﷺ) to imprison you, or to kill you, or to get you out (from your home, i.e., Makkah); they were plotting and Allâh too was plotting; and Allâh is the Best of those who plot." (Qur'án 8:30)

"If you help him (Muhammad ﷺ) not (it does not matter), for Allâh did indeed help him when the disbelievers drove him out, the second of the two; when they (Muhammad ﷺ and Abu Bakr ﷺ) were in the cave, he (ﷺ) said to his companion (Abu Bakr ﷺ): 'Be not sad (or afraid), surely, Allâh is with us.' Then Allâh sent down His Sakeenah (calmness, tranquillity, peace) upon him, and strengthened him with forces (angels) which you saw not." (Qur'án 8:40)

وإذ يمكر بِكَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِيُسْتَمِعُوا أَوْ يُصَلِّبُوا أَوْ يُعَمِّرُوا وَيَمْكُرُونَ وَيَمْكُرُ اللَّهُ وَأَلْلَهُ خَيْرُ الْمَكْرِينَ

And (remember) when the disbelievers plotted against you (O Muhammad ﷺ) to imprison you, or to kill you, or to get you out (from your home, i.e., Makkah); they were plotting and Allâh too was plotting; and Allâh is the Best of those who plot.

(Qur’ân 8: 30)

إِلَّا نَصْرُهُ فَمَّا نَصَرُّهُ اللَّهُ إِذْ أَخْرَجَهُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا كَفَرُوا كَافِرُينَ إِذْ هُمَا فِي الْعُفُوٍ إِذْ يَسْتَمِعُونَ لِصَلِيبٍ لَا يُصَلِّبُونَ إِذْ أَخْرَجَهُ اللَّهُ مَعْنَا فَأَسْرَرَ اللَّهُ سَيِّئَتَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَأَيْتَدُّمُ يُجْنِبُونَ لَمْ تَرَوْهَا وَجَعْلَ سَيِّئَتَهُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا السَّفَلَ وَسَيِّئَتَهُ اللَّهُ مَهِيَّةً أَلْفَى وَاللَّهُ عَزِيزٌ حَكِيمٌ

If you help him (Muhammad ﷺ) not (it does not matter), for Allâh did indeed help him when the disbelievers drove him out, the second of the two; when they (Muhammad ﷺ and Abu Bakr ﷺ) were in the cave, he (ﷺ) said to his companion (Abu Bakr ﷺ): “Be not sad (or afraid), surely, Allâh is with us.” Then Allâh sent down His Sakînah (calmness, tranquillity, peace) upon him, and strengthened him with forces (angels) which you saw not, and made the word of those who disbelieved the lowermost, while the Word of Allâh that became the uppermost; and Allâh is All-Mighty, All-Wise.

(Qur’ân 9: 40)

After the Bai’atul-‘Aqabah Al-Ula and Bai’atul ‘Aqabah Ath-Thâniyah in which the inhabitants of Al-Madinah pledged to obey and defend the Prophet ﷺ the Quraish began to feel that they were losing control of the situation. Its leaders then gathered in Dār An-Nadwah to try to find a solution to their problems. During their meeting, many solutions were proposed: one was to imprison the Prophet until he died and another was to banish him from Makkah, by tying him to a camel and then steering that camel into the desert. The proposed solution that they agreed upon was much more sinister than the rest; they decided that a strong, young man from each sub-tribe should be chosen and that they should all strike the Prophet with a single blow. The benefit of doing this was to spread the culpability of the heinous crime to all of the sub-tribes, so that no single sub-tribe had to fear retribution.

But their plan was of course thwarted. Taking many precautions that are outlined in the books of Seerah, the Prophet left Makkah with Abu Bakr. They hired a guide so as to avoid taking the normal roads, a step that was necessary since the Quraish offered a huge reward to anyone who brought the Prophet back, dead or alive.

Here are some of the more important outcomes of the Hijrah (migration):

1) Having gathered together in one land, the Muslims were able to defend Islam and openly proclaim its teachings.

2) The Muslims had an actual country that was based on solid foundations, and that enabled them to take the necessary steps to keep that country stable and strong.

3) The Muslims were able to invite people to Islam not only in Makkah or Al-Madinah, but also in most of the inhabited world.

4) In Makkah, when the Muslims were weak, there were no hypocrites. But when the Muslims established themselves in Al-Madinah, it was in the interest of some of Islam’s enemies to feign to be Muslims, in order to attack Islam from within. Hence the appearance of the hypocrites, who were led by ‘Abdullah ibn Ubai ibn Salūl.

5) Before the Prophet’s migration to Al-Madinah, the trading caravans of the Quraish traveled in safety during their summer and winter journeys. But after the Muslims established themselves in Al-Madinah, and because the Quraish had seized all of the wealth of the Muslims in Makkah, the trading caravans of the Quraish were threatened by the presence of Muslims in Al-Madinah, since those caravans had to pass Al-Madinah on their way to Ash-Sham (Syria and surrounding regions).

Quba Mosque

Never stand you therein. Verily, the mosque whose unction was laid from the first day on piety is more worthy that you stand therein (to pray). In it are men who love to clean and to purify themselves. And Allâh loves those who make themselves clean and pure i.e., who clean their private parts with dust (which has the cleansing properties of soap) and water from irine and stools, after answering the call of nature]." (Qur'an 9:108)
Masjid Quba’
(The Masjid Whose Foundation Was Laid On Piety)

(Qur’an 9: 108)

Quba’, which is adjacent to Al-Madinah Al-Munawwarah, is best known for Masjid Quba’, ‘the Masjid whose foundation was laid from the first day on piety’ and the first Masjid to be built since the advent of Islam. When the Prophet migrated to Al-Madinah, he first stopped at Quba’, arriving there on a Monday and staying there for four days. On the Friday of that week, the Prophet went to Al-Madinah Al-Munawwarah.

Then in the year 9 H, just before the Battle of Tabûk, a group of 12 hypocrites built Masjid Dirar (mosque of hypocrites), the purpose of which was to promote harm and disbelief, and to disunite the believers. They asked the Prophet to pray in their Masjid, and he answered, “Indeed, I am upon a journey (for the Battle of Tabûk) and am much occupied; had we approached [there], we would have come to you and prayed in it.” But after he went to Tabûk, the following Verses were revealed:
And as for those who put up a mosque by way of harm and disbelief and to disunite the believers and as an outpost for those who warred against Allah and His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) aforetime, they will indeed swear that their intention is nothing but good. Allah bears witness that they are certainly liars. Never stand you therein. Verily, the mosque whose foundation was laid from the first day on piety is more worthy that you stand therein (to pray). In it are men who love to clean and to purify themselves. And Allah loves those who make themselves clean and pure [i.e. who clean their private parts with dust (which has the cleansing properties of soap) and water from urine and stools, after answering the call of nature]. Is it then he who laid the foundation of his building on piety to Allah and His Good Pleasure better, or he who laid the foundation of his building on the brink of an undetermined precipice ready to crumble down, so that it crumbled to pieces with him into the fire of Hell. And Allah guides not the people who are the Zalimûn (cruel, violent, proud, polytheist and wrong doer). The building which they built will never cease to be a cause of hypocrisy and doubt in their hearts unless their hearts are cut to pieces (i.e. till they die). And Allah is All-Knowing, All-Wise. (Qur’an 9: 107-110)
Expedition of Abdullah bin Jahsh

Rajab 2 A.H.

"They ask you concerning fighting in the Sacred Months (i.e., 1st, 7th, 11th and 12th months of the Islamic calendar). Say, 'Fighting therein is a great (transgression) but a greater (transgression) with Allah is to prevent mankind from following the way of Allah, to disbelieve in Him, to prevent access to Al-Masjid Al-Haram (at Makkah), and to drive out its inhabitants...''

(Qur'an 2:217)
They ask you concerning fighting in the Sacred Months (i.e. 1st, 7th, 11th and 12th months of the Islamic calendar). Say, “Fighting therein is a great (transgression) but a greater (transgression) with Allâh is to prevent mankind from following the way of Allâh, to disbelieve in Him, to prevent access to Al-Masjid Al-Harâm (at Makkah), and to drive out its inhabitants, and Al-Fitnah is worse than killing.” And they will never cease fighting you until they turn you back from your religion (Islamic Monotheism) if they can. And whosoever of you turns back from his religion and dies as a disbeliever, then his deeds will be lost in this life and in the Hereafter, and they will be the dwellers of the Fire. They will abide therein forever. (Qur’ân 2: 217)

In Jumâda Al-Âkhirah, of the year 2 H, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ sent a unit headed by ‘Abdullah ibn Jahsh Angel to lie in wait for a small trading caravan that belonged to the Quraish. The Quraish had seized all of the wealth that the Muslims left behind in Makkah, and the Muslims were going to now try and cripple their trade routes. The members of that caravan were ‘Amr bin Al-Hadrami and three others. The Muslim unit intercepted the caravan, and in the ensuing struggle, ‘Amr was killed and two others were taken prisoner. ‘Abdullah ibn Jahlsh and his companions then returned with the caravan, which consisted of many goods. The struggle that happened earlier took place on the first day of Rajab, one of the sacred months; the Muslims in the unit had mistakenly thought that it was one of the last days of Jumâda Al-Ākhirih. When the unit returned, the Prophet ﷺ said, “By Allâh, I had not ordered you to fight in (one of) the Sacred Month(s).” And the leaders of the Quraish said, “Muhammad has made lawful the Sacred Month, the month in which the fearful one feels safe, (the month in which) people go out to earn their living.” Then Allâh ﷻ revealed these Verses:

They ask you concerning fighting in the Sacred Months (i.e., 1st, 7th, 11th and 12th months of the Islamic calendar). Say, “Fighting therein is a great (transgression) but a greater (transgression) with Allâh is to prevent mankind from following the way of Allâh, to disbelieve in Him, to prevent access to Al-Masjid Al-Harâm (at Makkah), and to drive out its inhabitants, and Al-Fitnah is worse than killing.” And they will never cease fighting you until they turn you back from your religion (Islamic Monotheism) if they can. And whosoever of you turns back from his religion and dies as a disbeliever, then his deeds will be lost in this life and in the Hereafter, and they will be the dwellers of the Fire. They will abide therein forever. Verily, those who have believed, and those who have emigrated (for Allâh’s religion) and have striven hard in the way of Allāh, all these hope for Allāh’s Mercy. And Allāh is Oft-Forgiving, Most-Merciful.

The Greater Battle of Badr

17 Ramadan 2 A.H.
13 March 624 A.D.

"Verily, Allâh loves those who fight in His Cause in rows (ranks) as if they were a solid structure." (Qur'an 61:4)

"And Allâh has already made you victorious at Badr, when you were a weak little force. So fear Allâh much that you may be grateful."
(Qur'an 3:123)
The Greater Battle Of Badr

And Allāh has already made you victorious at Badr, when you were a weak little force. So fear Allāh much that you may be grateful. (Remember) when you (Muhammad ﷺ) said to the believers, “Is it not enough for you that your Lord (Allāh) should help you with three thousand angels sent down? Yes, if you hold on to patience and piety, and the enemy comes rushing at you; your Lord will help you with five thousand angels having marks (of distinction).” Allāh made it not but as a message of good news for you and as an assurance to your hearts. And there is no victory except from Allāh, the All-Mighty, the All-Wise.

(Qur’ān 3: 123-126)

After the Quraish seized the wealth that the Muslims left behind when they migrated to Al-Madinah, the Muslims began to think about cutting off their trade routes. The Muslims then left Al-Madinah to intercept a caravan that was headed by Abu Sufyān, in what was to be a legitimate economic embargo. Meanwhile, the Quraish had left Makkah to intercept the Muslims, and this resulted in the Greater Battle of Badr, which took place on the 17th of Ramadan, in the year 2 H. Allāh ﷺ said:

And Allāh has already made you victorious at Badr, when you were a weak little force. So fear Allāh much (abstain from all kinds of sins and evil deeds which He has forbidden and love

(And the expeditions of the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ)

And Allāh has already made you victorious at Badr, when you were a weak little force. So fear Allāh much that you may be grateful.” (Qur’an 3:123)
Allâh much, perform all kinds of good dids which He has ordained) that you may be grateful.’” (Qur'ân 3: 123)

In this Verse, Allâh ﷺ describes the Muslim army as being ‘a weak little force,’ weak of course in terms of military preparations and capability.

There were a number of important outcomes of the Muslims’ victory at Badr. One example is that the Muslims gained respect as a military force to contend with, for news of their victory spread throughout the Arabian Peninsula. Another outcome was that the Quraish paid a dear price for the battle, both in terms of lives and in terms of morale for the battle was a serious shock and blow to their conceited arrogance. Another outcome of the battle was that the Jewish tribes in Madinah began to openly express their jealousy and hatred of the Muslims, which led to the expulsion of the Jewish Banu Qainuqa’ tribe. As Allâh has said:

"Hatred has already appeared from their mouths, but what their breasts conceal is far worse.” (Qur’ân 3: 118)

Banu Qainuqa’ openly proclaimed their enmity, but what’s more, they broke the pact that they made with the Muslims.

The Messenger of Allāh never initiated war, since he strived hard to avoid the spilling of blood; he was, after all, the Prophet of Mercy. Even when he went out to fight, it was because the other party had showed enmity, had broken an agreement with the Muslims, or was preparing for an attack. So when a battle was inevitable, the Prophet was at the forefront, determined and strong. He was excellent both in his mercy towards people and in his preparations and planning for war.

Of the many caravans that passed Al-Madinah or near to it, the Prophet would only intercept those caravans that belonged to the Quraish, for it was the leaders of the Quraish who started the economic war with the embargo in the Valley of Abu Talib; and it was they who seized the wealth of the Muslims that migrated to Al-Madinah.
Banu Qainuqa‘

2 A.H.

(Qur’an 3:12)
Banu Qainuqa‘

Say (O Muhammad ﷺ) to those who disbelieve: “You will be defeated and gathered together to Hell, and worst indeed is that place of rest.”

(Qur‘ān 3: 12)

O you who believe! Take not as (your) Bitānah (advisors, consultants, protectors, helpers, friends) those outside your religion (pagans, Jews, Christians, and hypocrites) since they will not fail to do their best to corrupt you. They desire to harm you severely. Hatred has already appeared from their mouths, but what their breasts conceal is far worse. Indid We have made plain to you the Ayāt (proofs, Verses, evidences) if you understand.

(Qur‘ān 3: 118)

When the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ arrived in Al-Madinah, he made a peace pact with the Jewish tribes of Al-Madinah. There were two important conditions in that pact:

1) The Jews would not help anyone that attacked the Muslims.

2) If any enemy launched a surprise attack on Al-Madinah, the Jews would help the Muslims.

But after many polytheists from the Quraish were killed in the Battle of Badr, the Jewish tribes of Al-Madinah openly proclaimed their hatred of the Muslims. They boasted that, “Muhammad has not faced anyone that knows how to fight. If we were to meet him in battle, he would face fighting which (in its intensity and fierceness) no one else can come near to’”

After openly proclaiming their hatred, they began to ridicule the Muslims. Things went too far one day when a Muslim woman went to the marketplace of Banu Qainuqa’, intending to sell some jewelry that she had with her. She sat down beside a jeweler from the Jewish Banu Qainuqa’ tribe. That jeweler went behind her and tied the edge of her garment to her back, so that when she later stood, her private areas became exposed. While the jeweler and those with him began to laugh, she let out a scream. A Muslim man who was nearby jumped on the jeweler and killed him; then a group of Jews ganged up on the Muslim and killed him.

It was in this manner that Banu Qainuqa’ became the first of Madinah’s Jewish tribes to break the pact that they all made with the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. After news of what happened in the marketplace of Banu Qainuqa’ reached the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, he set out with his Companions ﷺ and together they surrounded the tribe’s fortresses, waiting for them to come out. The siege lasted for 15 nights, after which Banu Qainuqa’ surrendered. Through the intercession of ‘Abdullah ibn Ubai’ ibn Salûl, they were not physically punished, but were instead expelled from Al-Madinah Al-Munawwarah.

The Battle of Uhud

15 Shawwal 3 A.H.

"And Allāh did indeed fulfil His Promise to you when you were killing them (your enemy) with His Permission; until (the moment) you lost your courage and fell to disputing about the order, and disobeyed after He showed you (of the booty) which you love." (Qur'an 3:152)
The Battle Of Uhud

(15th of Shawwl, 3 H)

And Allāh did indeed fulfil His Promise to you when you were killing them (your enemy) with His Permission; until (the moment) you lost your courage and fell to disputing about the order, and disobeyed after He showed you (of the booty) which you love. Among you are some that desire this world and some that desire the Hereafter. Then He made you flee from them (your enemy), that He might test you. But surely, He forgave you, and Allāh is Most Gracious to the believers.

(Qur’ān 3: 152)

From the profits they made in their trade with peoples of other lands, the Quraish saved up to finance a war against the Muslims in Al-Madinah, a war of revenge for their humiliating defeat in the Battle of Badr (2 H). As the army of the Quraish approached for battle, the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prepared a practically foolproof plan. He placed 50 archers on the ‘Ainain Mountain (or the Mountain of the Archers), under the leadership of ‘Abdullah ibn Jubair ﷺ. The mission of the archers was to kip Quraish’s horsemen at bay.

But it is often a single moment or false move that dictates the course of a battle. The Quraish was actually losing the battle in its earlier stages. But then most of the archers disobeyed the Prophet’s command. He ﷺ had said to them, “Do not leave (your places) even if you see us being killed, do not help us or defend us. For indeed, we will remain victorious as long as you stay or remain firm in your places.” When the archers came down to share in the spoils, horsemen from the Quraish were able to come from behind, and the Muslims now had to fight on two fronts. The Quraish now achieved momentum and were able to achieve victory in the battle, yet they were not able to do a number of things: they couldn’t completely destroy the Muslims that day; they couldn’t put a stop to the Prophet’s Da’wah, and so Islam continued to spread; and they couldn’t open a way for their trade caravans that traveled to Ash-Sham.

At the end of the Sūrat Āl ‘Imrān are many Verses that describe the events that took place on the Day of Uhud:

to you. Surely, Allāh surrounds all that they do. And (remember) when you (Muhammad ﷺ) left your household in the morning to post the believers at their stations for the battle (of Uhud). And Allāh is All-Hearer, All-Knower. When two parties from among you were about to lose heart, but Allāh was their Wali (Supporter and Protector). And in Allāh should the believers put their trust. And Allāh has already made you victorious at Badr, when you were a weak little force. So fear Allāh much that you may be grateful. (Remember) when you (Muhammad ﷺ) said to the believers, “Is it not enough for you that your Lord (Allāh) should help you with three thousand angels sent down? Yes, if you hold on to patience and piety, and the enemy comes rushing at you; your Lord will help you with five thousand angels having marks (of distinction).” Allāh made it not but as a message of good news for you and as an assurance to your hearts. And there is no victory except from Allāh, the All-Mighty, the All-Wise. That He might cut off a part of those who disbelieve, or expose them to infamy, so that they retire frustrated. Not for you (O Muhammad ﷺ, but for Allāh) is the decision; whether He turns in mercy to (pardons) them or punishes them; verily, they are the Zālimūn (polytheists, wrong doers and the disobedient). And to Allāh belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is in the earth. He forgives whom He wills, and punishes whom He wills. And Allāh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful. O you who believe! Eat not Ribā doubled and multiplied, but fear Allāh that you may be successful. And fear the Fire, which is prepared for the disbelievers. And obey Allāh and the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) that you may obtain mercy. And march forth in the way (which leads) to forgiveness from your Lord, and for Paradise as wide as the heavens and the earth, prepared for Al-Muttaqūn (the pious). Those who spend (in Allāh’s Cause) in prosperity and in adversity, who repress anger, and who pardon men; verily, Allāh loves Al-Muhsīnūn (the good-doers). And those who, when they have committed Fāihishāh (great sins as illegal sexual intercourse) or wronged themselves with evil, remember Allāh and ask forgiveness for their sins; — and none can forgive sins but Allâh — and do not persist in what (wrong) they have done, while they know. For such, the reward is forgiveness from their Lord, and Gardens with rivers flowing underneath (Paradise), wherein they shall abide forever. How excellent is this reward for the doers (who do righteous dids according to Allâh’s Orders). Many similar ways (and mishaps of life) were faced by nations (believers and disbelievers) that have passed away before you (as you have faced in the battle of Uhud), so travel through the earth, and see what was the end of those who disbelieved (in the Oneness of Allâh, and disobeyed Him and His Messengers). This (the Qur’ân) is a plain statement for mankind, a guidance and instruction to those who are Al-Muttaqiin (the pious). So, do not become weak (against your enemy), nor be sad, and you will be superior (in victory) if you are indeed (true) believers. If a wound (or killing) has touched you, be assured a similar wound (or killing) has touched the others (disbelievers). And so are the days (good and not so good), that We give to men by turns, that Allâh may test those who believe, and that He may take martyrs from among you. And Allâh likes not the Zâlimûn (polytheists and wrong doers). And that Allâh may test (or purify) the believers (from sins) and destroy the disbelievers. Or do you think that you will enter Paradise before Allâh tests those of you who fought (in His Cause) and (also) tests those who are As-Sâbirûn (the patient)? And indeed you used to long for death (Ash-Shahâdah — martyrdom) before you met it. Now you have seen it openly with your own eyes. And Muhammad (ﷺ) is no more than a Messenger, and indeed (many) Messengers have passed away before him. If he dies or is killed, will you then turn back on your heels (as disbelievers)? And he who turns back on his heels, not the least harm will he do to Allâh; and Allâh will give reward to those who are grateful. And no person can ever die except by Allâh’s Leave and at an appointed term. And whoever desires a reward in (this) world, We shall give him of it; and whoever desires a reward in the Hereafter, We shall give him thereof. And We shall reward the grateful. And many a Prophet (i.e. many from amongst the Prophets) fought (in Allah’s Cause) and along with whom (fought) large bands of religious learned men. But they never lost heart for that which did befall them in Allah’s way, nor did they weaken nor degrade themselves. And Allah loves As-Sâbirûn (the patient). And they said nothing but: “Our Lord! Forgive us our sins and our transgressions (in keeping our duties to You), establish our feet firmly, and give us victory over the disbelieving folk.” So Allah gave them the reward of this world, and the excellent reward of the Hereafter. And Allah loves Al-Muhsinûn (the good-doers). O you who believe! If you obey those who disbelieve, they will send you back on your heels, and you will turn back (from Faith) as losers. Nay, Allah is your Maulâ (Patron, Lord, Helper, Protector), and He is the Best of helpers. We shall cast terror into the hearts of those who disbelieve, because they joined others in worship with Allah, for which He had sent no authority; their abode will be the Fire and how evil is the abode of the Zâlimûn (polytheists and wrong doers). And Allah did indeed fulfil His Promise to you when you were killing them (your enemy) with His Permission; until (the moment) you lost your courage and fell to disputing about the order, and disobeyed after He showed you (of the booty) which you love. Among you are some that desire this world and some that desire the Hereafter. Then He made you flee from them (your enemy), that He might test you. But surely, He forgave you, and Allah is Most Gracious to the believers. (And remember) when you ran away (dreadfully) without even casting a side glance at anyone, and the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) was in the rear calling you back. There did Allah give you one distress after another by way of requital to teach you not to grieve for that which had escaped you, nor for that which had befallen you. And Allah is Well-Aware of all that you do. Then after the distress, He sent down security upon you. Slumber overtook a party of you, while another party was thinking about themselves (as how to save their own selves, ignoring the others and the Prophet ﷺ) and thought wrongly of Allah — the thought of ignorance. They said, “Have we any part in the affair?” Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): “Indeed the affair belongs wholly to Allāh.” They hide within themselves what they dare not reveal to you, saying: “If we had anything to do with the affair, none of us would have been killed here.” Say: “Even if you had remained in your homes, those for whom death was decreed would certainly have gone forth to the place of their death,” but that Allāh might test what is in your breasts; and to purify that which was in your hearts (sins), and Allāh is All-Knower of what is in (your) breasts. Those of you who turned back on the day the two hosts met (i.e. the battle of Uhud), it was Shaitān (Satan) who caused them to backslide (run away from the battlefield) because of some (sins) they had earned. But Allāh, indeed, has forgiven them. Surely, Allāh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Forbearing. O you who believe! Be not like those who disbelieve (hypocrites) and who say about their brethren when they travel through the earth or go out to fight: “If they had stayed with us, they would not have died or been killed,” so that Allāh may make it a cause of regret in their hearts. It is Allāh that gives life and causes death. And Allāh is All-Seer of what you do. And if you are killed or die in the way of Allāh, forgiveness and mercy from Allāh are far better than all that they amass (of worldly wealths). And whether you die or are killed, verily, to Allāh you shall be gathered. And by the Mercy of Allāh, you (Muhammad ﷺ) dealt with them gently. And had you been severe and harsh-hearted, they would have broken away from about you; so pass over (their faults), and ask (Allāh’s) forgiveness for them; and consult them in the affairs. Then when you have taken a decision, put your trust in Allāh, certainly, Allāh loves those who put their trust (in Him). If Allāh helps you, none can overcome you; and if He forsakes you, who is there after Him that can help you? And in Allāh (Alone) let believers put their trust. It is not for any Prophet to take illegally a part of the booty (Ghulul), and whosoever deceives his companions as regards the booty, he shall bring forth on the Day of Resurrection that which he took (illegally). Then every person shall be paid in full what he has earned, and they shall not be dealt with unjustly. Is then one who follows (seeks) the good Pleasure of Allāh (by not taking illegally a part of the booty) like the one who draws on himself the Wrath of Allāh (by taking a part of the booty illegally — Ghulul)? — his abode is Hell, and worst indeed is that destination! They are in varying grades with Allāh, and Allāh is All-Seer of what they do. Indeed, Allāh conferred a great favor on the believers when He sent among them a Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) from among themselves, reciting to them His Verses (the Qur’ān), and purifying them (from sins by their following him), and instructing them (in) the Book (the Qur’ān) and Al-Hikmah [the wisdom and the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ (i.e. his legal ways, statements and acts of worship)], while before that they had been in manifest error. (What is the matter with you?) When a single disaster smites you, although you smote (your enemies) with one twice as great, you say: “From where does this come to us?” Say (to them), “It is from yourselves (because of your evil deeds).” And Allāh has power over all things. And what you suffered (of the disaster) on the day (of the battle of Uhud when) the two armies met, was by the Leave of Allāh, in order that He might test the believers. And that He might test the hypocrites, it was said to them: “Come, fight in the way of Allāh or (at least) defend yourselves.” They said: “Had we known that fighting will take place, we would certainly have followed you.” They were that day, nearer to disbelief than to Faith, saying with their mouths what was not in their hearts. And Allāh has full knowledge of what they conceal. (They are) the ones who said about their killed brethren while they themselves sat (at home): “If only they had listened to us, they would not have been killed.” Say: “Avert death from your own selves, if you speak the truth.” Think not of those as dead who are killed in the way of Allāh. Nay, they are alive, with their Lord, and they have provision. They rejoice in what Allāh has bestowed upon them of His bounty and rejoice for the sake of those who have not yet joined them, but are left behind (not yet martyred) that on them no fear shall come, nor shall they grieve. They rejoice in a grace and a bounty from Allāh, and that Allāh will not waste the reward of the believers. Those who answered (the Call of) Allāh and the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) after being wounded; for those of them who did good deeds and feared Allāh, there is a great reward. Those (i.e. believers) to whom the people (hypocrites) said, “Verily, the people (pagans) have gathered against you (a great army), therefore, fear them.” But it (only) increased them in Faith, and they said: “Allāh (Alone) is Sufficient for us, and He is the Best Disposer of affairs (for us).” So, they returned with grace and bounty from Allāh. No harm touched them; and they followed the good Pleasure of Allāh. And Allāh is the Owner of Great Bounty. It is only Shaitān (Satan) that suggests to you the fear of his Auliya’ [supporters and friends (polytheists, disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger, Muhammad ﷺ)]; so fear them not, but fear Me, if you are (true) believers. And let not those grieve you (O Muhammad ﷺ) who rush with haste to disbelieve; verily, not the least harm will they do to Allāh. It is Allāh’s Will to give them no portion in the Hereafter. For them there is a great torment. Verily, those who purchase disbelief at the price of Faith, not the least harm will they do to Allāh. For them, there is a painful torment. And let not the disbelievers think that Our postponing of their punishment is good for them. We postpone the punishment only so that they may increase in sinfulness. And for them is a disgraceful torment. Allāh will not leave the believers in the state in which you are now, until He distinguishes the wicked from the good. Nor will Allāh disclose to you the secrets of the Ghaib (Unseen), but Allāh chooses of His Messengers whom He wills. So believe in Allāh and His Messengers. And if you believe and fear Allāh, then for you there is a great reward. And let not those who covetously withhold of that which Allāh has bestowed on them of His bounty (wealth) think that it is good for them (and so they do not pay the obligatory Zakāt). Nay, it will be worse for them; the things which they covetously withheld, shall be tied to their necks like a collar on the Day of Resurrection. And to Allāh belongs the heritage of the heavens and the earth; and Allāh is Well-Acquainted with all that you do. Indeed, Allāh has heard the statement of those (Jews) who say: "Truly, Allāh is poor and we are rich!" We shall record what they have said and their killing of the Prophets unjustly, and We shall say: "Taste you the torment of the burning (Fire)." This is because of that (evil) which your hands have sent before you. And certainly, Allāh is never unjust to (His) slaves. Those (Jews) who said: "Verily, Allāh has taken our promise not to believe in any Messenger unless he brings us an offering which the fire (from heaven) shall devour." Say: "Verily, there came to you Messengers before me, with clear signs and even with what you speak of; why then did you kill them, if you are truthful?" Then if they deny you (O Muhammad ﷺ), so were Messengers denied before you, who came with Al-Baiyyināt (clear signs, proofs, evidences) and the Scripture and the Book of Enlightenment. Everyone shall taste death. And only on the Day of Resurrection shall you be paid your wages in full. And whoever is removed away from the Fire and admitted to Paradise, he indeed is successful. The life of this world is only the enjoyment of deception (a deceiving thing). You shall certainly be tried and tested in your wealth and properties and in your personal selves, and you shall certainly hear much that will grieve you from those who received the Scripture before you (Jews and Christians) and from those who ascribe partners to Allāh; but if you persevere patiently, and become Al-Muttaqūn (the pious) then verily, that will be a determining factor in all affairs (and that is from the great matters which you must hold on with all your efforts). (And remember) when Allāh took a covenant from those who were given the Scripture (Jews and Christians) to make it (the news of the coming of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ and the religious knowledge) known and clear to mankind, and not to hide it, but they threw it away behind their backs, and purchased with it some miserable gain! And indeed worst is that which they bought. Think not that those who rejoice in what they have done (or brought about), and love to be praised for what they have not done,— think not you that they are rescued from the torment, and for them is a painful torment. And to Allah belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth, and Allah has power over all things. Verily, in the creation of the heavens and the earth, and in the alternation of night and day, there are indeed signs for men of understanding. Those who remember Allah (always, and in prayers) standing, sitting, and lying down on their sides, and think deeply about the creation of the heavens and the earth, (saying): “Our Lord! You have not created (all) this without purpose, glory to You! (Exalted are You above all that they associate with You as partners). Give us salvation from the torment of the Fire. Our Lord! Verily, whom You admit to the Fire, indeed, You have disgraced him; and never will the Zalimun (polytheists and wrong doers) find any helpers. Our Lord! Verily, we have heard the call of one (Muhammad ﷺ) calling to Faith: ‘Believe in your Lord,’ and we have believed. Our Lord! Forgive us our sins and expiate from us our evil deeds, and make us die (in the state of righteousness) along with Al-Abrar (the pious believers of Islamic Monotheism). Our Lord! Grant us what You promised to us through Your Messengers and disgrace us not on the Day of Resurrection, for You never break (Your) Promise.” So, their Lord accepted of them (their supplication and answered them), “Never will I allow to be lost the work of any of you, be he male or female. You are (members) one of another, so those who emigrated and were driven out from their homes, and suffered harm in My Cause, and who fought, and were killed (in My Cause), verily, I will expiate from them their evil deeds and admit them into Gardens under which rivers flow (in Paradise); a reward from Allah, and with Allah is the best of rewards.” Let not the free disposal (and affluence) of the disbelievers throughout the land deceive you. A brief enjoyment; then their ultimate abode is Hell; and worst indeed is that place for rest. But, for those who fear their Lord, are Gardens under which rivers flow (in Paradise); therein are they to dwell for ever, an entertainment from Allah; and that which is with Allah is the best for Al-Abrar (the pious believers of Islamic Monotheism). And there are, certainly, among the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians), those who believe in Allah and in that which has been revealed to you, and in that which has been revealed to them, humbling themselves before Allah. They do not sell the Verses of Allah for a little price, for them is a reward with their Lord. Surely, Allah is Swift in account. O you who believe! Endure and be more patient (than your enemy), and guard your territory by stationing army units permanently at the places from where the enemy can attack you, and fear Allah, so that you may be successful.

Those who answered (the Call of) Allâh and the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) after being wounded; for those of them who did good deeds and feared Allâh, there is a great reward. Those (i.e. believers) to whom the people (hypocrites) said, "Verily, the people (pagans) have gathered against you (a great army), therefore, fear them." No harm touched them; and they followed the good Pleasure of Allâh. And Allâh is the Owner of Great Bounty.

(Qur’ân 3: 172-174)

The day after the Battle of Uhud, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ gathered whatever forces he could from the Muslims and went out in pursuit of Abu Sufyân and the polytheists. It was important for the Quraish to know that the defeat of the Muslims on the day before did not weaken them in the least. The Prophet ﷺ and his Companions reached Hamrâ Al-Asad. During the pursuit, a man named Ma’bad ibn Abi Ma’bad from the Khuza’i tribe passed by. Seeing what was happening, Ma’bad went to Abu Sufyân and his people; by the time he reached them, they were at Ar-Rauha, which is situated between Makkah and Al-Madinah. Ma’bad said to Abu Sufyân, “Muhammad and his Companions have set out in your pursuit. I have never seen such a gathered force; they are coming after you with a burning desire.” Abu Sufyân and his people then quickened their pace as they fled back towards Makkah. That night, at Hamr Al-Asad, the Muslims burned 500 torches or fires, which could be seen far off in the desert. These fires made it seem as if the Muslims numbered in the thousands, which gave the Quraysh all the more reason to flee back to Makkah.

Those who answered (the Call of) Allah and the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) after being wounded; for those of them who did good deeds and feared Allah, there is a great reward. Those (i.e., believers) to whom the people (hypocrites) said, “Verily, the people (pagans) have gathered against you (a great army), therefore, fear them.” But it (only) increased them in Faith, and they said: “Allah (Alone) is Sufficient for us, and He is the Best Disposer of affairs (for us).”

“What you (O Muslims) cut down of the palm trees (of the enemy), or you left them standing on their stems, it was by Leave of Allâh, and in order that He might disgrace the Fâsiqûn (the rebellious, the disobedient to Allâh).” (Qur’ân 59:5)
Banu An-Nadir
(Rabi’ Al-Awwal, 4 H)

What Allâh gave as booty (Fai’) to His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) from the people of the townships — it is for Allâh, His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ), the kindred (of Messenger Muhammad ﷺ), the orphans, Al-Masâkîn (the needy), and the wayfarer, in order that it may not become a fortune used by the rich among you. And whatsoever the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) gives you, take it; and whatsoever he forbids you, abstain (from it). And fear Allâh; verily, Allâh is Severe in punishment. (And there is also a share in this booty) for the poor emigrants, who were expelled from their homes and their property, seeking bounties from Allâh and to please Him, and helping Allâh (i.e. helping His religion — Islamic Monotheism) and His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ). Such are indeed the truthful (to what they say). (Qur’ân 59: 7, 8)

The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and a number of his Companions ﷺ went together to the Banu An-Nadir tribe, one of the three Jewish tribes of Al-Madinah. Their purpose was to ask them to help pay blood money for two people that were killed from the Banu ‘Aamir tribe. The giving of such help was binding upon Banu An-Nadir: one of the conditions of the peace pact they made with the Muslims was that they would help in the matter of blood money (money that is paid to the family of a victim who is wrongfully killed). When the Prophet ﷺ mentioned the reason for his coming to them, they said, “Yes, O Abal-Qâsim, we will help you but it is time that you come to visit us, so we will first feed you before you go back with what you need.”

During the wait, the Prophet ﷺ sat down beside the wall of one of their houses. Seeing how vulnerable the Prophet ﷺ was to an attack, the leaders of Banu An-Nadir said to one another, “Indeed, you will never again find the man to be in a similar situation. Who among us will climb this house and throw a large stone at him, thus freeing us from him?”

The spirit of Islam is both strong and forgiving, but Islam does not allow others to take advantage of its forgiving spirit by hurting Islam or plotting against it. That is why the forgiving spirit of Islam has protection from the strength and justice of Islam’s teachings.

The Prophet ﷺ was supported by revelation, and he ﷺ was informed about Banu An-Nadir’s plot to kill him. He ﷺ left the precincts of Banu An-Nadir, and he ﷺ then sent Muhammad ibn Maslamah Al-Ansari ﷺ to convey to them the message that he knew precisely what it was that they were plotting. Perhaps shocked at being found out, they made no reply. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ then gave them ten days to clear out of Al-Madinah, warning them that if anyone among still remained after that, he would be killed.

The hypocrites of Al-Madinah told the leaders of Banu An-Nadir that they were on their side. ‘Abdullah ibn Ubai ibn Salûl said to them, “Do not leave your houses; instead, protect yourselves in your fortresses. Since the people of Banu An-Nadir refused to leave peacefully, the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions ﷺ surrounded them, laying siege to their abodes. A few days passed, and the siege continued. Then, to show that the Muslims were indeed serious about the matter, the Prophet ﷺ ordered for six date trees to be burned. Seeing that there was no way out and that the Muslims were not going to just leave them, the leaders of Banu An-Nadir surrendered. They were allowed to leave and to carry whatever wealth they were able to carry, but not weapons. They ended up leaving with 600 camels and a great deal of wealth, which they

What Allāh gave as booty (Fai‘) to His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) from the people of the townships — it is for Allāh, His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ), the kindred (of Messenger Muhammad ﷺ), the orphans, Al-Masākin (the needy), and the wayfarer, in order that it may not become a fortune used by the rich among you. And whatsoever the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) gives you, take it; and whatsoever he forbids you, abstain (from it). And fear Allāh; verily, Allāh is Severe in punishment. Such are indeed the truthful (to what they say). (Qur’ān 59: 7, 8)
Have you (O Muhammad ﷺ) not observed the hypocrites who say to their friends among the people of the Scripture who disbelieve: “(By Allah) if you are expelled, we (too) indeed will go out with you, and we shall never obey any one against you; and if you are attacked (in fight), we shall indeed help you.” But Allah is Witness that they verily are liars. Surely, if they (the Jews) are expelled, never will they (hypocrites) go out with them; and if they are attacked, they will never help them. And (even) if they do help them, they (hypocrites) will turn their backs, and they will not be victorious. Verily, you (believers in the Oneness of Allah – Islamic Monotheism) are more fearful in their (Jews of Banû An-Nadîr) breasts than Allah. That is because they are a people who comprehend not (the Majesty and Power of Allah). They fight not against you even together, except in fortified townships, or from behind walls. Their enmity among themselves is very great. You would think they were united, but their hearts are divided. That is because they are a people who understand not. They are like their immediate predecessors (the Jews of Banû Qainûqâ‘, who suffered); they tasted the evil result of their conduct, and (in the Hereafter, there is) for them a painful torment. (Their allies deceived them) like Shaitān (Satan), when he says to man: “Disbelieve in Allah.” But when (man) disbelieves in Allah, Shaitān (Satan) says: “I am free of you, I fear Allah, the Lord of the ʾĀlamîn (mankind, jinn and all that exists)!” So, the end of both will be that they will be in the Fire, abiding therein. Such is the recompense of the Zâlimûn (i.e., polytheists, wrong doers, disbelievers in Allah and in His Oneness). (Qurʾān 59: 11-17)
"Have you not seen those who were given a portion of the Scripture? They believe in Jib and Tâghût and say to the disbelievers that they are better guided as regards the way than the believers (Muslims)."

"They believe in Jibt and Tāghut (false deities)."

Have you not seen those who were given a portion of the Scripture? They believe in Al-jibt and At-Tāghūt and say to the disbelievers that they are better guided as regards the way than the believers (Muslims). They are those whom Allāh has cursed, and he whom Allāh curses, you will not find for him (any) helper. (Qur’ān 4: 51, 52)

For the reasons discussed in the preceding chapter, Banu An-Nadir were expelled from Al-Madinah. A number of their leaders such as Huyai ibn Akhtab An-Nadri, Salām ibn Mishkam, Kinānah ibn Abi Al-Huqaiq, and Haudhah ibn Qais Al-Wâ’ili traveled as a delegation to the Quraish, both inviting and encouraging the leaders of the Quraish to continue to wage war on the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ. The delegates from Banu An-Nadir said, “We will indeed fight with you against him, until together, we destroy him.”

Abu Sufyān said, “Welcome indeed! The most beloved of people to us are those who help us to fight Muhammad. But we will only trust you and feel safe with you if you perform prostration to our gods.”

The delegates from Banu An-Nadir then proceeded to perform prostration to Quraish’s idols.

The leaders of the Quraish then said, “O group of Jews, you are people of knowledge and people of the first book, inform us about our differences with Muhammad. Is our religion better or is the religion of Muhammad better? Do we follow more correct guidance or does Muhammad (follow more correct guidance)?” The delegates answered, "Rather, your religion is better than his religion, and you are more worthy of the truth than he is. And you are upon a more guided way, for you glorify this House, you give drink to the pilgrims, you sacrifice animals, and you worship that which your fathers used to worship. Therefore, you are certainly more worthy of the truth than he is." Then Allâh ﷻ revealed the following Verses about them:

َٰلَيْكَ ۖ كَفَّرُوا هَٰؤُلَاءِ أُمَّةٌ مِّنَ ۗ أُمَّةٌ قُسُودًا ۖ (۵) أَوْلَيْكَ الْمُتَّقِينَ لَعِبْنِيُّ اللهُ وَمَنْ يُسْلِمُ آلْلَّهُ قَلِيلًا

Have you not seen those who were given a portion of the Scripture? They believe in Al-Jibt and At-Tâghût and say to the disbelievers that they are better guided as regards the way than the believers (Muslims). They are those whom Allâh has cursed, and he whom Allâh curses, you will not find for him (any) helper. (Qur’ân 4: 51, 52)

Having achieved their aim in Makkah, the leaders of Banu An-Nadir then went to the Ghatafân Tribe, in order to encourage them to wage war against the Messenger of Allâh ﷻ. As an added incentive, they promised Ghatafân half of the date harvest of Khaibar every year if they joined them in their war against the Muslims of Al-Madinah. The Quraish, Ghatafân, Banu Murrah, Ashja’, Sulaim, and Asad- these and other tribes then mustered their forces to attack Al-Madinah. The standoff that ensued became known as the Battle of the Confederates (Al-Ahzâb) or Al-Khandaq (The Trenches, since the Muslims made trenches to prevent the enemy from entering Al-Madinah); it took place in Shawwâl, in the year 5 H.

Al-Khandaq
(The Battle of the Confederates; Shawwâl, 5 H)

When they came upon you from above you and from below you, and when the eyes grew wild and the hearts reached to the throats, and you were harbouring doubts about Allâh.

(Qur’ân 33: 10)

The Khuza’ah tribe sent a convoy from Makkah to Al-Madinah. Although the journey normally required 6 days, they were able to make it in four days, for their mission was urgent and they had to make haste. Their mission was to convey news to the Prophet ﷺ about the gathering of the confederate armies that were about to attack Al-Madinah. The situation certainly seemed grim, for the approaching forces had the advantages of numbers, weapons, and horses.

Salmân Al-Fârisi ﷺ made a suggestion to the Prophet ﷺ: “O Messenger of Allâh, when we were attacked in the land of Fâris, when we feared the approach of horses (i.e., horsemen), and when we were surrounded, we would build trenches around us (i.e., to prevent the horsemen from being able to attack).” And so the Muslims dug trenches along the northern part of Al-Madinah, a laborious task that they completed in 9 or 10 days. Quraish and the confederate armies then approached; altogether, they came with 10,000 fighters. They made camp north of Al-Madinah since it was the only land that was suitable for fighting (especially for the horsemen). The eastern and western approaches to Madinah were unsuitable for fighting, since the surface of the land consisted mainly of volcanic, stony rocks. And southern Madinah was also ill suited for fighting, for the land was filled with date trees as well as Mount ‘Aer.

But the Muslim army was still threatened from the south, not by the confederate armies, but by the last of the three Jewish tribes of Al-Madinah, Banu Quraizah a tribe that also had made an agreement to defend the Muslims in battle. They too broke their agreement:

When they came upon you from above you and from below you, and when the eyes grew wild and the hearts reached to the throats, and you were harbouring doubts about Allâh. There, the believers were tried and shaken with a mighty shaking. And when the hypocrites and those in whose hearts is a disease (of doubts) said: “Allâh and His Messenger (ﷺ) promised us nothing but delusion!” And when a party of them said: “O people of Yathrib (Al-Madinah)! There is no stand (possible) for you (against the enemy attack!) Therefore go back!” And a band of them asked for permission of the Prophet (ﷺ) saying: “Truly, our homes lie open (to the enemy).” And they lay not open. They but wished to flee.

(Qur’ân 33: 10-13)

In the course of the ensuing skirmishes, Sa’d ibn ‘Ubâdah was injured by an arrow. The Prophet (ﷺ) had him taken to a special place near his Masjid that had been prepared to receive the wounded. Near to it was the tent of Rafidah Aslamiyyah, she used to look after the wounded persons.
After a siege that lasted for an entire month, Nu‘aim bin Mas‘ud Al-Ashja’i  came to the Messenger of Allâh  . Nu‘aim  had accepted Islam, though the Confederates had no knowledge about him being a Muslim. Seeing that perhaps their ignorance of his Islam might be used to the advantage of the Muslims, Nu‘aim  asked the Messenger of Allâh  if there was anything he could do to help. The Prophet  said, “War is stratagem,” meaning that stratagem should, when possible, be profitably used to end a war. In a wise an intelligent manner, Nu‘aim  was able to divide the Confederates, who were already tired from waiting in the desert for an entire month. Then Allâh  sent a strong wind that uprooted their tents, overturned their pots, and extinguished their fires. For these and other reasons, the armies withdrew and retreated to their homelands, having lost all hope of completing their mission.

O you who believe! Remember Allâh’s Favour to you, when there came against you hosts, and We sent against them a wind and forces that you saw not [i.e., troops of angels during the battle of Al-Ahzâb (the Confederates)]. And Allâh is Ever All-Seer of what you do.

Banu Quraizah
(Dhul-Qa‘dah, 5 H)

And (there are) others who have acknowledged their sins, they have mixed a deed that was righteous with another that was evil. Perhaps Allâh will turn to them in forgiveness. Surely, Allâh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

(Qur‘ân 9: 102)

The Muslims’ raid on the people of Banu Quraizah was a just reward for their open and insolent treachery. They violated a signed pact in which they promised to help the Muslims if an outside enemy ever attacked. But when an enemy army approached, instead of helping the Muslims or even staying neutral for that matter, Banu Quraizah openly sided with the enemy. When did this happen? It happened when they saw 10,000 fighters ready to attack Al-Madinah from its northern front; they believed mistakenly of course that the end was guaranteed for the Muslims.

This open betrayal and treachery required a just punishment. So the Muslims traveled to Banu Quraizah and besieged them. No one from Banu Quraizah dared ask the Muslims why they had come, for they were best acquainted with their own recent actions and treachery. But they did call for Abu Lubâbah ﷺ to come to them. After he got permission from the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, Abu Lubâbah ﷺ entered their fortress. The leaders of Banu Quraizah cried before him, saying, “O Abu Lubâbah, do you think that we should agree to accept the judgment of Muhammad regarding us?” Abu Lubâbah ﷺ said, “Yes,” but he then made a gesture by pointing across his throat, basically telling them that the intention of the Muslims was to have them killed.
Abu Lubâbah later said, “By Allâh, no sooner did my feet leave their places than I knew that I had betrayed Allâh and His Messenger.” When he returned to the Masjid of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, Abu Lubâbah tied himself to one of the corners of the Masjid. He said, “I will not leave this place of mine until Allâh forgives me for what I have done.” Abu Lubâbah remained tied there for six nights, and according to one narration, for twenty nights. Before each congregational prayer, his wife would come to him and untie his hands, so that he could go and perform ablution; and after that, he would return to his place, where he would tie himself again. This continued until these Verses were revealed:

أَلْسَنُ النَّافِئُ وَأَلْسَنُ اللَّهُ وَالْأَلْمَةُ الرَّحِيمُ

And (there are) others who have acknowledged their sins, they have mixed a deed that was righteous with another that was evil. Perhaps Allâh will turn to them in forgiveness. Surely, Allâh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful. Take Sadaqah (alms) from their wealth in order to purify them and sanctify them with it, and invoke Allâh for them. Verily, your invocations are a source of security for them; and Allâh is All-Hearer, All-Knower. Know they not that Allâh accepts repentance from His slaves and takes the Sadaqât (alms, charities), and that Allâh Alone is the One Who forgives and accepts repentance, Most Merciful?

The leaders of Banu Quraizah finally agreed to submit to the judgment of Sa’d ibn Mu’âdh. In his judgment, Sa’d ruled that the men of Banu Quraizah should be killed, that their wealth should be distributed, and that their children and women should be taken as slaves. Regarding the siege of Banu Quraizah, Allâh revealed the following Verses:
And Allāh drove back those who disbelieved in their rage, they gained no advantage (booty). Allāh sufficed for the believers in the fighting (by sending against the disbelievers a severe wind and troops of angels). And Allāh is Ever All-Strong, All-Mighty. And those of the people of the Scripture who backed them (the disbelievers), Allah brought them down from their forts and cast terror into their hearts, (so that) a group (of them) you killed, and a group (of them) you made captives. And He caused you to inherit their lands, and their houses, and their riches, and a land which you had not trodden (before). And Allāh is Able to do all things.

The Slander

The Battle of Bani Al-Mustaliq

Sha'ban 5 A.H.

"Verily, those who brought forth the slander (against 'Aishah the wife of the Prophet) are a group among you. Consider it not a bad thing for you. Nay, it is good for you. Unto every man among them will be paid that which he had earned of the sin, and as for him among them who had the greater share therein, his will be a great torment."

"And why did you not, when you heard it, say: 'It is not right for us to speak of this. Glory be to You (O Allâh)! This is a great lie.'"

"Verily, those who like that (the crime of) illegal sexual intercourse should be propagated among those who believe, they will have a painful torment in this world and in the Hereafter. And Allâh knows and you know not." (Qur'an 24:11, 16, 19)
Al-Muraišī’

The Battle Of Bani Al-Mustaliq
(Sha’ban, 5 H)

Al-Hárith ibn Dirâr, chief of Bani Al-Mustaliq (from the Khuzâ’ah), mustered as many fighters as he could from his own people and from nearby Bedouins. He was assembling forces to wage war on the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. Coming to know what Al-Hárith and his people were up to, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ didn’t wait but instead rode to them with 700 men with him. Leaving on the 2nd of Sha’bân in the year 5 H, their aim was to break up the forces that Al-Hárith had already assembled. The two armies met at the water (spring) of Al-Muraišī’, and it didn’t take long before Al-Hárith and his forces were defeated.

In the course of the battle, ‘Umar ibn Al-Khattâb’s servant got into a dispute with Jahjâh ibn Mas’ûd, who was an ally of the Khazraj (Khazraj was one of the tribes of Al-Madinah). ‘Umar’s servant ended up striking Jahjâh; and as a result, ‘Abdullât ibn Ubai ibn Salût, the leader of the hypocrites and a member of the Khazraj tribe, was enraged. He said, “By Allâh, if we return to Al-Madinah, the honorable ones among us will expel the lowly ones.” The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was able to bring calm to the brewing tensions, and in order to divert them from mutual fighting, he ordered a rapid return to Al-Madinah.

When Zaid ibn Arqâm Ḥ conveyed Ibn ‘Ubâi ibn Salût’s above words to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, Ibn ‘Ubâi made a false oath, swearing that he never said those words and that Zaid ibn Arqâm Ḥ was lying. In exculpation of Zaid Ḥ, Allâh ﷺ revealed the following Verse:

That We might make it a remembrance for you, and the keen ear (person) may (hear and) understand it. (Qur’ân 69: 12)

Everyone knew that Zaid Ḥ was telling the truth, and he thereafter became known as, “The one with a keen ear.”

In regard to the leader of the hypocrites, ‘Abdullah ibn Ubaí, the following Verses were revealed in Sûrat Al-Munâfiqun:

وَأَيِّدُواْ قِيلُ هُمُ تَعَاوُنُواْ لِيَسْتَفْعَرُواْ لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ لَوْلَا رُوُسُمُ مَرْتَنِهِمُّ وَيَضُرُّهُمُّ بِمَا يَصُدُّونَ فِيهِم مَُسَتَّكَّرُونَ ﴿۸﴾ رَبَّهُمَّ اِنْفِقُواْ عَلَىٰ اَلْمَجْهَرِينَ ﴿۹﴾ ﴿۱﴾ هُمُ الَّذِينَ يَقُولُونَ لَنْ نَفَسْقُواْ عَلَىٰ مَنْ عَنَىٰ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﴿۱۰﴾ ﴿۱۱﴾ أَنَّ اللَّهَ لاَ يَهْدِي الْقُوَّةَ الْمُنْفَسِقِينَ ﴿۱۲﴾ آخَنَ بَعْضُهُمْ يَفْتَرِى عِلْمَ الْأَرْضِ ﴿۱۳﴾ قَالَ وَلَقَدْ أَنْزَلْنَا إِلَى الْمَدīنَةِ لِيَجْعَلَنَّهَا مِنْ أَحَدَهَا الْأَذَلِّ إِلَّا الَّذِي يُبَيِّنُونَ ﴿۱۴﴾ ﴿۱۵﴾ وَلَقَدْ أَلْقَى الْأَمْوَاتَ ﴿۱۶﴾ وَلَعَلَّ آلْمُوْمِنِينَ وَلَعَلَّ الْمُنْفَسِقِينَ ﴿۱۷﴾ ﴿۱۸﴾ ﴿۱۹﴾ يَقُولُونَ أَنِّيٓ رَجُلٌٓ إِلَى الْمَدīنَةِ لِيَجْعَلَنَّهَا مِنْ أَحَدَهَا الْأَذَلِّ إِلَّا الَّذِي يُبَيِّنُونَ ﴿۲۰﴾ ﴿۲۱﴾ ﴿۲۲﴾ ﴿۲۳﴾ ﴿۲۴﴾ ﴿۲۵﴾ ﴿۲۶﴾ ﴿۲۷﴾ ﴿۲۸﴾ ﴿۲۹﴾ ﴿۳۰﴾ ﴿۳۱﴾ ﴿۳۲﴾ ﴿۳۳﴾ ﴿۳۴﴾ ﴿۳۵﴾ ﴿۳۶﴾ ﴿۳۷﴾ ﴿۳۸﴾ ﴿۳۹﴾ ﴿۴۰﴾ ﴿۴۱﴾ ﴿۴۲﴾ ﴿۴۳﴾ ﴿۴۴﴾ ﴿۴۵﴾ ﴿۴۶﴾ ﴿۴۷﴾ ﴿۴۸﴾ ﴿۴۹﴾ ﴿۵۰﴾ ﴿۵۱﴾ ﴿۵۲﴾ ﴿۵۳﴾ ﴿۵۴﴾ ﴿۵۵﴾ ﴿۵۶﴾ ﴿۵۷﴾ ﴿۵۸﴾ ﴿۵۹﴾ ﴿۶۰﴾ ﴿۶۱﴾ ﴿۶۲﴾ ﴿۶۳﴾ ﴿۶۴﴾ ﴿۶۵﴾ ﴿۶۶﴾ ﴿۶۷﴾ ﴿۶۸﴾ ﴿۶۹﴾ ﴿۷۰﴾ ﴿۷۱﴾ ﴿۷۲﴾ ﴿۷۳﴾ ﴿۷۴﴾ ﴿۷۵﴾ ﴿۷۶﴾ ﴿۷۷﴾ ﴿۷۸﴾ ﴿۷۹﴾ ﴿۸۰﴾ ﴿۸۱﴾ ﴿۸۲﴾ ﴿۸۳﴾ ﴿۸۴﴾ ﴿۸۵﴾ ﴿۸۶﴾ ﴿۸۷﴾ ﴿۸۸﴾ ﴿۸۹﴾ ﴿۹۰﴾ ﴿۹۱﴾ ﴿۹۲﴾ ﴿۹۳﴾ ﴿۹۴﴾ ﴿۹۵﴾ ﴿۹۶﴾ ﴿۹۷﴾ ﴿۹۸﴾ ﴿۹۹﴾  And when it is said to them: “Come, so that the Messenger of Allâh (ﷺ) may ask forgiveness from Allâh for you,” they twist their heads, and you would see them turning away their faces in pride. It is equal to them whether you (Muhammad ﷺ) ask forgiveness or ask not forgiveness for them, Allâh will never forgive them. Verily, Allâh guides not the people who are the Fâsiqûn (rebellious, disobedient to Allâh). They are the ones who say: “Spend not on those who are with Allâh’s Messenger (ﷺ), until they desert him.” And to Allâh belong the treasures of the heavens and the earth, but the hypocrites comprehend not. They (hypocrites) say: “If we return to Al-Madinah, indeed the more honorable (‘Abdûllah bin Ubaí bin Salûl, the chief of hypocrites at Al-Madinah) will expel therefrom the meaner (i.e., Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ).” But honor, power and glory belong to Allâh, and to His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ), and to the believers, but the hypocrites know not.

(Qur’ân 63: 5-8)

Ibn Ubaí ibn Salûl was not content with his false oath; in addition to that, he was the one who started the well-known ‘Slander Incident,’ which began during the very same expedition. His lying and slander led to great trials for the Prophet ﷺ and those who were most beloved to him.

When the Muslim army was returning from the Battle of Banû Al-
Mustalîq, the Muslims made camp for a short while. ‘Aishah ﷺ went out of eyesight, in order to look for a necklace that she lost when she had left the camp earlier. Meanwhile, the Muslims left, not noticing that she was missing; and so when she returned to the site of the camp, she saw that she was alone. It was then that Safwân ibn Al-Mu‘attal ﷺ passed by; it was his job to remain in the rear of the army, in order to pick up personal belongings that people might have inadvertently dropped on their way back. When he saw ‘Aishah ﷺ, he recognized her immediately. In a most modest manner, he proffered his camel to her. He then turned in the other direction, so that she could mount it without him seeing her. After that, Safwân ﷺ took the camel by its reins and silently began to steer it in the direction of Al-Madinah. By the time that they reached Al-Madinah, it was midday. When Ibn Ubâi ibn Salûl saw them, he said, “The wife of your Prophet has spent the night together with a man until the morning; then he comes, leading her hither. She was not saved from him, and he was not saved from her.” Picking up on his cue, the other hypocrites began to spread the slanderous lie, and the entire city of Al-Madinah was shaken by it. After a period of difficulty and trial, Allâh ﷻ revealed Verses that established the innocence of ‘Aishah ﷺ, the pure and chaste wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Verily, those who brought forth the slander (against `Āishah—the wife of the Prophet ﷺ) are a group among you. Consider it not a bad thing for you. Nay, it is good for you. To every man among them will be paid that which he had earned of the sin, and as for him among them who had the greater share therein, his will be a great torment. Why then did not the believers, men and women, when you heard it (the slander), think good of their own people and say: “This (charge) is an obvious lie?” Why did they not produce four witnesses against him? Since they (the slanderers) have not produced witnesses! Then with Allāh, they are the liars. Had it not been for the Grace of Allāh and His Mercy to you in this world and in the Hereafter, a great torment would have touched you for that whereof you had spoken. When you were propagating it with your tongues, and uttering with your mouths that whereof you had no knowledge, you counted it a little thing, while with Allāh it was very great. And why did you not, when you heard it, say: “It is not right for us to speak of this. Glorified are You (O Allāh)! This is a great lie.” Allāh forbids you from it and warns you not to repeat the like of it forever, if you are believers. And Allāh makes the Ayāt (proofs, evidences, Verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) plain to you, and Allāh is All-Knowing, All-Wise. Verily, those who like that (the crime of) illegal sexual intercourse should be propagated among those who believe, they will have a painful torment in this world and in the Hereafter. And Allāh knows and you know not. And had it not been for the Grace of Allāh and His Mercy on you (Allāh would have hastened the punishment upon you). And that Allāh is full of kindness, Most Merciful. O you who believe! Follow not the footsteps of Shaitān (Satan). And whosoever follows the footsteps of Shaitān (Satan), then, verily, he commands Al-Fahshā' [i.e. to commit indecency (illegal sexual intercourse)], and Al-Munkar [disbelief and polytheism (i.e. to do evil and wicked deeds; and to speak or to do what is forbidden in Islam)]. And had it not been for the Grace of Allāh and His Mercy on you, not one of you would ever have been pure from sins. But Allāh purifies (guides to Islam) whom He wills, and Allāh is All-Hearer, All-Knower. And let not those among you who are blessed with graces and wealth swear not to give (any sort of help) to their kinsmen, Al-Masākin (the needy), and those who left their homes for Allāh’s Cause. Let them pardon and forgive. Do you not love that Allāh should forgive you? And Allāh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful. Verily, those who accuse believing chaste women, who never even think of anything touching their chastity and are good believers — are cursed in this life and in the Hereafter, and for them will be a great torment —

(Dhil-Qa‘dah, 6 H)

Indeed, Allâh was pleased with the believers when they gave the Bai‘ah (pledge) to you (O Muhammad ﷺ) under the tree, He knew what was in their hearts, and He sent down As-Sakinah (calmness and tranquillity) upon them, and He rewarded them with a near victory.

(Qur‘ân 48: 18)

In the year 6 H, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ set out with 1400 Muslims with the intention of performing the minor pilgrimage (‘Umrah) to Makkah. He ﷺ took along with him 70 animals that were to be sacrificed; he ﷺ put distinguishing marks on them, so that people would know that they were designated for later sacrifice and would consequently avoid slaughtering them for immediate consumption. A number of Bedouins and hypocrites remained behind from the pilgrimage.

Those of the bedouins who lagged behind will say to you: “Our possessions and our families occupied us, so ask forgiveness for us.” They say with their tongues what is not in their hearts. Say: “Who then has any power at all (to intervene) on your behalf with Allāh, if He intends you hurt or intends you benefit? Nay, but Allāh is Ever Well-Acquainted with what you do. Nay, but you thought that the Messenger (ﷺ) and the believers would never return to their families, and that was made fair-seeming in your hearts, and you did think an evil thought and you became a useless people going for destruction.” And whosoever does not believe in Allāh and His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ), then verily, We have prepared for the disbelievers a blazing Fire.

Not going to fight but instead to perform pilgrimage, the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions ﷺ carried no weapons for war, only simple knives or swords that were commonly needed and carried by travelers.

When they came near to Makkah, the Muslims set camp at a place called Al-Hudaibiyah. After emissaries from the Quraish came to negotiate terms with the Prophet ﷺ, ‘Uthmân ibn ‘Affân ﷺ entered Makkah as an emissary of the Muslims. Somehow, it became a widespread though untrue notion that the Quraish had killed ‘Uthmân ﷺ. Due to the news of the possible treachery, the Muslims gave the famous pledge of Ar-Ridwân under the tree: Either Victory (conquest of Makkah) or Martyrdom.’ But when it was established that ‘Uthmân ﷺ was unharmed and that the Quraish wanted to sign a peace pact, the way became paved for the Treaty of Al-Hudaibiyah.

وَلَوْ قَتَلُوكُمْ أَلَّا نَكُونَ نَظَرًا أُوْلِئِكُمْ إِلَّا مَا يُجُدُّونَ إِلَّا وَلَيْسَ أَلَّا نَجُوُونَ إِلَّا مَا يُعْتَنِيءُونَ وَلَيْسَ أَلَّا نُعْمَلُنَّ عَلَيْهِمْ أَلَّا نُبِيِّينَ عِنْدَمَكُمْ إِلَّا مَا يُعْلَمُ عِنْدَهُمْ أَلَّا نُدْنِسِينَ مَكَأً مِّنْ بَعْدُ أَنْ أَطْفَأَرَكُمْ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَوْ أَتَايَاتُهُمْ أَطْفَأَرَتْهُمْ وَلَوْ أَتَايَاتُهُمْ أَطْفَأَرَتْهُمْ وَلَوْ أَتَايَاتُهُمْ أَطْفَأَرَتْهُمْ وَلَوْ أَتَايَاتُهُمْ أَطْفَأَرَتْهُمْ

And if those who disbelieve fight against you, they certainly will turn their backs; then they would have found neither a Wali (protector, guardian) nor a helper. That has been the way of Allāh already with those who passed away before. And you will not find any change in the way of Allah. And He it is Who has withheld their hands from you and your hands from them in the midst of Makkah, after He had made you victors over them. And Allah is Ever All-Seer of what you do.

(Qur’an 48: 22-24)

Verily, those who give Bai’ah (pledge) to you (O Muhammad ﷺ), they are giving Bai’ah (pledge) to Allah. The Hand of Allah is over their hands. Then whosoever breaks his pledge, breaks it only to his own harm; and whosoever fulfils what he has covenanted with Allah, He will bestow on him a great reward. Those of the bedouins who lagged behind will say to you: “Our possessions and our families occupied us, so ask forgiveness for us.” They say with their tongues what is not in their hearts. Say: “Who then has any power at all (to intervene) on your behalf with Allâh, if He intends you hurt or intends you benefit? Nay, but Allâh is Ever Well-Acquainted with what you do. “Nay, but you thought that the Messenger (ﷺ) and the believers would never return to their families, and that was made fair-seeming in your hearts, and you did think an evil thought and you became a useless people going for destruction.” And whosoever does not believe in Allâh and His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ), then verily, We have prepared for the disbelievers a blazing Fire. And to Allâh belongs the sovereignty of the heavens and the earth. He forgives whom He wills, and punishes whom He wills. And Allâh is Ever Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful. Those who lagged behind will say, when you set forth to take the spoils, “Allow us to follow you.” They want to change Allâh’s Words. Say: “You shall not follow us; thus Allâh has said beforehand.” Then they will say: “Nay, you envy us.” Nay, but they understand not except a little. Say (O Muhammad ﷺ) to the bedouins who lagged behind: “You shall be called to fight against a people given to great warfare, then you shall fight them, or they shall surrender. Then if you obey, Allâh will give you a fair reward; but if you turn away as you did turn away before, He will punish you with a painful torment.” No blame or sin is there upon the blind, nor is there blame or sin upon the lame, nor is there blame or sin upon the sick (that they go not for fighting). And whosoever obeys Allâh and His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ), He will admit him to Gardens beneath which rivers flow (Paradise); and whosoever turns back, He will punish him with a painful torment. Indeed, Allâh was pleased with the believers when they gave the Bai’ah (pledge) to you (O Muhammad ﷺ) under the tree, He knew what was in their hearts, and He sent down As-Sakînah (calmness and tranquillity) upon them, and He rewarded them with a near victory.

(Qur’ân 48: 10-18)
And He it is Who has withheld their hands from you and your hands from them in the midst of Makkah, after He had made you victors over them. And Allah is Ever All-Seer of what you do. They are the ones who disbelieved (in the Oneness of Allah — Islamic Monotheism) and hindered you from Al-Masjid Al-Harâm (at Makkah) and detained the sacrificial animals, from reaching their place of sacrifice. Had there not been believing men and believing women whom you did not know, that you may kill them and on whose account a sin would have been committed by you without (your) knowledge, that Allah might bring into His Mercy whom He wills — if they (the believers and the disbelievers) had been apart, We verily, would have punished those of them who disbelieved with painful torment. When those who disbelieve had put in their hearts pride and haughtiness — the pride and haughtiness of the time of ignorance, — then Allah sent down His Sakinah (calmness and tranquillity) upon His Messenger (ﷺ) and upon the believers, and made them stick to the word of piety (i.e. none has the right to be worshipped but Allah); and they were well entitled to it and worthy of it. And Allah is Ever All-Knower of everything. Indeed Allah shall fulfil the true vision which He showed to His Messenger (ﷺ) [i.e. the Prophet ﷺ saw a dream that he has entered Makkah along with his Companions, having their (head) hair shaved and cut short] in very truth. Certainly, you shall enter Al-Masjid Al-Harâm, if Allāh wills, secure, (some) having your heads shaved, and (some) having your head hair cut short, having no fear. He knew what you knew not, and He granted before that a near victory. He it is Who has sent His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) with guidance and the religion of truth (Islam), that He may make it (Islam) superior to all religions. And All-Sufficient is Allāh as a Witness.

(Qur'an 48:27)
Indeed, Allāh was pleased with the believers when they gave the Bai’ah (pledge) to you (O Muhammad ﷺ) under the tree, He knew what was in their hearts, and He sent down As-Sakīnah (calmness and tranquillity) upon them, and He rewarded them with a near victory. And abundant spoils that they will capture. And Allāh is Ever All-Mighty, All-Wise.

(Qur’ān 48: 18, 19)

Indeed Allāh shall fulfil the true vision which He showed to His Messenger (ﷺ) [i.e., the Prophet ﷺ saw a dream that he has entered Makkah along with his Companions, having their (head) hair shaved and cut short] in very truth. Certainly, you shall enter Al-Masjid Al-Harām, if Allāh wills, secure, (some) having your heads shaved, and (some) having your head hair cut short, having no fear. He knew what you knew not, and He granted before that a near victory.

(Qur’ān 48: 27)

The Jews of Khaibar contacted the people of the Ghatafān tribe, who were known to be mercenaries for hire. As a reward for fighting the Muslims, the Jews of Khaibar offered them a percentage of their yearly harvest, which consisted mainly of fruits and dates. They furthermore established alliances with the tribes of Fadak, Taima’ and Wádi Al-Qura; together, they were to launch a surprise attack on Al-Madinah. Having been informed of their plans, the Muslims who witnessed Al-Hudaibiyah traveled to Khaibar, in order to bring an end to the plotting of its inhabitants and their allies.

Khaibar consisted of many fortresses, the most important of which were the following:

- An-Natât, which was made up of the Nâ’im, As-Sa’b, and Qillah fortresses.
- Ash-Shiq, which was made up of the Ubai and Al-Bary fortresses.
- Al-Katibah, which was made up of the Al-Qamus, Al-Watih, and As-Sulâlim fortresses.

Nâ’im was the first fortress to be overtaken by the Muslims, and Al-Qamus was the greatest and most formidable of Khaibar’s fortresses. As for the Al-Watih and As-Sulâlim fortresses, they were surrendered peacefully. According to the pact that was agreed upon, Khaibar remained in the hands of its inhabitants, on the condition that the Muslims were to receive one-half of the harvest of all planting and date trees.

The Compensatory ‘Umrah

‘Umratul-Qada’
(Make-Up or Compensatory ‘Umrah For Not Having Been Able To Perform It The Previous Year)
(Dhil-Qa‘dah, 7 H)

Indeed Allâh shall fulfil the true vision which He showed to His Messenger ﷺ [i.e., the Prophet ﷺ saw a dream that he has entered Makkah along with his Companions, having their (head) hair shaved and cut short] in very truth. Certainly, you shall enter Al-Masjid Al-Harâm, if Allâh wills, secure, (some) having your heads shaved, and (some) having your head hair cut short, having no fear. He knew what you knew not, and He granted before that a near victory.

One of the conditions of the Treaty of Al-Hudaibiyah was for the Muslims to return the following year to perform ‘Umrah, instead of performing it that same year. And so the Muslims returned from Al-Hudaibiyah without having performed ‘Umrah. One year later, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ set out with 1000 Muslims to perform the make-up ‘Umrah (‘Umratul-Qada’).

Expecting the arrival of the Muslims, the people of the Quraish retreated to the peaks of mountains for the agreed upon period of three days. They said to one another, “Do not look at him or at his companions.” And they began to spread the rumor that, “Coming to you is a delegation that has become weakened by the fever of Yathrib (i.e., Al-Madinah, for before the migration of the Prophet ﷺ, Al-Madinah was known to be a place where people were very susceptible to a dangerous fever).” Wanting to show the Quraish that the Muslims were not weak but strong and energetic, the Prophetﷺ ordered each Muslim man to lay bare one of his shoulders, and heﷺ also instructed them to perform a light jog around the Ka’bah for the first three of the seven prescribed circuits.
Heﷺ said, “May Allâh have mercy on the one who shows them his strength today.”

After difficult wars – Badr, Uhud, and Al-Khandaq – and after the victory at Khaibar, the Muslims entered Makkah with the highest imaginable level of dignity and honor. And in accordance with the Treaty of Al-Hudaibiyah, the Messenger of Allâhﷺ remained in Makkah for three days only.

The showing that the Muslims gave to the Quraish – who were looking upon them from the peaks of mountains and hills – on that occasion had a strong effect on one of the noble women of Makkah Maimunah bint Al-Hârith Al-Hilâliyyahﷺ; the effect on her was such that she yearned to marry the Prophetﷺ. She was twenty-six years old at the time, and her husband, Abu Ruhm ibn ‘Abdul-’Uzza Al-Qurashi, had recently died. She went to her sister Umm Al-Fadl, the wife of Al-‘Abbâs, to tell her about her feelings. Al-‘Abbâs conveyed Maimunah’s proposal, saying, “She has offered herself to the Prophet.” Allâhﷺ then revealed the following Verse about her:

وَبَنَتَاهَا الْيَتِينَ إِذَا أُحْلَلَ أَلْلَهُ أَرْوَاحُ الْيَتِينَ عَاتِيَةَ أَحْوَاهُوْرَهُ وَمَا مَلَكَتْ بَيْسَكَ مَثَّا
أَفَلَا أَنْفَقُ البَلَدُوْنَ عَلَيْكَ وَبَسَاتَ عَمْكَ وَبَسَاتَ عَمْكَ وَبَسَاتَ خَالِكَ وَبَسَاتَ خَالِكَ الَّذِي هُمْ مَعَكَ وَأَنْفَقُ مَعَكَ مَعْنَى إِنَّ وَهَبَنَهَا الدُّنْيَا لَيْسَ كَيْ مَعْنُوْسَ لِلَّهِ إِنَّ إِرَادَةَ الْيَتِينَ أَنْ يَسْتَفْتَهَا حَالَةَ الْحَيَاةِ أَنْ يُؤْمِنَهَا مُنْدَهُمْ

O Prophet (Muhammadﷺ)！Verily, We have made lawful to you your wives, to whom you have paid their Mahr (bridal-money given by the husband to his wife at the time of marriage), and those (slaves) whom your right hand possesses — whom Allâh has given to you, and the daughters of your ‘Amm (paternal uncles) and the daughters of your ‘Ammât (paternal aunts) and the daughters of your Khâl (maternal uncles) and the daughters of your Khālāt (maternal aunts) who migrated (from Makkah) with you, and a believing woman if she offers herself to the Prophet (ﷺ), and the Prophet (ﷺ) wishes to marry her — a privilege for you only, not for the (rest of) the believers. Indeed We know what We have enjoined upon them about their wives and those (slaves) whom their right hands possess, in order that there should be no difficulty on you. And Allāh is Ever Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

(Qūr’ān 33: 50)

The Prophet ﷺ then married her and took her back with him to Al-Madinah.

Mu'tah Expedition

Zaid bin Harithah, Ja'far bin Abi Talib, Abdullah bin Rawahah
Verily, Allâh has purchased of the believers their lives and their properties for (the price) that theirs shall be Paradise. They fight in Allâh’s Cause, so they kill (others) and are killed. It is a promise in truth which is binding on Him in the Taurât (Torah) and the Injil (Gospel) and the Qur’ân. And who is truer to his covenant than Allâh? Then rejoice in the bargain which you have concluded. That is the supreme success.

(Qur’ân 9: 111)

In the year 7 H, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ sent letters to the kings and leaders of foreign lands, inviting them to embrace Islam. Among those who carried those letters was Al-Hârith ibn ‘Umair Al-Azdi ﷺ, whose task it was to go to the king of Busra Ash-Sham. When Al-Hârith ﷺ stopped at Mu’tah, he was confronted by Shurahbil ibn ‘Amr Al-Ghassâni, one of Caesar’s governors over Ash-Sham. Shurahbil killed the messenger ﷺ of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, and so the purpose of the Mu’tah expedition was to teach Shurahbil Al-Ghassâni a lesson.

The Prophet ﷺ assembled an army that consisted of 3000 fighters, and he ﷺ appointed Zaid ibn Hârithah ﷺ to be their leader. The Prophet ﷺ knew that it was going to be a dangerous mission, for they were fighting the Romans and not just a small tribe; and so he explained that if Zaid ﷺ were to die, then Ja’far ibn Abi Tâlib ﷺ should take his place as leader; and that if Ja’far ﷺ were to die, then ‘Abdullah ibn Rawâhah ﷺ should take his place.

The Army of Al-‘Umara’ (Leaders) then marched towards Mu’tah. In terms of numbers, the Muslim army was certainly not an equal match for the opposing army. The Romans were able to assemble in Mut‘ah an army of 100,000 fighters, while the Muslim army consisted of a mere 3000 fighters. The battle began, and after the three appointed leaders all were martyred, the banner of leadership was handed over to the ‘Sword of Allâh,’ Khâlid ibn Al-Walid ﷺ, who was able to realize a safe retreat, without suffering any more losses.

Had it not been for the skillful retreat, the entire army would have been destroyed. But when they returned to Al-Madinah, the Muslims said to them, “O you who have taken flight: you have fled (when it was time to fight) in the way of Allâh.” Coming to their defense, the Prophet ﷺ then said, “Rather, you are ones who have retreated, and I am your troop [referring to the following verse: “And whoever turns his back to them on such a day unless it be a stratagem of war, or to retreat to a troop (of his own)”].”

And whoever turns his back to them on such a day — unless it be a stratagem of war, or to retreat to a troop (of his own), — he indeed has drawn upon himself wrath from Allâh. And his abode is Hell, and worst indeed is that destination! You killed them not, but Allāh killed them. And you (Muhammad ﷺ) threw not when you did throw, but Allāh threw, that He might test the believers by a fair trial from Him. Verily, Allāh is All-Hearer, All-Knower.

(Qur'ān 8: 16, 17)
Conquest of Makkah
(20 Ramadan 8 A.H.)

“When there comes the Help of Allāh (to you, O Muhammad ﷺ against your enemies) and the Conquest (of Makkah).” (Qur’an 110:1)
The Makkah Conquest
(The 10th of Ramadan, in the year 8 H)

(Qur’ân 110:1-3)

In what was a clear and blatant violation, the Qurais\i\ broke the Treaty of Hudaibiyah on the 8th of Ramadan, 8 H; they did so despite the fact that it was they who stubbornly and peremptorily dictated the conditions of the treaty. Why did they break the treaty? Perhaps it was hindsight, for they soon realized that the Treaty of Hudaibiyah paved the way for Islam spreading to different tribes in the Arabian Peninsula. During the short span that the treaty was still in effect, the population of Muslims at least doubled.

According to the treaty, the Qurais\i\ promised not to fight or sponsor any fighting against the Muslims or their allies. But then certain leaders of the Qurais\i\ helped and encouraged the Banu Bakr tribe to exact revenge on the Khuz\a‘ah tribe, a tribe that was a known ally of the Muslims.

After the act of treachery was done, ‘Amr ibn Sâlim Al-Khuza‘i traveled to Al-Madinah in order to inform the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ about what the Qurais\i\ did. Abu Sufyân later came and made an abortive attempt to fix a problem that was caused by his own people, but he could not find a single Muslim to pay attention. At last he said, “I have checked all the Companions of the Prophet, but I have not seen any nation so submissive to its leader."

The Prophetﷺ then decided to march towards and take control of Makkah. Hàtib ibn Abi Balta‘ah ﺻ, a true Muslim and one of the participants of the Battle of Badr, made the mistake of trying to send news to the Qurаish about the impending arrival of the Muslim army. It was a clear mistake because the Prophetﷺ was eager to make his arrival a surprise. Regarding Hàtib’s mistake, Allаh ﻪ revealed these Verses:

O you who believe! Take not My enemies and your enemies (i.e., disbelievers and polytheists) as friends, showing affection towards them, while they have disbelieved in what has come to you of the truth (i.e., Islamic Monotheism, this Qur‘ан, and Muhammad ﷺ), and have driven out the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) and yourselves (from your homeland) because you believe in Allаh, your Lord! If you have come forth to strive in My Cause and to seek My Good Pleasure. (then take not these disbelievers and polytheists, as your friends). You show friendship to them in secret, while I am All-Aware of what you conceal and what you reveal. And whosoever of you (Muslims) does that, then indeed he has gone (far) astray from the Straight Path. Should they gain the upper hand over you, they would behave to you as enemies, and stretch forth their hands and their tongues against you with evil, and they desire that you should disbelieve. Neither your relatives nor your children will benefit you on the Day of Resurrection (against Allаh). He will judge between you. And Allаh is All-Seer of what you do. (Qur‘ан 60: 1-3)
The Muslim army that made the journey to Makkah comprised of 10,000 Muslims, a force that was far too great for the inhabitants of Makkah to withstand. When the army reached Dhi Tuwa and Adhâkhir, the Prophet ﷺ sent Az-Zubair ibn Al-‘Awâm  to enter Makkah from the north; Khâlid ibn Al-Walid  to enter it from the south; Qais ibn Sa’d ibn ‘Ubâdah  to enter it from the east; and Abu ‘Ubaidah ibn Al-Jarrâh  to enter it from the direction of Mount Hind, beside which the Muslims were gathered in Al-Hujun with the Prophet ﷺ.

The sheer surprise of the attack stunned the Quraish, making them feel as if they had suddenly been struck with a cold piece of iron. As the Prophet ﷺ entered Makkah as the victor on the 20th of Ramadan, 8 H, he repeatedly recited Sūrat An-Nasr:

إِذَا جَآءَ نَعْمَآءُ اللَّهِ وَالْفَضْلُ ۖ وَأُتْبَيْنَيْنَ آنَّاَنَّ نَصُرُ اللَّهِ ﴿١﴾ ۖ فَقَدْ مَحْمُودُ رَبِّكَ وَأَسْتَفْعَرُهُ إِنَّمَا كَانَ تَوبَةٌ ﴿٢﴾

When there comes the Help of Allâh (to you, O Muhammad ﷺ against your enemies) and the Conquest (of Makkah). And you see that the people enter Allâh’s religion (Islam) in crowds. So, glorify the Praises of your Lord, and ask His forgiveness. Verily, He is the One Who Ever accepts the repentance and Who forgives.

(Qur’ân 110: 1-3)

And as he destroyed the idols of the Quraish, he ﷺ recited this Verse:

ۖ وَقَلْ جَآءَ الصَّدَقَةُ وَرَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْكَ إِنَّ الْبَيِّنَةَ كَانَ رَهُومًا ﴿٨﴾

And say: “Truth (i.e., Islamic Monotheism or this Qur’ân or Jihâd against polytheists) has come and Bâtil (falsehood, i.e., Satan or polytheism) has vanished. Surely, Bâtil is ever bound to vanish.”

(Qur’ân 17: 81)

The victory was significant militarily, to be sure, but it was also significant on another level as well: the Prophet ﷺ now won over the hearts of Quraish’s leaders and citizens. The Quraish had tortured and oppressed the Muslims as long as they had lived in Makkah; then they drove them out, forcing them to migrate to Al-Madinah; and then they plotted and waged war against them. At first, they hid in their houses when the Prophet ﷺ entered Makkah. But then the Prophet ﷺ said, “Go forth, for you are the freed ones.” After all of the enmity they showed to him, he forgave them. May the peace and blessings of Allâh be upon our Prophet, Muhammad ﷺ. The leaders and citizens of Makkah finally were satisfied, and they finally believed that Islam is the truth. Their acceptance of Islam led to the end of polytheism in the Arabian Peninsula. In the following year (9 H), delegates came from all over the Arabian Peninsula to announce their acceptance of Islam so much so that the year had its name as “the Year of Delegations”.

"And on the Day of Humrin (battle) when you reached at your great number, (Shawwal 8 A.H., February 630 A.D.)

Human Expedition"
Hunain And At-Tâʿif

 Truly, Allâh has given you victory on many battlefields, and on the day of Hunain (battle) when you rejoiced at your great number, but it availed you naught and the earth, vast as it is, was straitened for you, then you turned back in flight. Then Allâh did send down His Sakînah (calmness, tranquillity and reassurance) on the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ), and on the believers, and sent down forces (angels) which you saw not, and punished the disbelievers. Such is the recompense of disbelievers. Then after that Allâh will accept the repentance of whom He wills. And Allâh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

(Qur’án 9: 25-27)

The tribes of Hawâzin and Thaqîf were deeply shaken by the conquest of Makkah (the 20th of Ramadan, 8 H) and the end of polytheism in that region. They felt that, now that the Quraish were defeated, they were going to be the next targets. The leaders of the two tribes agreed to attack Muhammad ﷺ before he attacked them. The leader of Hawâzin, Mâlik ibn ‘Auf An-Nasri, assembled a group of fighters from both his tribe and the Thaqîf. Other tribes joined with them as well Nasr, Jusham, Sa’d ibn Bakr, and people from Banu Hilâl. Absent from Hawâzin were Ka’b and Kilâb.

The tribe of Banu Jusham brought along with them Duraid ibn Assimmah, who was 120 years old and had lost his eyesight. They brought him along not to fight, of course, but to rely on his counsel and his deep knowledge of warfare.

Leading the Thaqíf tribe was Kinânah ibn ‘Abd Yâlil, and by his side was Qârib ibn Al-Aswad ibn Mas’ud ibn Mu’attab. Banu Mâlik was led by Dhul-Khimâr Subâ’i ibn Al-Hârith and his brother, Ahmar ibn Al-Hârith. But the overall leader of the battle was Mâlik ibn ‘Auf An-Nasri. He had brought his army with all their families and the movable property.

Led by Mâlik, the army stopped at a place called Autâs, which was a valley near the homes of the Hawâzin; that is why the battle is also known as the “Battle of Autâs.” It is estimated that Mâlik had 20,000 or more fighters with him.

The Prophet ﷺ set out to meet Mâlik’s army on the 6th of Shawwâl, in the year 8 H. He had with him 12,000 fighters, 10,000 from his Companions ﷺ that took part in the conquering of Makkah, and 2,000 from the ‘freed ones’ of Makkah.

Based on the counsel of Duraid ibn As-Simmah, Mâlik ibn ‘Auf’s army waited to ambush the Muslims in the narrow part of the Hunain valley. It was just before Fajr time, when the Muslims had reached the heart of the valley, that Mâlik’s army ambushed them. Showered by arrows and attacked by horsemen, the Muslim army retreated; but the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and a number of his Companions ﷺ remained firm and protected the backs of their retreating forces. The closest of the Prophet’s Companions ﷺ then gathered around him, in an attempt to turn defeat into victory. Their efforts then sparked the return of their retreating forces.

 Truly, Allâh has given you victory on many battlefields, and on the day of Hunain (battle) when you rejoiced at your great number, but it availed you naught and the earth, vast as it is, was straitened for you, then you turned back in flight. Then Allāh did send down His Sakînâh (calmness, tranquillity and reassurance) on the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ), and on the believers, and sent down forces (angels) which you saw not, and punished the disbelievers. Such is the recompense of disbelievers. Then after that Allāh will accept the repentance of whom He wills. And Allāh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
(Qur’ân 9: 25-27)

Now facing defeat, the forces of Hawâzin and Thaqîf became both confused and scattered. A number of them, among whom was Mâlik ibn ‘Auf, sought refuge in At-Tâ’îf, where they sheltered themselves behind a fortress. And a number of them returned to Autâs. To the latter group the Prophet ﷺ sent a unit of fighters that was headed by Abu ‘Aamîr Al-Ash‘ari.

The Prophet ﷺ set out from Hunain to At-Tâ’îf, where he besieged Mâlik and his followers for a long time somewhere between 23 and 29 nights. Realizing that they could do nothing about neighboring tribes that had accepted Islam and pledged allegiance to the Prophet Thaqîf felt like they were trapped; and their situation worsened when an economic embargo was imposed against them. In Ramadan of the year 9 H, they went to the Prophet ﷺ and announced their acceptance of Islam. And the Prophet ﷺ appointed ‘Uhtmân ibn Abî Al-‘Aas Ath-Thaqafi ﷺ to be their leader. The first important battle that took place among the Arabs during the Prophet’s lifetime was Badr, and the last of them was Hunain.
Because these are the most significant of the battles that the Prophet fought, they are often juxtaposed in speech, so that people say, “Badr and Hunain.”

Tabuk Expedition
The Battle of Al-Ushrah (Hardship)
(Rajab 9, A.H.)

"Allāh has forgiven the Prophet (ﷺ), the Muhājirūn (Muslim emigrants who left their homes and came to Al-Madinah) and the Ansār (Muslims of Al-Madinah) who followed him (Muhammad ﷺ) in the time of distress.”
(Qur'ān 9:117)

“And (He did forgive also) the three who did not join”
(Qur’ān 9:118)

“They turned back, while their eyes overflowing with tears of grief that they could not find anything to spend.” (Qur’an 9:92)
Tabûk:
The Battle of Al-‘Usrah
(Rajab, 9 H)

Arabic text:

Allâh has forgiven the Prophet (ﷺ), the Muhâjirûn (Muslim emigrants who left their homes and came to Al-Madinah) and the Ansâr (Muslims of Al-Madinâh) who followed him (Muhammad ﷺ) in the time of distress (Tabûk expedition), after the hearts of a party of them had nearly deviated (from the Right Path), but He accepted their repentance. Certainly, He is to them full of kindness, Most Merciful. And (He did forgive also) the three who did not join (the Tabûk expedition and whose case was deferred by the Prophet ﷺ for Allâh’s Decision) till for them the earth, vast as it is, was straitened and their own selves were straitened to them, and they perceived that there is no fleeing from Allâh, and no refuge but with Him. Then, He forgave them (accepted their repentance), that they might beg for His Pardon (repent to Him). Verily, Allâh is the One Who forgives and accepts repentance, the Most Merciful.

(Qur’ân 9: 117, 118)

News reached the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ about how the Romans were gathering forces in Ash-Sham (Syria and surrounding regions; these areas were then under the control of the Roman Empire), and about the many units that were mobilizing in Al-Balqa (Jordan). In dealing with the threat, the Prophet ﷺ had all but two choices:

1) Wait for them to launch an attack on Al-Madinah.
2) Go to them in what would be a preventive war.

The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ chose the second option, the one that would involve a show of strength and honor. The Prophet ﷺ then announced that they were going out for battle. As described in the above-mentioned verse, it was a time of distress: the weather was extremely hot and they were undergoing a period of drought. Because the situation required immediate action, the Prophet ﷺ quickly assembled an army of 30,000 fighters and 10,000 horsemen. They set out in Rajab, in the year 9 H. They stopped at Tabûk, which was to be their central camp. After the gathered forces of the Romans became scattered and divided, Khâlid ibn Al-Walîd ﷺ was sent to Daumatil-Jandal. Yuhannah ibn Rau’bah, of ‘Ailâh (Al-‘Aqabah), came to Khâlid ﷺ and made a peace pact on the condition that he was to pay a small amount of Jizyah to the Muslims. The people of Jarbâ and Adhra’ah came as well, making a similar agreement.

Here are some of the most important things that took place during the Tabûk expedition:

1) The Muslims set out to fight the Romans, in spite of the drought and the extreme heat:

«الله تعالى خلق، الله تعالى خلقهم إلهًا خلقهم إلى الخلق من عصام العصر من بعد ما سكينة نابغة قلوب لم ينحوزة نابغة. إنما نابغة نابغة نابغة رؤوف رجيم.

Allâh has forgiven the Prophet (ﷺ), the Muhâjirûn (Muslim emigrants who left their homes and came to Al-Madinah) and the Ansâr (Muslims of Al-Madinah) who followed him (Muhammad ﷺ) in the time of distress (Tabûk expedition), after the hearts of a party of them had nearly deviated (from the Right Path), but He accepted their repentance. Certainly, He is to them full of kindness, Most Merciful. And (He did forgive also) the three who did not join (the Tabûk expedition and whose case was deferred by the Prophet ﷺ for Allâh’s Decision) till for them the earth, vast as it is, was straitened and their own selves were straitened to them, and they perceived that there is no fleeing from Allâh, and no refuge but with Him. Then, He forgave them (accepted their repentance), that they might beg for His Pardon (repent to Him). Verily, Allâh is the One Who forgives and accepts repentance, the Most Merciful.

(Qur’ân 9: 117-118)

2) Those who wept: When the Prophet ﷺ made the announcement that people should get ready to depart for the Tabûk expedition, a number of Companions ☪ came to him and said, “O Messenger of Allâh, carry us (i.e., provide us with mounts so that we can come with you).” He ﷺ said, “By Allâh, I can find no (mounts) to carry you on.” They turned back, and their eyes flowed with tears of sincere grief; it was most painful to them that they should have to stay behind from the expedition for the want of mounts and necessary provisions. Allâh ﷺ then revealed this Verse:

ولا علَى الْبَيْتِ إِذاً مَا أَوْلَدْتَ لَنْ يَخْلِفَهُمْ قَلْبٌ لَا أَجْدَهُ مَا أَحْمَصْتُهُ عَلَيْهِ نُولَوْا
وَأَيْتَاهُمْ تَفَضُّضُ مِنَ الدُّمَّ حُسْنًا أَلا يَجِدُوا مَا يُغَفُّوْا

Nor (is there blame) on those who came to you to be provided with mounts, when you said: “I can find no mounts for you,” they turned back, while their eyes overflowing with tears of grief that they could not find anything to spend.

(Qur’ân 9: 92)

Here is a list of those Companions ☪ whose eyes flowed with tears of grief for not being able to join the expedition:

- From the Banu ‘Amr bin ‘Auf bin ‘Umair clan (from the Ansâr): Sâlim ibn ‘Umair ☪, Tha’labah ibn Zaid ☪,

- From the Bani Wâqif clan: Hirmî bin ‘Amr.
- From Bani Al-Mu’alla: Salmân ibn Sakhir.
- A number of people from Muqarrin: It is said that they were Ma’qil, Suwaid, and An-Nu’mân; however, it is also said that they were Abu Musa Al-Ash’ari and his companions from the people of Yemen.

3) Those who stayed behind (The excuse-givers): When the Prophet and his Companions were preparing to go to Tabûk, a group of Bedouins made excuses to explain why they could not go along for the expedition; but their excuses were weak and unacceptable. Those who excused themselves were a total of 82 men from the Banu Ghifâr tribe. But Allâh did not accept their excuses:

قُلْ كُنِّي عَرَضًا قَدُّيًا وَسُفْرًا قُادِيًا لَنْ أَعْجَوَّ وَلَكِنْ بَعْدًا عَلَى الْأَلْفَةَ وَسَهْيَلَتَنَّ إِلَيْهِ لَوْ أَسْتَطَعْنَا لَجَهَنَّا مَعِيَّمُ مِتْلَكُنَّ أَفْسَدُوهُمْ وَلَهُمْ يَعْلَمُ أَنْ يُخْلِصُوْنَ ۖ فَعَلَّهُمُ الْأَرْضُ ۗ إِنَّمَا تَعَظَّمَّ الْأَلْفَةُ خَلَائِفَ النَّارِ ۖ لَا تَسْتَنْذَكُّ الْذَّلِّينَ بَيْنَ مَنْ مِّنْهُمْ وَالَّذِينَ آخَرِينَ أَنْ يُجَعَّدُوا بِأَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَفْسَدُوهُمْ وَلَهُمْ عَلَى هَٰذِهِمْ مِنَ الْمُنْتَقِينَ

Had it been a near gain (booty in front of them) and an easy journey, they would have followed you, but the distance (Tabûk expedition) was long for them; and they would swear by Allah: “If we only could, we would certainly have come forth with you.” They destroy their own selves, and Allâh knows that they are surely liars. May Allâh forgive you (O Muhammad ﷺ). Why did you grant them leave (for remaining behind; you should have persisted as regards your order to them to proceed on jihâd), until those who told the truth were seen by you in a clear light, and you had known the liars? Those who believe in Allâh and the Last Day would not ask your leave to be exempted from fighting with their properties and their lives; and Allâh is All-Knower of Al-Muttaqîn (the pious).

(Qur’ân 9: 42-44)

And those who made excuses from the bedouins came (to you, O Prophet ﷺ) asking your permission to exempt them (from the battle), and those who had lied to Allâh and His Messenger (ﷺ) sat at home (without asking the permission for it); a painful torment will seize those of them who disbelieve.

(Qur’ân 9: 90)

4) “The Three that Remained Behind”: A few Muslims hesitated in their intention, and despite the fact that they were true, sincere Muslims, they ended up staying behind, a decision that they sincerely regretted later on. They were Ka’b ibn Mâlik ibn Abi Ka’b ﷺ, a brother of Banu Maslamah; Hilâl ibn Umayyah ﷺ, a brother of Banu Wâqîf; and Murârah ibn Ar-Rabi’ ﷺ, a brother of Banu ‘Amr ibn ‘Auf. There was a fourth sincere Muslim who lagged behind, Abu Khuthaimah (‘Abdullah ibn Khuthaimah Al-Ansârî), a brother of Banu Sâlim ibn ‘Auf; but he ended up traveling all alone until he caught up with the Prophet ﷺ and the Muslims at Tabûk. As for the three others mentioned above, they sincerely repented. And when the Muslims returned from At-Tabûk, the three were punished with a kind of punishment that helped to purify their souls. The Muslims were ordered to boycott them to neither greet nor speak to them though the three were free to go wherever they wanted. Then, after a very difficult period in which they repented their sin, the following Verses were revealed, announcing that Allāh ﷻ had forgiven them:

اللَّهُمَّ أَنَّى تَأْتَبْنَا عَلَى الْأَنْتِيَةَ وَالْمَهْيَجِينَ وَالْأَنْسَارِ لِيُذْهَبَنَّ إِلَى سَعَاطَةَ الْعَدْرَةِ مُنْفَعًاٰ بِعَدْدَ مَا كَسَتْ يَدَّيُهُ فَلِقُوَّتْ رُوَّادَهُ نَابِرًا عَلَيْهِمْ إِلَّا أَنْ يُبْهِرَ رَوْفًا تَجْرِيرًا وَأَنْقَضَيْنَهُمْ فَخَلَفُوا حَتَّى إِذَا سَافَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ الأَرْضُ يِمَا رَحَبَتْ وَضَافَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ أَنْسَمَهُ وَظَنُّوا أَنَّهَا مَلِيَّةَ مِنْ اَلْلَّهِ إِلَّا أَنْ يُنَبِّي عَلَيْهِمْ لَسْتُونِي إِنَّ اَلْلَّهَ هُوَ الْأَمْرُ الْكِبَارُ

Allāh has forgiven the Prophet (ﷺ), the Muhājirūn (Muslim emigrants who left their homes and came to Al-Madinah) and the Ansār (Muslims of Al-Madināh) who followed him (Muhammad ﷺ) in the time of distress (Tabūk expedition), after the hearts of a party of them had nearly deviated (from the Right Path), but He accepted their repentance. Certainly, He is to them full of kindness, Most Merciful. And (He did forgive also) the three who did not join (the Tabūk expedition and whose case was deferred by the Prophet ﷺ for Allāh’s Decision) till for them the earth, vast as it is, was straitened and their own selves were straitened to them, and they perceived that there is no fleeing from Allāh, and no refuge but with Him. Then, He forgave them (accepted their repentance), that they might beg for His Pardon (repent to Him). Verily, Allāh is the One Who forgives and accepts repentance, the Most Merciful.

(Qur’ān 9: 117-118)

5) The hypocrites: Hypocrites are those who outwardly manifest Islam but inwardly harbor disbelief. The leader of the hypocrites was ‘Abdullah ibn Ubai ibn Salūl, who, before the migration of the Prophet ﷺ, had been nominated to become leader of Yathrib (Al-Madinah).

Not wanting to be found out, and finding that they could create much mischief from within the ranks of the Muslims, the hypocrites mingled freely among them. About the hypocrites, Allâh ﷻ said:

إِنَّ الْمُحْتَقِيِّنَ فِي الْذِّرَاعِ لَأَكْسَكِلُ مِن الْمَيْتَانِ وَلَنْ تَجْعَدَ لَهُمْ تَصَافَرًا

Verily, the hypocrites will be in the lowest depth (grade) of the Fire; no helper will you find for them.

(Qur’ân 4: 145)

Hudhaifah ibn Al-Yamân ﷺ was the holder of the Prophet’s secret knowledge regarding the hypocrites, meaning that the Prophet ﷺ told Hudhaifah ﷺ and no one else about the identities of the hypocrites. And that is why, when anyone would die after the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ, ‘Umar ﷺ would wait to see if Hudhaifah ﷺ attended the Funeral Prayer. If Hudhaifah ﷺ attended the Funeral Prayer, ‘Umar ﷺ would come as well; otherwise, ‘Umar ﷺ would abstain from participating in the Funeral Prayer and in the burial.

بَعْدُ مَنْ حَجَّهُمْ خَلَفَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﻣُصَلِّيّوْهَا أَنْ يُجَّهَّدُوا بِأَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَشْهَاطِهِمْ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَقَالُوا لَا نَعْفَرُوا فِي أُخْرِجِ فَلَا نَزَّلَ جَهَّمَ أَنْسَدَّ حَرًا إِلَّا أَوْ كَانُوا يَفْقَهُونَ (٨) فَلَيَضْحَكُوا

Those who stayed away (from Tabuk expedition) rejoiced in their staying behind the Messenger of Allâh (ﷺ); they hated to strive and fight with their properties and their lives in the Cause of Allâh, and they said: “March not forth in the heat.” Say: “The fire of Hell is more intense in heat;” if only they could understand! So let them laugh a little and (they will) cry much as a recompense of what they used to earn (by committing sins).

(Qur’ân 9: 81-82)

6) Sûrat At-Tawbah, in which certain points are mentioned in regards to the Tabûk expedition, mentions “As-Sâbiqun (literally: the ones who come first or the ones who precede others) Al-Awwalun (literally: the first ones) (Qur’ân 9: 100).” Scholars of Tafsîr disagree about the identities of the Sâbiqun Al-Awwalun. It is said that they are those who pledged allegiance to the bountiful and good pleasure of their Lord... (Quran 5:2). The people heading to the Sacred House (Makkah), seeking the welfare, not the gathered people of animals, and others, nor Allah, nor the Sacred Month, nor of the animals brought for Allah, nor the Sacred Stone, nor of the symbols of the Symbols of God. Revealed: You who believe! Violate not the sanctity of the Symbols of God.
Messenger of Allâh ﷺ in Bai‘atur-Ridwân, under the tree at Al-Hudaibiyah. Among other views in the matter is that they are the ones who accepted Islam early enough to have prayed towards both Qiblahs (Baitul-Maqdis and the Ka‘bah) and who participated in the Battles of Badr and Uhud. According to Ar-Râzi, the first ones to migrate and to help (i.e., the Ansâr) are those who raced to embrace Islam. But racing to embrace Islam (preceding others) does not necessarily mean racing to migrate. What he is saying, it seems, is that the verse refers both to members of the Muhâjirun (those who migrated to Al-Madinah) and the Ansâr (‘The Helpers’: Native dwellers of Al-Madinah who accepted Islam and welcomed those who migrated to their land).

وَالسِّيِّمَيْنَ الْأَوَّلَيْنَ مِنَ الْمُهِجِّرِينَ وَالْأَسْلَامِ وَالَّذِينَ آتَيْنَاهُمُ الْبَصِيرَةَ إِلَيْهِمْ رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُمْ وَرَضَى عَنْهُ وَآتَاهُ هُمْ جَنَّتَنَّ نَجَّرَيْنِ حَيَّانِ اَلْأَهْلِ النَّبِيِّ يُبَيِّنَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا لِّدِيَالِلْفُؤُضُرٍّ

Allâh is well-pleased with them as they are well-pleased with Him. He has prepared for them Gardens under which rivers flow (Paradise), to dwell therein forever. That is the supreme success. Freedom from (all) obligations (is declared) from Allāh and His Messenger (ﷺ) to those of the Mushrikūn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh), with whom you made a treaty. So travel freely (O Mushrikūn) for four months (as you will) throughout the land, but know that you cannot escape (from the punishment of) Allāh; and Allāh will disgrace the disbelievers. And a declaration from Allāh and His Messenger (ﷺ) to mankind on the greatest day (the 10th of Dhul-Hijjah – the 12th month of Islamic calendar) that Allāh is free from (all) obligations to the Mushrikūn and so is His Messenger (ﷺ). So if you (Mushrikūn) repent, it is better for you, but if you turn away, then know that you cannot escape (from the punishment of) Allāh. And give tidings (O Muhammad ﷺ) of a painful torment to those who disbelieve. Except those of the Mushrikūn with whom you have a treaty, and who have not subsequently failed you in aught, nor have supported anyone against you. So fulfil their treaty to them for the end of their term. Surely, Allāh loves Al-

Muttaqûn (the pious). Then when the Sacred Months (the 1st, 7th, 11th, and 12th months of the Islamic calendar) have passed, then kill the Mushrikûn wherever you find them, and capture them and besiege them, and lie in wait for them in every ambush. But if they repent [by rejecting Shirk (polytheism) and accept Islamic Monotheism] and perform As-Salât (the prayers), and give Zakât (obligatory charity), then leave their way free. Verily, Allâh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful. And if anyone of the Mushrikûn (polytheists, idolaters, pagans, disbelievers in the Oneness of Allâh) seeks your protection then grant him protection so that he may hear the Word of Allâh (the Qur’ân) and then escort him to where he can be secure, that is because they are men who know not. How can there be a covenant with Allâh and with His Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) for the Mushrikûn (polytheists, idolaters, pagans, disbelievers in the Oneness of Allâh) except those with whom you made a covenant near Al-Masjid Al-Harâm (at Makkah)? So long as they are true to you, stand you true to them. Verily, Allâh loves Al-Muttaqûn (the pious). How (can there be such a covenant with them) that when you are overpowered by them, they regard not the ties, either of kinship or of covenant with you? With (good words from) their mouths they please you, but their hearts are averse to you, and most of them are Fâsiqûn (rebellious, disobedient to Allâh). They have purchased with the Ayât (proofs, evidences, Verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) of Allâh a little gain, and they hindered men from His way; evil indeed is that which they used to do. With regard to a believer, they respect not the ties, either of kinship or of covenant! It is they who are the transgressors. But if they repent [by rejecting Shirk (polytheism) and accept Islamic Monotheism], perform As-Salât (the prayers) and give Zakât (obligatory charity), then they are your brethren in religion. (In this way) We explain the Ayât (proofs, evidences, Verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) in detail for a people who know. But if they violate their oaths after their covenant, and attack your religion with disapproval and criticism then fight (you) the leaders of disbelief (chiefs of Quraish pagans of Makkah) — for surely, their oaths are nothing to them — so that they may stop (evil actions). Will you not fight a people (pagans of Makkah) who have violated their oaths and intended to expel the Messenger (ﷺ) while they did attack you first? Do you fear them? Allah has more right that you should fear Him if you are believers. Fight against them so that Allah will punish them by your hands and disgrace them and give you victory over them and heal the breasts of a believing people, and remove the anger of their (believers’) hearts. Allah accepts the repentance of whom He wills. Allah is All-Knowing, All-Wise. Do you think that you shall be left alone while Allah has not yet tested those among you who have striven hard and fought and have not taken Walijah [(Bitānah — helpers, advisors and consultants from disbelievers, pagans) giving openly to them their secrets] besides Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), and the believers. Allah is Well-Acquainted with what you do. It is not for the Mushrikūn (polytheists, idolaters, pagans, disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah) to maintain the mosques of Allah (i.e. to pray and worship Allah therein, to look after their cleanliness and their building), while they witness against their own selves of disbelief. The works of such are in vain and in Fire shall they abide. The mosques of Allah shall be maintained only by those who believe in Allah and the Last Day; perform As-Salāt (the prayers), and give Zakāt (obligatory charity) and fear none but Allah. It is they who are on true guidance. Do you consider the providing of drinking water for the pilgrims and the maintenance of Al-Masjid Al-Harām (at Makkah) as equal to the one who believes in Allah and the Last Day, and strives hard and fights in the Cause of Allah? They are not equal before Allah. And Allah guides not those people who are the Zālimūn (polytheists and wrong doers). Those who believed (in the Oneness of Allah — Islamic Monotheism) and emigrated and strove hard and fought in Allah’s Cause with their wealth and their lives, are far higher in degree with Allah. They are the successful. Their Lord gives them glad tidings of mercy from Him, and His being pleased (with them), and of Gardens (Paradise) for them wherein are everlasting delights. They will dwell therein forever. Verily, with Allāh is a great reward. O you who believe! Take not as Auliya‘ (supporters and helpers) your fathers and your brothers if they prefer disbelief to Belief. And whoever of you does so, then he is one of the Zālimūn (wrong doers).

(Qur’ān 9: 1-23)

There is no sin on you if you seek the bounty of your Lord (during pilgrimage by trading). Then when you leave ‘Arafāt, remember Allāh (by glorifying His Praises, i.e., prayers and invocations) at the Mash‘ar-il-Harām. And remember Him (by invoking Allah for all good) as He has guided you, and verily, you were, before, of those who were astray.

(Qur’ān 2: 198)

“The Greatest Day” refers to the Hajj of ‘Arafah, distinguishing it (The Greater Hajj) from ‘Umrah. It is also said that it refers to the Day of An-Nahr. It is called the Greater Hajj (The Greater Pilgrimage) because ‘Umrah is called the Lesser Hajj (The Lesser Pilgrimage). It is also called the Greater Hajj because among the pilgrims of that particular Hajj was Abu Bakr As-Siddeeq ِ.".

As for the Farewell Pilgrimage (Hajjatul-Wida‘), Hajjatul-Balâgh, or the Pilgrimage of Islam (Hajjatul-Islam), these all refer to the Hajj of the year 10 H, the only year in which the Prophet  performed Hajj. There are many important lessons that the Prophet  taught during that pilgrimage; one of those lessons was that, no matter how rich or poor a person is, and no matter what color a person is, he is inherently equal to all other human beings: the only factor that can make a person superior to others is the level of his Taqwa (piety).

After Islam began to spread, there are four major routes people took in traveling from their lands to Makkah for Hajj (these routes are

The Apostate Wars
(11-12 H)

And Muhammad (ﷺ) is no more than a Messenger, and indeed (many) Messengers have passed away before him. If he dies or is killed, will you then turn back on your heels (as disbelievers)? And he who turns back on his heels, not the least harm will he do to Allâh; and Allâh will give reward to those who are grateful.

(Qur’ân 3: 144)

O you who believe! Whoever from among you turns back from his religion (Islam), Allâh will bring a people whom He will love and they will love Him; humble towards the believers, stern towards the disbelievers, fighting in the way of Allâh, and never fear the blame of the blamers. That is the Grace of Allâh which He bestows on whom He wills. And Allâh is All-Sufficient for His creatures’ needs, All-Knower.

(Qur’ân 5: 54)

As for the saying of Allâh ﷻ, “Allâh will bring a people whom He will love and they will love Him; humble towards the believers, stern towards the disbelievers, fighting in the way of Allâh, and never afraid of the blame of the blamers.” (Qur’ân 5: 54), the scholars of Tafsîr say that the Verse is referring to Abu Bakr As-Siddiq and his companions who fought with him against the apostates.

When the Prophet died, many Arab tribes apostatized; some of them did so when they refused to pay Zakât; and others, when they sided with liars who claimed to be prophets, such as Musailamah Al-Kadhdhâb, Tulaihah Al-Asdi, and Sujâh.

Abu Bakr As-Siddiq prepared 11 armies, and he followed their progress closely from Al-Madinah, as if he were seated in a modern-day command center. He was able to keep a close eye on the progress of his armies—their comings and goings, their daily battles, their movements and strategy, etc., through military messengers, who went back and forth with messages to and from Abu Bakr and the leaders of his armies.

The decisive battle took place in Al-Yamâmah against Musailamah Al-Kadhdhâb and his followers. The battle reached its climax in a garden that, from then on, became known as Hadîqatul-Mawt (The Garden of Death). It was there that many eminent Companions showed wonderful examples of bravery and sacrifice. Musailamah was killed by the sword of ‘Abdullah ibn Zaid Al-Ansâri and the spear of Wahshi. And the main responsibility of leading the Muslims and ending the apostate movement rested on the shoulders of Khâlid ibn Al-Walid. After the Muslims were victorious in the Apostate Wars, Abu Bakr As-Siddiq began to send armies to conquer Iraq and to free the lands of Ash-Sham, thus bringing people out of the darkness of disbelief and into the light of belief.

Appendix

To make this Atlas more comprehensive, I include here a description of places, peoples, and persons that are mentioned either explicitly or implicitly in the Noble Qur’ân and that do not require any map or picture for me to describe them.

أَلَّا تَضَرِّفُواٖ

• "And waste not by extravagance"

وَهُوَ الَّذِي أَنْصَىٖ جَنَّتَ مَعْرِيقَتِهِ وَغَيْرِ مَعْرِيقَتِهِ وَأَنْبَثَّ وَأَنْزَلَ عَلَيْكُمْ أَسْحَاطٍ وَأَنْبَثَّ وَأَزْمَتُوهُ مَيْسُوكَانِ وَغَيْرِ مَيْسُوكَانِ حَسَنًا مِّنْ نَحْرٍ إِذَا أَنْزَلَ وَأَنْبَثَّهُ حَقُّهُ

“And it is He Who produces gardens trellised and untrellised, and date-palms, and crops of different shape and taste (its fruits and its seeds) and olives, and pomegranates, similar (in kind) and different (in taste). Eat of their fruit when they ripen, but pay the due thereof (its Zakât, according to Allâh’s Orders 1/10th or 1/20th) on the day of its harvest, and waste not by extravagance. Verily, He likes not Al-Musrifun (those who waste by extravagance).”

(Qur’ân 6: 141)

This was revealed in regards to Thâbit ibn Qais ibn Shammâs, who cut off all of the fruits of his trees and fed them to others; by the time nightfall came, he had no fruits left that he could call his own.

أَلَّا تَضَرِّفُواٖ

• "He will be cut off"

إِنَّكُمْ سَيَنْذَكَرُونَ هُوَ الْلَّهُ الْقَهَرَٖ

356
“For he who makes you angry (O Muhammad ﷺ, he will be cut off (from every good thing in this world and in the Hereafter).”

(Qur’an 108: 3)

This verse was revealed about Al-‘Aas ibn Wâ’il. When the Prophet’s son Al-Qâsim died, Al-‘Aas said the following about the Prophet ﷺ: “Leave him, for he is a man who is cut off: he has no offspring (i.e., he will have no descendants). When he dies, he will no longer be remembered.” In reality, as we are reminded of in the above verse, it is Al-‘Aas who is cut off cut off, from the mercy of Allâh ﷻ.

• “Abu Lahab”

“ científico de los dos dedos de Abu Lahab (un desgraciado de la Prophet), y que se dé cuenta! Su fortuna y sus hijos (etc.) no le beneficiarán! Será quemado en el Fuego de la llama ardiente! Y su esposa, la que va con madera (azafatas de Sâdân que ella usó para poner en el camino del Prophet, o usó para calumniarlo). En su cuello está una cuerda de Masad (fibra de palma).”

(Qur’an 111: 1-5)

Abu Lahab’s full name is ‘Abdul-‘Uzza ibn ‘Abdul-Muttalib, and he was one of the uncles of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. His wife was ‘Arwa Umm Jamil, a sister of Abu Sufyân; she was called, as is mentioned in the above verse, the one ‘who carries wood.’ This, a famous metaphor in the Arabic language, refers to a slanderer. These two - Abu Lahab and ‘Arwa showed unmitigated enmity and cruelness to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ.

• “Four are Sacred”
"Verily, the number of months with Allâh is twelve months (in a year), so was it ordained by Allâh on the Day when He created the heavens and the earth; of them four are Sacred, (i.e., the 1st, the 7th, the 11th, and the 12th months of the Islamic calendar). That is the right religion, so wrong not yourselves therein, and fight against the Mushrikoon (polytheists, pagans, idolators, disbelievers in the Oneness of Allâh) collectively, as they fight against you collectively. But know that Allâh is with those who are Al-Muttaqun (the pious)."

(Qur’ân 9: 36)

These, in their proper order, are the twelve months of the lunar calendar: Muharram, Safar, Rabî’ Al-Awwal, Rabî’ Ath-Thani, Jumâda Al-Ulah, Jumâda Ath-Thâniyah, Rajab, Sha’bân, Ramadan, Shawwâl, Dhul-Qa’dah, and Dhul-Hijjah.

As the above-mentioned verse clarifies, four of these months are sacred. They are Dhul-Qa’dah, Dhul-Hijjah, Muharram (these three come one after the other), and Rajab (which is preceded and followed by months that are not from the Sacred Months). These are sacred and inviolable months, months in which people should strive to do more acts of worship, and in which fighting is prohibited, so as to ensure safety for Hajj (in the first three of the sacred months) and ‘Umrah (in Rajab).

- “The wife of Fir’aun”

"And the wife of Fir’aun (Pharaoh) said: ‘A comfort of the eye for me and for you. Kill him not, perhaps he may be of benefit to us, or we may adopt him as a son.’ And they perceive not (the result of that).”

(Qur’ân 28: 9)

Fir‘aun’s wife was Aasiyah bint Muzâhim, a noble and pious believer, whose heart Allâh ﷻ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ

“A comfort of the eye for me and for you. Kill him not, perhaps he may be of benefit to us, or we may adopt him as a son.’

And Allâh ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ ﷺ

أُهْلُ الْمُدِينَةِ الَّذِي أَسْتَطَعْتَ أَهْلُهُ

• “The people of a town they asked them for food”

فَأَطْلَقَهَا حَتَّى إِذَا أَنَا أَهْلُ قَرْيَةٍ أَسْتَطَعْتُ أَهْلُهَا فَأَلْبَأْنَاهَا أَنْ يَضْفَعُوهَا فَوَجَدْنَاهَا فِي هَذَا جَدَّاً

“Then they both proceeded, till, when they came to the people of a town, they asked them for food, but they refused to entertain them. Then they found therein a wall about to collapse and he (Khidr) set it up straight. [Musa (Moses)] said: “If you had wished, surely, you could have taken wages for it!”

(Qur’ân 18: 77)

The name of the town is not mentioned in the above Verse, which is why people differ about which town is being referred to. Some say that it is Antâkiyah; others, that it is Ailah (Al-‘Aqabah); others, that it is Tanjah; and yet others, that it is a city in the region of Al-Buhairât Al-Murrah.

The following is taken from Ibn Al-Qayyim’s book Miftâh Dârus-Sa’âdah: “A questioner asked about the name of the town that is referred to in Sûrat Al-Kahf (i.e., the above-mentioned Verse). It has been said that it is Ailah (Al-‘Aqabah); it has also been said that it is Antâkiyah, or Tanjah, or the meeting of the Gulf of Al-‘Aqabah and the Gulf of As-Suweis, or that it is beside Al-Buhairât Al-Murrah. Allâh ﷺ did not mention the name of the town, thus protecting it from being exposed for the quality of miserliness, a quality that is hated by Allâh ﷺ as well as by people. Had Allâh ﷺ mentioned the name of the town, the reputation of being miserly would have stuck to its inhabitants until the Day of Resurrection.

• “The two seas”

WOODEN hart ٨٩ حَرَّمَ الْبَحْرَيْنِ بَلْفِيٍّ يَبْيَضُ لَلاَّ بَيْضَيٍّ (١٠)

“He has let loosed the two seas (the salt water and the sweet) meeting together. Between them is a barrier which none of them can transgress.”

(Qur’ân 55: 19, 20)

Two bodies of water, one salty and one sweet, neighbor one another and even meet, yet they do not mix; there is a barrier between them, so that they do not mix. The same can be said about warm sea currents (such as the Gulf current) and cold currents (such as the Labrador current): the two meet but do not mix with one another.

• “And the inhabitants of the city came rejoicing (at the news of the young men’s arrival).” (Qur’ân 15: 67)

Coming from the city of Soddom, these, the people of Lot, were rejoicing at the news of Lot’s guests; their intention was to commit lewd acts on them.

WOODEN ٧٠ وَدَخَلَ الْبَيْتَةَ عَلَى هُمْ عَفُسَتَة مِنَ أَهْلِهَا (٥٧)

• “And he entered the city at a time of unawareness of its people;” (Qur’ân 28: 15)

This is referring to when Musa ﷺ entered either the city of Manf (Memphis) or Heliopolis (The Eye of the Sun), in Egypt.
• “And We gave them refuge on high ground...” (Qur’an 23:50)

This high ground is Jairun (in or near Damascus), though some believe that the verse is referring to a highland area somewhere near or in the land of Jerusalem.

• “Ribbiyun”

“And many a Prophet (i.e., many from amongst the Prophets) fought (in Allâh’s Cause) and along with him (fought) Ribbiyun (large bands of religious learned men). But they never lost heart for that which did befall them in Allâh’s way, nor did they weaken nor degrade themselves. And Allâh loves As-Sâbirin (the patient ones etc.).”

(Qur’an 3: 146)

Ribbiyun refers to scholars who educate, train, and raise people to higher levels of faith. They are righteous slaves of Allâh, and they are wise, learned men of the religion.

• Zaid ibn Hârithah

“And (remember) when you said to him (Zaid ibn Hârithah the freed slave of the Prophet (ﷺ) on whom Allâh has bestowed Grace (by guiding him to Islam) and you (O Muhammad) have done favor (by manumitting him) “Keep your wife to yourself, and fear Allâh.” But you did hide in yourself (i.e., what Allâh has already made known to you that He will give her to you in marriage) that which Allâh will make manifest, you did fear the people (i.e., Muhammad ﷺ married the divorced wife of his manumitted slave) whereas Allâh had a better right that you should fear Him. So when Zaid had accomplished his desire from her (i.e., divorced her), We gave her to you in marriage, so that (in future) there may be no difficulty to the believers in respect of (the marriage of) the wives of their adopted sons when the latter have no desire to keep them (i.e., they have divorced them). And Allâh’s Command must be fulfilled.”

(Qur’ân 33: 37)

“on whom Allâh has bestowed Grace”: by guiding Zaid ibn Hârithah to Islam.

“And you (O Muhammad) have done favor (by manumitting him)”: By not only emancipating Zaid ﷺ, but also providing him with a good upbringing.

”Keep your wife to yourself”: This is referring to Zainab bint Jahsh ﷺ.

• “As-Sâmîrî”
“(Allâh) said: Verily! We have tried your people in your absence, and As-Sâmîri has led them astray.”

(Qur’ân 20: 85)

“فَأَلْقَى الْأَلْمَارِيُّ

“They said: We broke not the promise to you, of our own will, but we were made to carry the weight of the ornaments of the [Fir‘aun’s (Pharaoh’s)] people, then we cast them (into the fire), and that was what As-Sâmîri suggested.”

(Qur’ân 20: 87)

“فَأَلْقَيْنَ حَطِبَكَ يَسْتَيْرَبُ

“[Musa (Moses)] said: And what is the matter with you, O Sâmîri (i.e., why did you do so)?”

(Qur’ân 20: 95)

As-Sâmîri was originally from the town of Bâjarma, which is situated in Syria, beside the Euphrates River, near the city of Ar-Raqqah. After first going to Egypt, As-Sâmîri then moved on to Sinai. He was both a magician and a hypocrite, and he came from a people who worshipped cows. While Musa was away, As-Sâmîri gathered some pieces of jewelry and formed a calf out of them. He then invited Musa’s people to worship that calf.

• “As-Saddain” (The two mountains)

“مَا حَيْثُ إِذَا بَلَغَ بَيْنَ الْأَسْدَدَيْنِ وَجَدَ مِنّي دُوَاهَا هَوًّا لَّا يَكَادُون يَقْفُونَ قُوَّاً

“Until, when he reached between two mountains, he found, before (near) them (those two mountains), a people who scarcely understood a word.”

(Qur’ân 18: 93)

The area referred to above is situated between two huge barriers, where the lands of Mongolia end, not too far from Azerbaijan and Armenia. As-Saddain is the dual form for the word Sadd, which At-Tabari defined as being a barrier between two things. The meaning in this context is two mountains, between which a barrier was made. It was Dhul-Qarnain who filled up the barrier, in order to prevent the tribes of Ya’jūj and Ma’jūj from creating mischief and plundering neighboring towns and villages. It is said that the As-Saddân are situated near the Gate of Gates (Dirband).

> وَسَكَنُوهُمْ فِي مَسَاعِي كَيْنَ ظُلِّمْوَا أَنْفُسَهُمْ

- “And you dwelt in the dwellings of men who wronged themselves…” (Qur’an 14: 45)

Of the various views in the matter, the strongest is that the above verse is referring to the dwellings of Sâlih, in southern Tabûk. The meaning of the verse is: You dwelt in the dwellings of men who wronged themselves and whom we consequently destroyed; will you then not reflect on and learn a lesson from their dwellings?

> وَالسَّلَوِّيٰ

- “As-Salwa (The quails)”

> وَطَلَّهُمَا عَلَى جَبَلِهِمَا الْمَشْرِقَةِ وَأَنزَلْنَاهُمَا عَلَى نُجُومٍ مَّنْ سَلَوِّيٰ كَلَّامُهُمْ مِنْ طَيِّبَتٍ مَا رَفَقَنَا وَمَا طَلُّمْنَا وَلَكِنْ كَانُوا أُسْفِهِمْ يُظْلِمُونَ ٨٥

“And we shaded you with clouds and sent down on you Al-Manna and the quails, (saying): “Each of the good lawful things We have provided for you,” (but they rebelled). And they did not wronged Us but they wronged themselves.”

(Qur’an 2: 57)

> وَقَطَعْنَاهُمْ أَثْنَاءَ عَشْرَةَ أَسْبَاطًا أَمَامَهُمْ وَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَى مُوسَىٰ إِذْ أَسْتَنفِقَهُ قُوُّهُ أَبَاحَ أَشْرَبْنَا عَلَى الْحَجَرِ فَأَطْلَقْتَ مَنْهُ إِنْ أَنَبَا عَشْرَةَ عِيسَىً قَدْ عَلَمَ سَاحِلَ أَنَايْنَ مَسْتَرْكُبْنَاهُمْ وَطَلَّهُمَا عَلَى نُجُومٍ مَّنْ سَلَوِّيٰ كَلَّامُهُمْ مِنْ طَيِّبَتٍ مَا رَفَقَنَا وَمَا طَلُّمْنَا وَلَكِنْ كَانُوا أُسْفِهِمْ يُظْلِمُونَ ٨٥
“And We divided them into 12 tribes (as distinct) nations. We directed Musa (Moses) by inspiration, (saying): ‘Strike the stone with your stick,’ and there gushed forth out of it 12 springs: each group knew its own place for water. We shaded them with the clouds and sent down upon them Al-Manna and the quails (saying): ‘Eat of the good things with which We have provided you.’ They harmed Us not but they used to harm themselves.’

(Qur’ân 7: 160)

وَالْمَلِلٍ (٨٨)

“O Children of Israel! We delivered you from your enemy, and We made it covenants with you on the right side of the Mount, and We sent down to you Al-Manna and quails (As-Salwa).”

(Qur’ân 20: 80)

As-Salwa is a bird that is actually similar to a quail, and its taste is delicious. The majority of Tafsir scholars hold this view.

- “We shall brand him over the nose!” (Qur’ân 68: 16)

This verse was revealed about Al-Walid ibn Al-Mughirah. It means: We shall brand him on his nose, so that he will be known by that disgrace until his death.

- “Two parties”

“إِذْ هَذَا طَلِيقَانِ مِنَ الْمُمْتَزِجِينَ وَيَقُولُ perms. وَهُوَ عَلَىٰ الرَّسُولِ” (١٣٢)

“When two parties from among you were about to lose heart, but Allâh was their Wali (Supporter and Protector). And in Allâh should the believers put their trust.”

(Qur’ân 3: 122)
The parties referred to in this verse are two Ansâr clans: Banu Salamah and Banu Hârithah. These clans almost lost heart; they intended to leave Uhud after the betrayal of ʿAbdullah ibn Ubai ibn Salûl, who retreated with one-third of the army. Ibn Salûl said, “For what reason should we kill ourselves and our children!” The two aforementioned clans from the Ansâr intended to leave as well, but then Allâh  ﷺ protected them, and they remained with the Messenger of Allâh  ﷺ.

• “Two sects” (Qur’ân 6: 156)

“إن نفَّذَوْا إِنْمَا أَنْزَلَ الْكِتَابُ عَلَى مَالِيْكَانِينَ إِنَّهُمَا عَلَى كُلِّ يَأْتِينَ وَإِنَّكَ عَلَى دِرَاسَاتِكَ لَغَنْفِلِيَّكَ”

“Lest you (pagan Arabs) should say: The Book was only sent down to two sects before us (the Jews and Christians), and for our part, we were in fact unaware of what they studied.”

(Qur’ân 6: 156)

The two sects referred to in this verse are the Jews and the Christians.

• “And they ask you about Dhul-Qarnain” (Qur’ân 18:83)

Contrary to what some claim, he is definitely not Alexander of Macedon. Rather, Dhul-Qarnain was a righteous king, who was given both knowledge and wisdom. He was called Dhul-Qarnain (Qarnain is the dual form of Qarn, which means ‘horn’), because he was the king of both eastern lands and western lands. He was a just, Muslim king.

• “Have you not looked at him who disputed with Ibrâhîm (Abraham) about his Lord (Allâh)?” (Qur’ân 2: 258)
It was An-Namrud ibn Kan‘án who disputed with Ibráhim ﷺ about the existence of Allâh ﷻ.

“Allâh’s Signs would surely make them understand.”

- “Surely! Those who disbelieved in Our Ayât (proofs, evidences, Verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.).”’ (Qur’ân 4: 56)

This Verse is referring to Al-‘Aas ibn Wâil ibn Hâshim As-Sahmi Al-Qurashi, who was from those who mocked and derided the Prophet ﷺ in particular, and the Muslims in general.

- “Or like the one who passed by a town and it had tumbled over its roofs.”

“Or like the one who passed by a town and it had tumbled over its roofs. He said: ‘Oh! How will Allâh ever bring it to life after its death?’ So Allâh caused him to die for a hundred years, then raised him up (again). He said: ‘How long did you remain (dead)?’ He (the man) said: ‘(Perhaps) I remained (dead) a day or part of a day.’ He said: ‘Nay, you have remained (dead) for a hundred years, look at your food and your drink, they show no change; and look at your donkey! And thus We have made of you a sign for the people. Look at the bones, how We bring them together and clothe them with flesh.’ When this was clearly shown to him, he said, ‘I know (now) that Allâh is able to do all things’.”’

(Qur’ân 2: 259)
The town mentioned at the beginning of the Verse is Jerusalem (İliyâ), after it had been brought to ruin by Bukhtanassar.

- "Those who are miserly"

Those who are miserly and enjoin miserliness on other men and hide what Allâh has bestowed upon them of His Bounties. And We have prepared for the disbelievers a disgraceful torment."

(Qur’ân 4: 37)

This Verse was revealed for a group of Jews, who used to say to the Ansâr, “Do not spend your wealth for Jihad or for charity.”

- “And for those who accuse their wives…” (Qur’ân 24: 6)

An incident between Hilâl ibn Umayyah and his wife prompted the revealing of this verse. In the presence of the Prophet, Hilâl accused his wife of committing adultery with Sharîf ibn Sahm.

- “Verily! Those who call you from behind the dwellings,” (Qur’ân 49: 4)

‘Uyainah ibn Hisn and Al-Aqra’ ibn Hâbis led a delegation of 70 men from Banu Tamim who had all come to see the Messenger of Allâh. They came to him at noon, when he was taking his midday nap. They called out from outside, “O Muhammad, come out to us.”

“And if they had patience till you could come out to them, it would have been better for them.’’

(Qur’an 49: 5)

- “Was there any town (community) that believed (after seeing the punishment)...” (Qur’an 10: 98)

The town being referred to is Ninawa, the town of Yunus אֶלֶף.

- “Qârûn”

“Verily, Qârûn (Korah) was of Musa’s (Moses) people, but he behaved arrogantly towards them. And We gave him of the treasures, that of which the keys would have been a burden to a body of strong men. When his people said to him: Do not be glad (with ungratefulness to Allâh’s Favors). Verily! Allâh likes not those who are glad (with ungratefulness to Allâh’s Favors).”

(Qur’an 28: 76)

“And (We destroyed also) Qârûn, (Korah), Fir’aun (Pharaoh), and Hâmân. And indeed Musa (Moses) came to them with clear Ayât (proofs, evidences, Verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.), but they were arrogant in the land, yet they could not outstrip Us (escape Our punishment).”

(Qur’an 29: 40)

“To Fir’aun (Pharaoh), Hâmân, and Qârûn (Korah), but they called (him): “A sorcerer, a liar!”

(Qur’ân 40: 24)

Fir’aun (Pharaoh) was the well-known tyrant, and Hâmân was his minister. And Qârûn, the cousin of Musa ﷺ, was an extremely wealthy man. Based on the wealth that Allâh ﷻ blessed him with, Qârûn thought he was superior to others, and so he began to deal with his people in an arrogant and high-handed manner.

• “And the towns which We had blessed,” (Qur’ân 34: 18)

The area referred to in this verse extends from the lands of Saba’ to the towns of Ash-Sham; they are a series of towns that come one after another from Yemen to Ash-Sham. These towns are so close to one another that it is often the case that, while one is in certain areas of one of the towns, one can see the town that is next to it.

• “The town on which was rained the evil rain.” (Qur’ân 25: 40)

This Verse is referring to the town of Prophet Lot ﷺ, Sodom and Gomorrah. The Qurais would often pass it on their way to doing business in Ash-Sham.

• “This town whose people are oppressors;” (Qur’ân 4: 75)

This Verse is referring to Makkah, which remained a land of disbelief until it was conquered in the year 8 H. ‘Whose people’ refers to the leaders of the Qurais, who prevented the weak Muslims from migrating to Al-Madinah, and who, until the year 8 H, forbade Makkah’s inhabitants from openly practicing the religion of Islam.

• “A township, that dwelt secure and well content.” (Qur’ân Although it seems obvious that the verse is referring to Makkah, some believe that it is referring to another township that is meant to serve as an example for Makkah. Ar-Râzi said, “This is an example for the people of Makkah, for they lived a life of safety, comfort, and prosperity. Then Allâh ﷻ sent a great blessing to them, Muhammad ﷺ, but they disbelieved in him and inflicted a great deal of harm upon him. And so Allâh ﷻ punished them with drought and hunger for a number of years.

- “....stronger than your town which has driven you out..” (Qur’ân 47: 13)

There were many evil inhabitants of other townships who were stronger and mightier than the people of Makkah. But the end of all of them was utter destruction.

- “For the taming of the Quraish.” (Qur’ân 106: 1)
Quraish is derived from the word Al-Qarsh, which means: gathering together, joining together, and (mutually) profiting.

- “...and whose heart is at rest with Faith;” (Qur’ân 16: 106)
The polytheists continued to physically torture ‘Ammâr ibn Yâsir ﷺ until they succeeded in forcing him to utter words of disbelief. People then began to say, “‘Ammaar ﷺ has indeed disbelieved.” Knowing that to be utterly untrue, the Prophet ﷺ said, “Indeed,

ُبۡلَا إِلَّا أَنْ قُلْنَا لِيَقُولُوا لَنِعْمَأَا مَلِيَّةٌ مُّؤْمِنًا مِّنْ فُوْقِهِ إِلَى قَدِيمِهِ، وَاِخْتَلَّتْ الإِيمَانُ بِنَحْوِهِ وَذِيَّهُ

‘Ammâr is filled with Iman (Faith) from his hairline (his head) until his feet. And Iman (Faith) is mixed in his flesh and blood.’” After ‘Ammâr ﷺ was released by the disbelievers, he ﷺ went to the Prophet ﷺ, crying. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ asked him, "What state do you find your heart to be in?"

‘Ammâr ṣaw answered, “It is at rest with Faith.” The Prophet ﷺ said, » إن عادوا فقد«

“If they return, then do it again (i.e., if, through physical torture, they force you to utter words of disbelief, then comply with their request, but let your heart be at rest with Faith).”

» قول أنى تُجدَل«

• “The statement of her that disputes with you”

“Indeed Allâh has heard the statement of her (Khaula bint Tha’labah) that disputes with you (O Muhammad ﷺ) concerning her husband (Aus ibn As-Sâmit), and complains to Allâh. And Allâh hears the argument between you both. Verily, Allâh is All-Hearer, All-Seeer. Those among you who make their wives unlawful (Az-Zihâr, which is the saying of a husband to his wife: ‘You are to me like the back of my mother (i.e., unlawful for me to approach’) to them by saying to them “You are like my mother’s back.” They cannot be their mothers. None can be their mothers except those who gave them birth. And Verily, they utter an ill word and a lie. And verily, Allâh is Oft-Pardoning, Oft-Forgiving. And those who make unlawful to them (their wives) (by Az-Zihâr) and wish to free themselves from what they uttered, (the penalty) in that case (is) the freeing of a slave before they touch each other. That is an admonition to you (so that you may not return to such an ill thing). And Allâh is All-Aware of what you do. And he who finds not (the money for freeing a slave) must fast two successive months before they both touch each other. And for him who is unable to do so, he should feed 60 of the Mîskeen (poor). That is in order that you may have perfect faith in Allâh and His Messenger. These are the limits set by Allâh. And for disbelievers, there is a painful torment.”

(Qur’ân 58: 1-4)

The one who disputed was Khâlah bint Thâ’labah . She had an argument with her husband, Aus ibn As-Sâmit , who said to her, “You are to me like the back of my mother (i.e., ‘you are unlawful for me to approach’).” When Khâlah told the Prophet what her husband had said and complained about how he was treating her, Allâh revealed the Verse:

٥٨٠ِ قَدَ سَمَّعَ ﷺ آَنَّكَ تَجِلِّكَ فِي رَوْجَهَا وَتَنَّسَىٰ إِلَىِّ اللَّهِ

The Prophet then told her to inform her husband that he had to make atonement for what he said concerning her being forbidden upon him: “Order him to free a slave or to fast two months continuously.” She said, “He is an old man, and so he cannot fast.” The Prophet said,

٥٨١١ فَلَيْطِعُمْ سِنتَينَ مَسْكِينَ وَسِفتَ (سِنتَوانَ ضَاعًا) مِنْ نَمَرٍ

“Then let him feed 60 poor people Wasqan (A Wasq is a form of measurement) of dates.”

She said, “O Messenger of Allâh, he doesn’t have any (dates).” After the Prophet said he would give some dates to help for Aus’s atonement, Khâlah promised to do the same. In appreciation of her generous promise, the Prophet said, and she of course did as the Prophet ﷺ ordered her to do.

Years later, during his caliphate, ‘Umar ibn Al-Khattâb ﷺ passed by an old woman. After he stopped to greet her, they started talking to one another. Since ‘Umar ﷺ was the Caliph, many people would come to him with their problems. One man was at that moment standing and waiting for ‘Umar ﷺ to finish his conversation with the old woman. Becoming impatient, the man said, “O Leader of the Believers, you are making people wait because of this old woman!”’

‘Umar ﷺ answered, “Woe unto you! Do you know who she is? She is the woman whose complaint Allâh ﷻ heard from above the seven heavens. She ﷺ is Khaulah bint Tha’labah ﷺ, regarding whom Allâh ﷻ revealed the verse:

> فَكَانَ مِنْ قَرْبَيْنِ أُهْلَكْنَاهَا وَهُمْ طَالِيُّمُهَا"Indeed Allâh has heard the statement of her (Khaulah bint Tha’labah) that disputes with you (O Muhammad ﷺ) concerning her husband (Aus ibn As-Sâmît)."

‘Umar ﷺ continued: “By Allâh, were she to stand (here) until the night, I would not part from her, except for prayer; and then I would return to her.”

> وَكَانَ مِنْ كُلِّ اسْتَحْلَالٍ أُهْلَكْنَاهَا وَهُمْ تَطَيِّبُونَ“And many a township have We destroyed while it was given to wrongdoing.” (Qur’an 22: 45)

Though the word ‘township’ is used here to convey a general meaning, something more specific is being referred to: a castle that was built by Shaddâd ibn ‘Âd ibn Iram.
• “How many a town (community), that were wrongdoers, have We destroyed,” (Qur‘ān 21: 11)

It is a town called Hadur, and it is situated in Yemen.

• “So, We expelled them from gardens and springs, treasures, and every kind of honorable place.” (Qur‘ān 26: 57, 58)

Some scholars of Tafsir maintain that this verse is referring to the Al-Fayum of Egypt. ‘We expelled them’ means: We expelled Fir‘aun and his people from their gardens and lands that were bordered by flowing rivers; and We expelled them from their beautiful homes and from the places in which they hoarded treasures of gold and silver.

• “(The Prophet ﷺ) frowned and turned away, because there came to him the blind man.” (Qur‘ān 80: 1, 2)

This Verse was revealed for ‘Abdullah ibn Umm Maktum  who was blind. He once went to the Messenger of Allāh  and said, “Teach me from that which Allāh has taught you.” He then repeated this request, not knowing that the Messenger of Allāh  was busy inviting important leaders of the Quraish to Islam. Not liking to be cut off in his speech, the Prophet ﷺ frowned and turned away from ‘Abdullah ibn Umm Maktum . Allāh  then revealed the Verse: “(The Prophet ﷺ) frowned and turned away, because there came to him the blind man.” The Messenger of Allāh  would then say to ‘Abdullah ibn Umm Maktum ,

مرحباً بمن عانبني فيه ربي، وَبَسطَ لَهُ رَداءهُ

“Welcome, O one about whom my Lord reproached me.” In honoring him, the Prophet  would then extend his robe for him.
• “A fount of (molten) brass.”

“And to Solomon (We subjected) the wind, it’s morning (stride from sunrise till midnoon) was a month’s (journey), and its afternoon (stride from the midday decline of the sun to sunset) was a month’s (journey, i.e., in one day he could traveled two months’ journey). And We caused a fount of (molten) brass to flow for him, and there were jinns that worked in front of him, by the Leave of His Lord, and whosoever of them turned aside from Our Command, We shall cause him to taste of the torment of the blazing Fire.”

(Qur’ân 34: 12)

Allâh bestowed these blessings upon Sulaimân, just as He made steel soft and pliable for Dâwud.

• “Give me pieces (blocks) of iron,” then, when he had filled up the gap between the two mountain-cliffs, he said: “Blow,” till when he had made it (red as) fire, he said: “Bring me molten copper to pour over it.” (Qur’ân 18: 96)

The translation of the Verse is self-explanatory: Dhul-Qarnain was asking for molten iron that he was going to use to make an impenetrable barrier between two mountain cliffs.

• “For the poor emigrants.”
“And there is also a share in this booty) for the poor emigrants, who were expelled from their homes and their property, seeking Bounties from Allâh and to please Him. And helping Allâh (i.e., helping His religion) and His Messenger (Muham- mad ﷺ). Such are indeed the truthful (to what they say).”

(Qur’ân 59: 8)

They were the ‘People of Suffah,’ poor Muslims who migrated to Al-Madinah Al-Munawwarah; these Companions had neither homes, nor family, nor wealth. They were approximately 400 men who took refuge in a shaded part of the Prophet’s Masjid. It is there that they lived and learned their religion. At meal times, the Prophet would send groups of them to various Companions; and some among them would eat with him.

• “Allâh will try you by a river”

“Then when Tâlût (Saul) set out with the Army, he said: ‘Verily! Allâh will try you by a river. So whoever drinks thereof, he is not of me, and whoever tastes it not, he is of me, except him who takes (thereof) in the hollow of his hand.’ Yet, they drank thereof, all, except a few of them. So when he had crossed it (the river), he and those who believed with him, they said: ‘We have no power this day against Jâlût (Goliath) and his hosts.’ But those who knew with certainty that they were to meet their Lord, said: ‘How often a small group overcame a mighty host by Allâh’s Leave?’ And Allâh is with As-Sâbirin (the patient ones etc.).”

(Qur’ân 2: 249)

The Jordan River (also known as the Shariah River), which runs between Palestine and Jordan, is the intended river in the above-mentioned Verse.

“The east and the west”

“...And to Allâh belong the east and the west, so whenever you turn yourselves or your faces there is the Face of Allâh (and He is High above, over His Throne). Surely! Allâh is All-Sufficient for His creatures’ needs, All-Knowing.”

(Qur’ân 2: 115)

“The fools (pagans, hypocrites, and Jews) among the people will say, ‘What has turned them (Muslims) from their Qiblah [prayer direction (towards Jerusalem)] to which they were used to face in prayer.’ Say, (O Muhammad ﷺ) ‘To Allâh belong both, east and the west. He guides whom He wills to a Straight Way’.”

(Qur’ân 2: 142)
“It is not Al-Birr (piety, righteousness, and each and every act of obedience to Allāh, etc.) that you turn your faces towards east and (or) west (in prayers); but Al-Birr is (the quality of) the one who believes in Allāh, the Last Day, the Angels, the Book, the Prophets and gives his wealth, in spite of love for it, to the kinsfolk, to the orphans, and to Al-Masākin (the poor), and to the wayfarer, and to those who ask, and to set slaves free, performs As-Salāt (Prayer) (Iqāmatus-Salāt), and gives the Zakāt, and who fulfill their covenant when they make it, and who are patient in extreme poverty and ailment (disease) and at the time of fighting (during the battles). Such are the people of the truth and they are Al-Muttaqun (the pious ones).”

(Qur’ān 2: 177)

“Have you not looked at him who disputed with Ibrāhīm (Abraham) about his Lord (Allāh), because Allāh had given him the kingdom? When Ibrāhīm (Abraham) said (to him): ‘My Lord (Allāh) is He Who gives life and causes death.’ He said, ‘I give life and cause death.’ Ibrāhīm (Abraham) said, ‘Verily! Allāh causes the sun to rise from the east; then cause it you to rise from the west.’ So the disbeliever was utterly defeated. And Allāh guides not the people, who are Zālimun (wrongdoers, etc.).”

(Qur’ān 2: 258)

“Musa (Moses) said: “Lord of the east and the west, and all that is between them, if you did but understand!”

(Qur’ān 26: 28)
“He Alone is) the Lord of the east and the west, Lâ ilaha illa Huwa (none has the right to be worshipped but He). So take Him Alone as Wakil (Disposer of your affairs).”

(Qur'ân 73: 9)

“He is) the Lord of the two easts (places of sunrise during early summer and early winter) and the Lord of the two wests (places of sunset during early summer and early winter).”

(Qur'ân 55: 17)

“And We made the people who were considered weak to inherit the eastern parts of the land and the western parts thereof which We have blessed. And the fair Word of your Lord was fulfilled for the Children of Israel, because of their endurance. And We destroyed completely all the great works and buildings which Fir'aun (Pharaoh) and his people erected.”

(Qur'ân 7: 137)

“So I swear by the Lord of all (the 360) points of sunrise and sunset in the east and the west that surely We are Able.”

(Qur'ân 70: 40)

The sun, as is observable, rises from two points: a point that we can see in the summer; and a much further off point that we can see in the winter. And the same can be said about the setting of the sun.

“Till, when (such a one) comes to Us, he says [to his Qarin (Satan/devil companion)] ‘Would that between me and you were the distance of the two easts (or the east and west)’ - a worst (type of) companion (indeed)!”

(Qur’an 43: 38)

"Lord of the heavens and of the earth, and all that is between them, and Lord of every point of the sun’s risings. (None has the right to be worshiped but Allâh)."

(Qur’an 37: 5)

- “Among the believers are men”

(Qur’an 2: 67)

“Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allâh [i.e., they have gone out for Jihad (holy fighting), and showed not their backs to the disbelievers], of them some have fulfilled their obligations (i.e., have been martyred), and some of them are still waiting, but they have never changed (i.e., they never proved treacherous to their covenant which they concluded with Allâh) in the least.’’ (Qur‘ân 33: 23)

This verse was revealed for Anas ibn An-Nadr ˹ﷺ˼, who took part in the Battle of Uhud (Shawwal, 3 H) but not in the Battle of Badr. After the latter battle was finished, Anas ibn An-Nadr ˹ﷺ˼ said, “O Messenger of Allâh, I was absent from the first battle you fought against the polytheists. By Allâh, when Allâh witnesses me fighting the polytheists, Allâh will indeed see what I will do (against them)!” On the day of Uhud, when the Muslims were searching for the corpses of their martyred brothers, they came across the corpse of Anas ibn An-Nadr ˹ﷺ˼. They found in him over 80 wounds, which were inflicted by swords, spears, and arrows. He ˹ﷺ˼ had so many wounds that it was difficult to recognize him; it was his sister, Ar-Rubayyi’a bint An-Nadr, who identified him, recognizing him by his fingertips.

• “And of mankind there is he whose speech may please you (O Muhammad ˹ﷺ˼) in this worldly life,” (Qur‘ân 2: 204)

This Verse was revealed for Al-Akhnas ibn Shuraiq Ath-Thaqafi. He outwardly manifested Islam, but then, when he came across a field of crops and a number of donkeys that belonged to a group of Muslims, he set fire to the crops and slaughtered the donkeys.

• “... and for attracting the hearts of those who have been inclined (towards Islam);”

“As-Sadaqât (here it means Zakât) are only for the Fuqarâ’ (poor), and Al-Masâkin (the poor) and those employed to collect (the funds); and for attracting the hearts of those who have been inclined (towards Islam); and to free the captives; and for those in debt; and for Allâh’s Cause (i.e., for Mujâhidin - those fighting in the holy wars), and for the wayfarer (a traveler who is cut off from everything); a duty imposed that Allâh. And Allâh is All-Knower, All-Wise.”

(Qur’ân 9: 60)

The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ gave camels to a number of Arab chieftains and leaders, in order to attract their hearts towards Islam. Among those he gave to are the following: Al-Aqra’ ibn Hábis At-Tamimi, Al-‘Abbâs ibn Mirdâs As-Sulami, ‘Uyainah ibn Hisn Al-Fazârî, Abu Sufyân ibn Harb, Mu’âwiyyah ibn Abî Sufyân, Al-Hârîth ibn Hishâm ibn Al-Mughîrah, Hakim ibn Taliq, Khâlîd ibn Asid ibn Abil-‘Ais, Sa’îd ibn Yurbu’ Al-Makhzumi, Sahwân ibn Umayyah ibn Khalf Al-Jumahi, Suhail ibn ‘Amr, Huwaitib ibn ‘Abdul-‘Uzza Al-‘Aamiri, Hakim ibn Hizâm ibn Khuwailid, Abu Sufyân ibn Al-Hârîth ibn ‘Abdul-Muttalib, Mâlik ibn ‘Auf, and Al-‘Alâ’ ibn Járiyah Ath-Thaqafi.

The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ gave 100 camels to each of the above, except for Sa’eed ibn Yurbu’ and Huwaitib; he ﷺ gave these two 50 camels each.

• “And among them is he who says: “Grant me leave (to be exempted from Jihad) and put me not into trial.” (Qur’ân 9: 49)

This was revealed for Al-Jadd ibn Qais, who was a hypocrite. When the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ told the Muslims to get ready for the Battle of Tabûk, Al-Jadd said, “O Messenger of Allâh, grant me leave to be exempted from Jihad and put me not to trial of the Roman women as they are very beautiful.”

• “My enemies and your enemies as friends”
"O you who believe! Take not My enemies and your enemies (i.e., disbelievers and polytheists, etc.) as friends, showing affection towards them, while they have disbelieved in what has come to you of the truth (i.e., Islamic Monotheism, this Qur'an, and Muhammad ﷺ), and have driven out the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) and yourselves (from your homeland) because you believe in Allâh your Lord! If you have come forth to strive in My Cause and to seek My Good Pleasure, (then take not these disbelievers and polytheists, etc., as your friends). You show friendship to them in secret, while I am All-Aware of what you conceal and what you reveal. And whosoever of you (Muslims) does that, then indeed he has gone (far) astray, (away) from the Straight Path. Should they gain the upper hand over you, they would behave to you as enemies, and stretch forth their hands and their tongues against you with evil, and they desire that you should disbelieve. Neither your relatives nor your children will benefit you on the Day of Resurrection (against Allâh). He will judge between you. And Allâh is the All-Seer of what you do."

(Qur'an 60: 1-3)

This was revealed in regards to Hâtib ibn Abi Balta'ah ☪, who, during the year 8 H, just after the Quraish had violated the terms of the Treaty of Al-Hudaibiyah, sent a letter to the Quraish, informing them that the Muslims were preparing to conquer Makkah.
• “And of mankind is he who would sell himself, seeking the Pleasure of Allâh.” (Qur’ân 2: 207)

This was revealed for Suhaib Ar-Rumi who, when he left Makkah in order to migrate to Al-Madinah, was pursued by certain members of the Quraish. When it became certain that they were going to overtake him, Suhaib got off of his mount, took out his bow and quiver, and said, “O people of Quraish, you indeed know that I am one of your best archers. By Allâh, you will not reach me until I fire every single arrow that I have with me in my quiver, and then I will begin to fight with my sword. If you want, I will tell you where my wealth is in Makkah, but you will have to then leave me alone.” They said, “Yes (we agree to those terms).” When Suhaib completed his journey and reached Al-Madinah, the Messenger of Allâh (ﷺ) said, “(Your) trade has been very profitable, O Abu Yahya (i.e., Suhaib), (your) trade has been very profitable.”

• “So they destroyed their own dwellings with their own hands.” (Qur’ân 59: 2)

This was revealed in relation to when the people of Banu An-Nadir were banished from their homes in Al-Madinah.

“رب أعرض اني أشكر يجعلتنى اليتي آمنت على وعل ولدنا وأن أعمل صليحا ترضيه وأصلح لي في ديني تبكي إليك وعلي من المسلمين

“My Lord! Grant me the power and ability that I may be grateful for Your Favor which You have bestowed upon me and upon my parents, and that I may do righteous good deeds, such as please You; and make my offspring good. Truly, I have turned to You in repentance, and truly, I am one of the Muslims (submitting to Your Will).”
